SPORT FLASH RACE ENTRIS

BOSTON AMERICAN

2¢

Copyright, 1940, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co. Entered as second class matter at Boston Postoffice

VOL. XXXVII—NO. 74 BOSTON, SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1940 28 PAGES PRICE 2 CENTS

VERDUN TAKEN NAZIS SAY

CLAIM MAGINOT LINE BREACHED

STORY ON PAGE 2

WAR NEWS PICTURES TODAY ON PAGES 2, 3, 6, 7, 28

VERDUN CAPTURE CLAIMED; ALLIES PLAN VITAL MOVE

By the Associated Press

Capture of Verdun and a breach in the Maginot line were claimed by the Germans today as high Allied councils apparently were shaping momentous decisions.

The breach in the Maginot line was said to have been made on a "broad front" south of Saarbrucken.

For two days German artillery hour after hour had hurled shells into the steel and concrete of France's bastion on the western front and Stukas had dived down to punish it with bombs in the Saar region.

French Cabinet in Session

Both the town of Verdun and its famed fortress fell, the Germans asserted.

The French radio announced a cabinet meeting following reports in London "strategic decisions of great moment" already had been taken by Allied army leaders in France and that "the next 24 hours are likely to show what these are."

In Berlin, tne French situation was regarded as hopeless.

Nazi troops have penetrated the Maginot line fortifications, the German high command reported and French forces are in flight.

200,000 Prisoners, Booty

More than 200,000 prisoners have been counted since June 5, it reported, and inestimable amounts of war material have been captured.

Exultant Nazis declared that what still remains of France's armies is on the verge of collapse.

"The French are fleeing wildly," a German spokesman declared, and the Maginot line, on which France once relied to keep her safe from German invasion, "soon will be past history."

Allied sources admitted that this was the bitterest hour for France in 70 years.

But the French withdrawals under never-ceasing Nazi pressure were described orderly, without panic or desperation, and General Weygand's poilus were said even to have launched counter-attacks at several points to check the German speed and cover the retirement.

Deny Separate Peace Plan

Fighting in Normandy west of Louviers and Evreux and "violent" German pressure in Champagne toward Troyes and St. Dizier were reported by the French.

What France's leaders would do next was unknown but an authoritative British source said that a separate French peace with Germany was not being considered.

With the Allied flanks harassed by Italy, a sudden development on the border of East Prussia gave Germany cause to look anxiously to her own.

A Moscow broadcast heard in London announced that Lithuania had accepted a Soviet ultimatum which demanded, in part, that Soviet Russian troops be permitted immediately to spread to vital Lithuanian centers in sufficient strength to safeguard the Russian-Lithuanian mutual assistance treaty.

ITALY CLAIMS SUCCESSES

"Successful attacks" on the British Mediterranean base of Malta and Red sea base of Aden were claimed by the Italian army which said it also had occupied points of French territory along the Alpine frontier.

The Italian command declared also Allied attacks on Italian outposts along the Egyptian frontier had been repulsed and that torpedoes had sunk one French destroyer and damaged another in a naval attack on the Italian port of Genoa Thursday.

British reports from Alexandria said Italian forts of Cappruzzo and Maddalena had been captured in sharp fighting on the Egyptian-Libyan frontier.

Anxiety on other margins of the spreading war was reflected also in Switzerland, where the public was told how to resist a possible parachute invasion, and in Rumania, where King Carol asked Turkey to stay neutral in order to save the Balkans from becoming involved.

The British issued a call for volunteers for the air force and began registration of about 300,000

Continued on Page 6, Column 3

MAGINOT LINE PUSH—With Paris captured, the German high command today intensified its efforts to flanking the Maginot Line. While one army was driving toward Dijon and had passed Romilly (1) another pushed on at St. Dizier (2). At Verdun (3) the high command claimed capture of the town and the fortress and said a serious breach had been made in the Maginot Line at Saarbruecken (4). A smash through the Belfort Gap (5) was anticipated by military observers.

CRUISER SUNK BY ITALIANS

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—The admiralty today announced H. M. S. Calypso, an anti-aircraft cruiser, was sunk in Mediterranean waters by an Italian submarine.

One officer and 38 men were missing.

Enemy mines sank two trawlers the Myrtle and Ocean Sunlight in home waters and the admiralty said it was feared there were no survivors of the Myrtle and that eight were missing from the Ocean Sunlight.

The Calypso, built in 1917, and rebuilt in 1929, was 450 feet long and displaces 4180 tons. She usually carried around 400 men. She was armed with 5 six-inch guns and 8 torpedo tubes.

French Cabinet Meets in Secret

London, June 15 (INS) — The French cabinet met under chairmanship of Pres. Albert Lebrun at some undisclosed spot in France today, according to a French radio broadcast.

Premier Paul Reynaur conferred with Generalissimo Maxine Weygand before the session.

WEATHER

LOCAL—Threatening with showers this afternoon and tonight; Sunday fair and slightly cooler; moderate to fresh southwest winds, shifting to west and northwest tonight.

NEW ENGLAND—Local showers tonight; Sunday fair, slightly cooler in the north portions.

LONG RANGE FORECAST

Weather outlook for the week beginning Monday:

North and Middle Atlantic States: Scattered local thundershowers Wednesday and Thursday, otherwise generally fair. A moderately warm week in the Middle Atlantic States and mostly near normal temperatures in the North Atlantic States.

N. E. TEMPERATURES 10 A. M.

BOSTON	68	Augusta	61
Providence	67	Concord	68
Hartford	70	Montpelier	63

OBSERVATIONS AT 11 A. M.

Barometer	29.80	Wind	SW
Humidity	66	Wind velocity	18

Coldest Day to Date—8 degrees, Jan. 20.
Warmest Day to Date—90 degrees, June 13.
Average Temperature Yesterday—65 degrees.
Deficiency in Heat to Date—298 degrees.
Total Precipitation to Date— 18.82 inches.
High Tide—8:10 p. m.
Height of Tide—10 ft. 4 in., p. m.
Sunrise—5:07 a. m.
Sunset—8:23 p. m.
Length of Day—15:16.

FLYING CONDITIONS

Boston-Bangor-Caribou and Boston-Montreal flights on schedule.
Boston-New York, Boston-Chicago, Boston-Cleveland and New York-Washington on schedule.
For last minute information call East Boston 2000 or any Boston airline office.

RED ARMY TAKES OVER LITHUANIA

MOSCOW, June 15 (AP)—Sweeping ultimatums from Soviet Russia, including the ouster of the existing Lithuanian government and "free passage" into that country of Soviet troops, were accepted today by Lithuania, it was officially announced here.

Lithuania was declared to have given in one hour ahead of the deadline set by Moscow.

Berlin dispatches reported that Red Army troops started marching into the little country this afternoon.—Editor's Note.

TRIPLE ANTI-RED PACT

An official communique distributed by Tass, Russian news agency, accused the Lithuanian government of having prepared to attack the Soviet garrison stationed in that country, of having "rudely violated" its mutual assistance pact with Russia, and entered with Latvia and Estonia into a "military alliance directed against the Soviet Union."

The communique said Juozas Urbsys, Lithuanian foreign minister who has been in Moscow for several days, gave the consent of the Lithuanian government to three Soviet demands:

1—That the Lithuanian minister of internal affairs and head of the political police department be tried as those directly guilty of provocative actions against Soviet garrisons in Lithuania.

MUST HOLD ENEMIES

2—That Lithuania form immediately a new government which would be capable and ready to realize honestly the Soviet-Lithuanian mutual aid pact agreed upon last fall and to hold in leash the enemies of this pact.

3—That Lithuania guarantee fully the free passage to Lithuanian territory of Soviet troops in numbers sufficient to realize the pact.

The Lithuanians had until 10 a. m. to reply and her decision was communicated to Premier-Foreign Commissar Vyacheslaff Molotoff at 9 a. m.

INDEX

Boston After Dark	17
Classified	19
Crossword Puzzle	12
Editorial	18
Drama	11
Radio	9

COMICS

Annie Rooney	21	Blondie	20
Hatlo	27	Skippy	21
Henry	21	Phantom	21
Popeye	21	Mandrake	21
X-9	19	Judge Little	24
Bringing Up Father			10

Hitler to Speak At Versailles

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, June 15 (INS)—Adolf Hitler will make an important speech at Versailles on June 28, anniversary of the signing of the World War peace treaties, the newspaper Poeten reported today.

Italians Rout French Ships, Battle British

ROME, June 15 (AP)—An Italian torpedo boat and the coastal batteries of Genoa were reported today to have driven off a French naval squadron which bombarded the Ligurian Riviera at dawn Thursday. One French destroyer was reported torpedoed and sunk and another damaged.

The Rome radio said three persons were killed and 12 wounded in the Genoa engagement and six persons were killed and 25 wounded in an air raid on Savona at an undisclosed time. Savona is near Genoa on the coast.

Sharp fighting between Italian and British troops on the Egyptian-Libyan frontier, after repeated Royal Air Force bombings of enemy positions, accentuated today the danger that Egypt itself would be drawn actively into the war.

RIDDLE AMERICAN PLANES

Direct hits by the South African air force on Italian barracks and buildings at two undisclosed places in southern Ethiopia were reported by the Union of South Africa.

Italian aerial machine-gunners riddled a shipment of new planes from the United States in an attack on an airport on the Provence coast of France, the Milan newspaper Corriere Della Sera reported. It was indicated the attack was made Thursday.

The newspaper said the planes, which were lined up on the field with their gasoline tanks still empty after being unloaded from a ship from America, were reduced to wreckage.

The Italian fliers were said to have raked the field from a height of 75 feet.

LEAFLETS OVER ROME

Rome authorities also said airplanes flew over Rome early yesterday and dropped leaflets indicating the planes were French.

The leaflets called on the Italians to quit the war. One woman was killed by anti-aircraft fire directed at the plane.

A belated account of the Genoa fight was given today by Stefani, official Italian news agency.

At the same time, the Italian high command reported occupation of "some localities" in France along the Alpine frontier by Italian troops who overcame "enemy attempts to hinder our action." Prisoners were reported captured.

In the air, the high command said, bombers attacking in waves scored direct hits on the British air and naval base at Aden, near

Continued on Page 6, Column 1

LAUDS FRENCH

QUEEN ELIZABETH
Cheers French Women

Elizabeth on Air Pledges Aid to France

LONDON, June 15 (INS)—The women of Great Britain are prepared to make the same bitter sacrifices as the women of shell-torn cities of France, Queen Elizbeth of England promised in a message to the French nation.

In a radio address in which her voice was obviously strained by emotion, she said that France is defending "the liberty of the entire world" and that the women "of this heroic France . . ." have all "my sentiments of affection and admiration for their suffering and courage."

"As for me, who have always so loved France," Queen Elizabeth said, "I suffer today as you do. I think often of those warm summer days, during which Paris robed itself with such charm, to receiv the King and Queen of England.

"With an enthusiasm and generosity which touched us deeply, the people of France became partisans of peace, as did our government. I felt the heart of the women of France beating then in unison with mine. It is to these women that I wish to say, on this sad day, very simply, that their sorrows are our sorrows.

"A nation which has to defend it such men, and to love it, such women, must win sooner or later. She has a right to aid, without reservation, of all the free people of the world.

"I give you tonight the sympathy of all the women of Great Britain, who are pepared, in order to bring about a common victory, to suffer the same sacrifices which speak so much in your honor, and in that of your great country."

LOST IN DELIVERY—Originally slated for delery into the German lines via the muzzles of blazing French anno ers, shells are scattered throughout the wreckage of a munitions train which was blasted by German bombers.

SOVIETS BUILDING ALASKA AIR BASE

NOME, Alaska, June 15 (AP)—Russians were reported building an air field and wireless station today on bleak Big Diomede Island, four miles from Little Diomede Island on the American side of the international boundary.

The Nome Daily Nugget quoted a reliable source as saying a crew of 25 Russians and several Russian Eskimo families were hard at work constructing the air field.

There were conflicting reports that Russia was settling thousands of persons on the island, which is only 25 miles west of the Alaskan mainland and 150 miles northwest of Nome.

The Nugget said there was no basis to the report, but in Washington, D. C., yesterday territorial congressional delegate Anthony Dimond said he had been informed Russia was colonizing the island in a big way."

The newspaper said it was informed that the wireless station would be used for year-round weather report broadcasts and pointed out that, while one or two families usually occupy Big Diomede in the winter, a small band of natives annually sets out from nearby Siberia to live on the island during the summer.

Big Diomede Island is one of three in a Bering strait group. Little Diomede, with a population of about 150, and Fairway Rock are owned by the United States.

International News Service Photo

CALAIS SURRENDER—Hands up in token of surrender, a party of British Tommies march toward their German captors in the French port of Calais. These men are probably some of the small garrison that held out in the citadel at Calais long after the port had fallen.

Turks Key To Peace Drive in Balkans

BUDAPEST, June 15 (AP)—A fresh drive for the maintenance of peace in southeastern Europe began today as the Danubian states weighed the likely consequences of Turkish entry into the war.

Informed quarters here are convinced that, should Turkey decide on active participation beside Britain and France, her western treaty partners, this act would spread the conflict throughout the Balkans in spite of the Balkan nations' prevailing reluctance to assume billigerent status.

NOTE TO TURKEY

King Carol of Rumania has dispatched a note to President Ismet Inonu of Turkey asking that Turkey maintain neutrality in order to prevent the war from spreading to the Balkans, it was reported in diplomatic circles.

That Yugoslavia—a traditional friend of France—is reorienting her national policy better to harmonize with Germany's current success was indicated by the release from prison of a dozen or more leaders of factions favoring the Rome-Berlin axis.

Most prominent of these was former Premier Milan Stojadinovic, who was interned April 19 after Belgrade authorities announced discovery of a plot to overthrow the goverrment and turn the country over to the Nazis. Now, according to reliable reports, he is in Belgrade seeking to form a pro-axis cabinet.

CLOSER TO NAZIS

His release, taken as an indication that Premier Dragisa Cvetkovic's government is seeking to draw closer to Germany and Italy, coincided with reports that pro-Allied cabinet members were preparing to withdraw in order to permit such reorientation of Yugoslav policy.

Hungary, meanwhile, is adapting herself to a rigid routine of air raid precautions. Budapest went through practice alarms and a blackout yesterday and last night, with elaborate organization of the city's population. Other cities also are drilling the people in these protective measures, emphasizing the possible imminence of tragedy.

Turks' Non-Belligerency Told Britain, Is Report

SOFIA, June 15 (INS)—Turkish Foreign Minister Sucru Saracoglu has informed the British ambassador to Ankara Turkey will remain as a non-belligerent in the European war, it was reported today.

Turks Due to Reveal War Stand on Monday

BELGRADE, June 15 (INS)—(Via Berlin)—Reports from Ankara today said a declaration by the Turkish government is expected on Monday on the issue of peace or war.

Members of the Turkish government party, said thes advices, declared Turkey will remain out of the war under all circumstances.

Finnish Ship Sub Victim

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—A Reuters (British news agency) dispatch from Madrid today said a Finnish ship, identified as the Margareta, had been attacked by a submarine 450 miles off the northwest coast of Spain.

The dispatch said 19 survivors had been picked up by a Spanish fishing boat.

Churchill War Report Tuesday

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill will deliver a war statement before the House of Commons on Tuesday, it was announced today.

Coast Guard Hunts Missing Girl, Youth

WOODS HOLE, June 15—The mysterious disappearance of a 19-year-old Falmouth girl and her boy sailing companion was revealed today with the finding of their 16-foot sailboat on the West Falmouth shore.

According to the Coast Guard, Margaret Long and Peter Winslow, 19, of Orlando, Fla., were last seen when they went out from Quisset harbor yesterday afternoon for a two-hour sail.

When they failed to return the owner of a Quisset boatyard reported them missing to the Cuttyhunk Coast Guard station.

Their small sailboat was found on the West Falmouth shore with sails furled and tied down and a slightly damaged rudder. Other than the damage to the rudder the boat was said to be in good condition.

Coast Guard officials said the patrol boat from the Cuttyhunk station is searching the waters from Woods Hole to Falmouth for the couple. At the same time police aided by Boy Scout patrols are searching the shore line.

The waters in which the pair were sailing are considered quite safe in good weather such as that prevailing yesterday and officials conducting the search are at a loss to explain their mysterious disappearance.

One theory advanced on the basis of the boat's good condition and furled sails is that the couple went for a swim and met with a mishap.

Boy Fire Alarm Gang Trapped

Clever detective work today trapped what Roxbury police described as one of the most amazing juvenile bands in police annals —a fire alarm gang.

The youngsters, ranging in age from 12 to 17 years, raided Roxbury stores after diverting police attention by sounding false fire alarms, police said.

Seized were seven boys, led by the 17-year-old youth, all charged with 70 cases of breaking and entering, and ringing false fire alarms, according to officers.

One department store was entered three times, the complaint states.

Haverhill Pair Freed in Killing

Two men, traced to Chicago through a Haverhill woman, are not the men wanted for the murder of James W. Tuohey, 25, assistant manager of the Household Finance Corporation, police here said they were convinced today.

The men had contacted East Chicago police after a letter from the woman informed them police wanted them for questioning in regard to the shooting of Tuohey during a $1686 holdup.

Capt. James F. Daley of the Milk st. station said that the original information on the men came when a Haverhill neighbor reported one of the men said he was going West and wanted to get a gun because he was going to get some easy money.

According to Capt. Daley the holdup murderer was described as about five feet four inches tall. Both of the men who contacted Chicago police are much taller than that.

FINNISH GIRL WINNER

Radcliffe College will award a $1000 fellowship to a girl student of Finland for graduate study in the sciences at Radcliffe next year, Pres. Ada L. Comstock said today. The fellowship will honor the 300th anniversary of the founding of the University of Helsinki.

Man Slays Wife, Two Children

WEED, CAL., June 15 (AP)—Three persons, two of them young children, were shot to death and a fourth was wounded critically in what Sheriff Ben Richardson said was a triple murder and an attempted suicide resulting from a family quarrel.

The wounded man was Edmund Connely, 38, former operator of a Weed hotel.

The dead:

Mrs. Geraldine Connely, 32, Connely's wife; Betty Lou Connely, 8, their daughter; Billie Connely, 6, their son.

The sheriff told this story of the tragedy:

Connely, who had been estranged from his wife, went to her room at the hotel last night and shot her to death with the children.

Connelly then attempted to commit suicide as sheriff's deputies halted him.

GOFKAUF OPENING—With throngs of customers attending, Gofkauf's Inc., opens a new super store at 333 Broadway, Chelsea. Mayor Edward Voke receives key for door from E. A. Brest (right), vice-president of Gofkauf's. Store features electrical refrigeration and washing machine departments, plus automotive, electrical, sporting goods and hardware supplies.

International News Service Photo

Litigation involving the will of her mother had been settled today by testimony of Ann Corio, burlesque performer, in Hartford, Ct., court. A brother and sister of the dancer, who were bequeathed only $1, appealed from the probate of the will claiming Miss Corio had exerted undue influence. After Miss Corio testified, jury was instructed to return verdict upholding the will.

HUB PONDERS WILLKIE ATTACK ON NEW DEAL

Wendell Willkie, one of the most forceful of the administration's critics, departed for Cannecticut today after a Boston visit in which he urged America to toss the New Deal out in the next election. He speaks at Providence, R. I., tonight.

Speaking to 10,000 persons in Mechanics Building, Willkie sought support in his quest for the Republican presidential nomination by decrying American unpreparedness. He doubted that this nation could meet the threat of totalitarian countries under our present leadership.

Willkie likened the New Deal leadership to that of the Blum and Chamberlain leaderships in France and England. He called all three candystick governments, grown soft and unable to stand up like men.

SAME PHILOSOPHY

"The governments for the past eight years have been what I call candystick governments," he charged. "If anyone cried they gave them a stick of candy.

"And here in the United States we have that same philosophy. It is now a question whether France and England can pull themselves together in time to save themselves."

He maintained that the New Deal was an outmoded form of government and, while urging the people to support the President unfailingly in the defense program, told them that they must elect a new leadership in the fall which is capable of getting things done.

SET REFORM AHEAD

"The New Deal," declared Willkie, "has consistently set reform ahead of recovery. It has tried out a lot of economic experiments which have not worked. To preserve newly won powers, the New Deal has encouraged dissension and strife. It has handled its military expenditures as incompetently as it has handled those for civil purposes.

"We are relatively less prepared for military defense today than we were in 1916. The government cannot conceal this condition by talking of military equipment on order. A statement that lumps together supplies on hand and supplies on order may have a prettier sound than blunt figures, but we shall not defend ourselves against attack by firing paper guns or flying paper airplanes.

'FREE ENTERPRIZE'

"In the next few months, the American people will want to cooperate to the full with the present Administration. Let us, each one of us, give every possible support to the defense program.

"But at the end of the year we must put into office the kind of government in which we have confidence and which, in turn, has confidence in us—a government which believes in free enterprise, in the immense productive capacity of American industry, in the infinite resourcefulness of the American people—a government that will waken and liberate the chained and sleeping giant of America."

Senate Pushes Two Big Bills

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The Senate arranged to act quickly today on two major bills — the $1,224,791,357 relief measure and legislation to grant the Reconstruction Finance Corporation new powers to help finance defense.

Democratic Leader Barkley called his colleagues to an unusual Saturday session, to clear the way for prompt action next week on the $1,004,000,000 emergency defense revenue bill.

TALK OF RECESS

Barkley and Chairman Harrison (D.) of Mississippi of the Senate finance committee reiterated their belief that Congress would adjourn a week from today, although House leaders virtually have abandoned hope that the session would end then. There was some talk of a recess until Aug. 1.

The relief bill carried an additional $100,000,000 inserted by the Senate yesterday for the disposal of farm surplus. The fund was added, 58 to 16, despite economy pleas of Senator Adams (D.) of Colorado, floor manager for the relief measure.

SURPLUS PRODUCTS

The RFC measure, approved yesterday by the House, would permit the big federal lending corporation to make advance payments for strategic and critical defense materials in deals with other nations. Whenever possible, payments would be made with surplus farm products, in exchange for rubber, tin and other necessities.

The corporation also would be authorized to advance funds for the construction and expansion of plants manufacturing defense equipment.

The Senate finance committee (meeting at 10 a. m., E. S. T.) hoped to finish consideration of the House defense tax measure, which would reduce existing income tax exemptions, raise corporation taxes and impose a 10 per cent super-tax on income taxpayers.

Huge Blaze Rages In British Factory

COVENTRY, Eng., June 15 (AP)—A fierce fire raged today in a non-military factory at Stoney Stanton, Hinckley, Leicestershire.

Flames were visible 50 miles away. No estimate was available of the heavy damage.

BUNKER HILL RITES TOMORROW

The traditional celebration of Bunker Hill Day, scheduled to be one of its most solemn observances in America's long history, will begin tomorrow with a memorial mass in St. Francis De Sales Church.

Every veteran organization in Charlestown will join in the memorial, sponsored by the Charlestown Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The veterans will gather at Monument sq., on the spot where heroes died for liberty in the Revolution, and march to the church on Bunker Hill st.

Following the services, the groups were scheduled to parade to the Mead st. park, which is to be dedicated in honor of Corp. Leo McCarthy, Charlestown World War veteran, who died in 1926.

BANQUET IN K. C. HALL

Although the big event of the three-day celebration will be the annual parade on Monday, another observance will be the 48th annual banquet of Bunker Hill Council, K. of C., to be held tomorrow night in K. of C. hall.

The speakers and their subjects will be as follows: Gov. Saltonstall, "To the Commonwealth"; Mayor Tobin, "To the City"; the Rev. Mark Driscoll, "To the Church." Other invited guests include Cong. Thomas F. Flaherty, U. S. Sens. David I. Walsh and Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., Postmaster Peter F. Tague and Sheriff Frederick R. Sullivan.

READY FOR PARADE

The committee in charge includes, William A. Magner, S. B. Colbert, Thomas Shannon, Patrick J. Doherty, John R. H. Finn, Jeremiah Linehan, William T. Ford, J. J. Finn, Gerard Mulrenan, Henry Walsh, William J. Monahan and John J. Buckley.

Mayor Tobin announced that Frank L. Sharpe of Russell st., Charlestown, has been appointed chief marshal.

Judge Walsh's Son Made Ensign

Graduated from Harvard only a year ago this month, James G. Walsh, second son of Judge Richard M. Walsh, presiding justice of Dorchester district court, is already a naval ensign.

Ensign Walsh

Ensign Walsh, who rowed for Harvard, thus following in the athletic footsteps of his father, a famous miler for the Crimson a few decades back, was graduated from the Naval Finance and Supply School at Philadelphia last May 24.

Commissioned an ensign, he has been assigned to the destroyer Swanzey, on neutrality patrol out of Galveston, Texas.

Before reporting to his vessel, the new officer is now on leave and is visiting the home of his parents in Ocean st., Dorchester Center, until the latter part of the month.

Silence Is Golden But Not in This Case!

Five members of the Boston Silent Club became noisy today when they found themselves locked in their clubrooms in the second floor of a Cambridge st., West End, building.

The men, all mutes, rapped on windows, rattled furniture and clapped their hands to attract the attention of passersby. Soon Patrolman William Dwyer of the Joy st. station appeared with a ladder and liberated the men.

Man Dies, 9 Hurt in Crashes

Early morning auto accidents brought death to a North Shore youth and injuries to three girls and six men today.

Richard B. Davis, 24, of Manchester, died in Addison Gilbert Hospital shortly after his automobile crashed into a parked car on Western ave., Gloucester. His companion, Katherine Dumas, 24, of Magnolia, escaped with abrasions.

John Guilfoyle, 30 of the destroyer Gleaves, suffered a broken leg and internal injuries. Edwin K. Harding, 29, also of the Gleaves, and Charles R. Jewett, a Charlestown Navy Yard marine, received minor injuries when their car struck a pole in Broadway, Somerville.

In a crash on Middlesex Fellsway near Myrtle st., Medford, Rosline Bloom, 20, of Walcott rd., Revere, suffered fractures of the left ankle and right elbow, and Mollie Golden, 22, of Cottage st., Chelsea, a broken left leg and cuts. Two men in the car received minor injuries when the car struck a trolley pole.

Seriously injured, when struck by an auto near Codman sq., Dorchester, Austin O'Malley, 43, of Marks rd., Dorchester, suffered a crushed chest and internal injuries.

Stocks Higher But Erratic

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—Steels led the stock market on a further advance today as domestic business developments took the edge off depressing war dispatches.

Gains ranged from fractions to more than $3 a share after a slow opening. The pace quickened for a while on the forward push, then slowed. At the beginning of the final hour top marks were reduced in most cases.

Prices were erratic throughout, jumping backward and forward as much as $1 a share on single sales.

Profit-taking was attributed to the desire of many traders to lighten commitments in preparation for foreign events over the week-end which might drastically switch the trend. The plight of France aroused fresh fears in Wall Street that an enforced peace might be in the offing.

Upward share movers included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, Dow Chemical, Westinghouse, Eastman Kodak, American Smelting, American Telephone Loft, Sears Roebuck, Great Northern and American Car and Foundry.

Bonds improved and commodities were mixed. "Free" sterling slipped in terms of the dollar.

F. D. Speeds Up Power Output

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—President Roosevelt today instructed the Federal Power Commission to "keep check on the adequacy" of the electric power supply to meet national defense needs.

He asked the FPC also to confer with utilities regarding needed interconnections between private industrial generating plants and the utility systems, and to work out plans to protect the power supply against hostile acts.

In a letter to Leland Olds, commission chairman, the President requested the commission to plan, in co-operating with the utility industry, for the "most economical use" of existing steam and hydro capacity, and for expansion of distribution systems. Where systems are unable or unwilling to undertake necessary construction, Mr. Roosevelt asked for a report on "the need of special arrangements to finance or otherwise further such construction."

ENVOY GOES HOME

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—The Italian ambassador to Great Britain, Guiseppe Bastianini, and his family were among 700 Italians with diplomatic passes who embarked on a British liner at Glasgow.

British Major Tells Of Terrific Battle

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WITH THE BRITISH EXPEDITIONARY FORCE ON THE WESTERN FRONT, June 15—This is the saga of a gallant little band of Englishmen who for a month fought without rest and many times without food, always against odds that stagger the imagination.

But they have come through the ordeal with the conviction that if only they had enough tanks and planes and proper artillery they could stop the German legions.

It is a thumbnail sketch of what has been going on all over Belgium and northern France since the fatal break through Sedan. It is the story of German technique that is without a parallel in history.

BOMBERS, THEN TANKS

I tell it in the words of a major now commanding a British armored brigade since his colonel had three fingers ripped off by a German tommy gun in a pitched battle near Abbeville. Here is his story:

"When the Germans attacked us they sent over waves of low-flying armored bombers which bombed and machine-gunned the defending ground positions with devastating effect.

"Then came a line of light reconnaissance tanks, spitting machine gun and light cannon fire.

"Then came heavy tanks, great 80-ton rectangular-shaped monsters, carrying four-inch cannon and nests of machine guns. We call them 'snarling' because of the noise they make and their frightening appearance.

"Two or three hundred yards behind those monstrous tanks came infantry armed with tommy guns and motor-drawn mortars of a new type, brought up on tractor vehicles.

PLANES ALWAYS BLASTING

"All the time planes were spraying the infantry with machine-gun fire and bombing it incessantly.

"The planes keep the heads of the infantry down and before they can recover from this devastation the tanks are upon them. Then comes the heavy mortar fire, followed by quickly advancing infantry.

"Against this combination of attack in open country there can be only one defense. We must have tanks comparable in size and numbers, heavy concentrations and heavy calibre artillery and enough planes to gain and keep air superiority."

The officer showed me a tommy gun he had captured from a German infantry officer when his brigade surrounded the Germans in a wheat field and rode them down.

It was a sawed-off affair, with an air-cooled jacket and firing clips of steel-jacketed pistol bullets. I saw the same type of weapon made by the Germans in 1933, when I was covering the Cuban revolution.

Apparently that early the Germans were trying out their weapons for the warfare which has burst upon the world several years later.

1768 Refugees Sail for U. S.; 4000 Wait

GALWAY, Ireland, June 15 (AP)—With the U. S. liner Washington already on her way to New York with 1768 American refugees on board it was understood here today that the Manhattan will arrive in Europe within the next 12 days to take home 4000 Americans who fled from Paris.

The Manhattan is in New York.

The Washington sailed for New York this morning.

A thick, pea-soup fog hung over this port as the vessel—last American ship assigned to the rescue of stranded United States citizens—raised her anchors at 4:44 a. m. (10:44 p. m. Friday E. S. T.) and pointed her bow toward the stormy sea.

ROUND UP MILK

Most of those aboard the liner were women and children, many of the latter under 10 years of age. Old salts who saw the ship sail said they never before had seen so many children aboard one vessel.

To meet the unusual situation, United States Lines officials loaded into the Washington's refrigerators 1500 gallons of milk, hurriedly obtained from all parts of Ireland.

The Washington arrived here Wednesday after stops at Bordeaux, France, and Lisbon, Portugal, where she picked up several hundred American refugees.

CREW OF 572

About 500 passengers boarded the ship here yesterday afternoon and approximately 200 last night. Among those aboard was Alexander Vincent Dye, commercial attache of the American embassy in London, who is retiring.

The ship carried a crew of 572.

Italians Battle Off French Ships

Continued From Page 2

Italian East Africa, while other Italian bombers successfully assaulted the military works of Malta, British Mediterranean base.

The command also said an enemy submarine was sunk by Italian seaplanes.

The Stefani account said the French naval group turned and steamed out to sea when coast batteries opened fire in support of the torpedo boat.

DESTROYER STRUCK

The news agency said the torpedo boat, described as the 17-year-old Calatafimi, 967 tons, attacked four French destroyers of the Tartu type, which were followed by five cruisers.

When the destroyers, creeping toward the Genoa coast in the drizzly semi-darkness, opened fire on the Calatafimi, the latter returned the fire and launched two torpedoes at a distance of a mile and three-quarters.

The agency story said one salvo struck a destroyer, which was seen to be covered with smoke. The remainder of the enemy ships then fled under the fire of the coast batteries.

The torpedoed ship sank, it was reported. Stefani described it as a 2441-ton vessel with a crew of 10 officers and 210 men.

The high command's report of the naval action said the Calatafimi attacked with torpedoes two big destroyers, "one of which sank."

The high command also said several civilians were killed and wounded when localities on the Ligurian Riviera (the Genoa sector) were attacked by fire from enemy ships.

Finland Pays on U. S. War Debt

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Finland laid her annual war debt payment on the line at the Treasury today, keeping her record of remittances unbroken despite action by Congress yesterday to relieve her of the obligation for a 10-year period.

Hjalmar J. Porcope, minister of the small nation which lost heavily in resources during its war with Russia, handed a check for the $159,398 installment to Herbert E. Gaston, assistant treasury secretary.

Procope called attention to the swift action by both House and Senate in approving a resolution which would permit Finland to postpone the payment. He noted with "deep gratitude," he said, "the new sign of friendship and understanding for my country.

"However, as things stand at present and under existing conditions," he added, "I have to [illegible] you this check."

CROSSING OURCQ RIVER—Part of the mechanized force that swept down on Paris from the northeast is this German tank, crossing the Ourcq river with a lone Nazi soldier aboard. In many places along this river, Germans used tanks to form the piers of bridges to permit passage of troops.

International News Service Photo

FRENCH CABINET MEETS; ALLIES STILL RETREATING

Continued From Page 2

28-year-old men for military service.

Germans said final victory is near. They envisioned Hitler in a triumphant entry into Paris next Friday, 21st anniversary of the day German representatives agreed reluctantly to accept the treaty of Versailles. Germany signed the treaty formally a week later, on June 28.

Nazis Claim Verdun Capture

BERLIN, June 15 (AP)—Capture of Verdun—where the French in the World War shouted "They shall not pass!"—and a breaking of the Maginot Line on a "broad front" south of Saarbrucken were announced this evening by the German high command.

Despite the loss of thousands of men, the Germans never captured Verdun in the World War.

The announcement said both the town of Verdun and the famed fortress had fallen.

Verdun lies about 135 miles east of Paris and about 25 miles south of Montmedy, northern anchor of the Maginot line, which already has fallen to the German blitzkrieg.

FORTS CAPTURED

Fort Vaux was stormed and Fort Marre captured in the drive on Verdun, the high command said in its special communique.

This represented a tremendous rear attack or a flank-turning movement against the powerful line of steel and concrete fortifications upon which the French had counted vainly in their "defensive war."

The attack south of Saarbrucken represented a frontal assault near the middle of the German-French land frontier.

"After a heavy fighting our troops have broken through the Maginot line on a broad front south of Saarbrucken," said the communique.

The high command outlined the drive against Verdun in these words:

"After breaking through the line of forts on both sides of the Meuse, the city and citadel of Verdun, heavily fought for in the World War, was taken by us."

WHEN VERDUN HELD

The first World War assault on Verdun came on February 21, 1916. With the Kaiser looking on with field glasses from a protected position, the Germans attempted to storm the ring of fortresses, redoubts, earthworks and barbed wire entanglements which made up the immense fortification.

The battle for Verdun continued, with a fe wminor cessations—and long after the Kaiser had returned to Berlin—until October, 1916, when the Germans were forced to withdraw by pressure of the battle of the Somme. In all this time, with a death toll that mounted to 300,000, the Kaiser's troops were able only to hold the outer works of Fort Douaumont, one of the strink og French strongholds around Verdun.—Editor's Note.

In Paris Nazi flags flew over the palace of Versailles and German boots echoed in the streets.

The high command's communique indicated the French were falling back at many points and referred to them already as "the defeated enemy."

Behind the unceasing German pressure was the double aim, apparently, of repeating the tactics of enveloping groups of Allied forces and of preventing them from digging in on a strong line south of Paris.

Capture of 200,000 Allied prisoners and seizure of inestimable quantities of war material in the last 10 days were reported by the high command.

Nazi sources, declaring that what remains of France's armies is on the verge of collapse, said the French hastily were attempting to patch up new divisions from the remnants of those pushed back and defeated.

Crews of technical experts are en route to Paris to take over whatever establishments may be important for the German war effort, informed sources said.

GERMAN COMMUNIQUE

The text of the communique follows:

"The pursuit between the lower Seine and the Meuse everywhere is in full force. Dissolution of the defeated French armies is progressing. At several points the enemy troops and units have surrendered without fighting.

"During the first days, the enemy hastily put up new divisions from remainders of defeated divisions and reserves.

"Since June 5 over 200,000 prisoners have been counted. The amount of material cannot yet be estimated.

"Paris was occupied yesterday without fighting and was passed through. The Reich's war flag is waving over the palace of Versailles when in 1871 the Germany destiny was established and in 1919 German shame was sealed.

"South of the Argonne Forest the enemy was thrown southeastward and forced off the line of retreat.

BREAK INTO LINE

"Flying units of all kinds on June 14, in a monster attack on the Saar front, raided the Maginot line. Fortification works, bunkers, artillery and infantry positions, as well as columns, were bombed by all calibres the entire day.

"At the same time troops of the army, supported by strong artillery, broke into the fortified battlefield of the Maginot Line and wrested numerous defense positions from the enemy. A strong bunker group at Saarn-Alben w: taken.

"In the region of Verdun, Metz and Belfort, an effective air attack was directed against troop concentrations and movements, rail lines and roads. Numerous trains were destroyed and many rail lines interrupted. In other parts of France also good attack results were obtained by our fighting units against airports, important rail lines and retreating columns.

BOMBING GERMANY

"During the course of the night of June 14-15 the opponent undertook the usual flights in west and southwestern Germany, thereby again dropping bombs aimlessly without hitting military targets.

"The opponent's total air losses yesterday were 43 planes, of which 13 were shot down in air fights, nine by anti-aircraft fire and the rest destroyed on the ground. Five of our own planes are missing.

"The following distinguished themselves: Group Capt.-Col. Balthasar, who up till now shot down 20 enemy planes in air fights, destroyed 11 others on the ground; Lieut. Weber, of a sharpshooters regiment, by a dare-devil, personal last minute effort cutting five fuses on an important bridge, thus having the crossing fall into our hands undamaged."

French Report Violent Fighting

BORDEAUX, France, June 15 (AP)—The French high command today issued this communique, its first from this coastal city:

"In Normandy fighting continues in the region west of Louviers and Evreux.

"In the Paris region our armies have completed in greatest order the movement ordered by the high command.

"In Champagne the enemy has again accentuated his pressure in the direction of Troyes and St. Dizier. Violent fighting is taking place.

"In Lorraine and in Alsace violent bombardments on the front and on our lines of communications."

A helpful banking connection
PILGRIM TRUST COMPANY
31 MILK STREET, BOSTON
Member Federal Reserve System
Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Flag Day Launches New Trend in Songs

COLOR GUARD

FD Power to Take Auto Plants Urged

Old Glory ushered in a new song trend in Greater Boston today.

On the lips of many Bostonians were heard the old patriotic favorites, "America," "Stars and Stripes Forever," "God Bless America," etc.

It was the melody lingering on after record-breaking Flag Day ceremonies, during which a peace-minded army of patriotic Americans marched, spoke, listened, applauded while Old Glory took the bows.

Scene of a gigantic tribute to the American flag was Parkman Bandstand on the Common where speaker after speaker lauded highly the liberty and freedom for which it stands, and at the same time urged immediate and adequate defense against attacks within and without the nation's borders.

JOINT SPONSORS

Sponsored jointly by the Boston Record-American-Sunday Advertiser and radio stations WEZ-WBZA of the National Broadcasting Co., which broadcast the program nationally, the affair attracted one of the largest such crowds in history.

Thunderous ovations greeted the remarks of Lieut. Gov. Daniel Cahill, of Judge Leo P. Doherty, of Wilfrid Jacobs, state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, of Mayor Maurice Tobin, and of U. S. Atty. Edmund J. Brandon, orator of the day, who declared:

"Our flag flies as a symbol of the principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity, which are the hope of mankind today."

MAYOR SPEAKS

Later on the Common citizens again rallied around the flag at the city of Boston's patriotic demonstration of Americanism, which marked the 163d anniversary of the adoption of Old Glory as America's symbol of liberty.

Mayor Tobin, as principal speaker, declared that "a guarantee that Old Glory will continue to wave requires an expenditure of a quarter of what was spent to fight the World War.

"Such an appropriation," he said, "would give to America a powerful Atlantic and Pacific fleet, tanks, trucks and guns more powerful than that of a combination of all other nations —an aviation fleet with more planes than are owned by all powers beyond the United States."

This demonstration, held on the Common parade grounds, followed a parade of military, naval and marine detachments, civic veteran and fraternal organizations from Copley sq.

"KIN TO OURS"

Meanwhile, Gov. Saltonstall was principal speaker at the Boston Lodge of Elks' observance at their Huntington ave., home. The governor said:

"Today from America we are watching the ramparts of Europe, praying that by the dawn's early light we shall see the flags that are kin to ours wave over the lands of the free and the homes of the brave."

AT FLAG DAY FETE—Observing the 163rd anniversary of Flag Day, thousands gather at Boston Common for patriotic exercises . . . and here, see color guard of U. S. Marines parading along Mall to Parkman Bandstand. Thousands of American flags were displayed in the ceremonies.

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—Congress was asked today to empower President Roosevelt to turn the nation's entire automotive industry into a gigantic aircraft factory at once to produce 50,000 warplanes for the hard-pressed Allies.

The resolution, drafted by Senator Pepper (D.) of Florida, drew fire, however, even before its formal introduction, particularly from Senator Holt (D.) of West Virginia, who scored it as "dictatorial."

Pepper's proposal reflected the grave concern manifest in many congressional quarters over the desperate plight of the Allies. Talk turned to the fate of the French fleet in the event France was forced to capitulate.

Senator Norris (Ind.) of Nebraska, said he believed Germany might demand the French fleet as one of the terms of surrender. Navy experts, weighing the same possibility, said this would give the Rome-Berlin axis a combined fleet superior in several categories both to that of Great Britain and that of the United States.

SEA POWER STUDIED

Another potential aspect of the war's effect on sea power was reported to have been examined at a closed session of the Senate Naval committee yesterday.

It was said that Major George Fielding Eliot, a military writer, told the committee that this country may have to decide whether to open its naval bases to the British fleet, if bases abroad become untenable.

With the course of the European conflict figuring so importantly in calculations, multiple efforts continued toward the double goal of national preparedness and assistance for the Allies.

From the War Department came an announcement that the Citizens' Military Training camps would offer special training this summer to 3000 business and professional men.

STAFF INCREASED

The department also disclosed that it was reinforcing its staff of military observers in South America, and made known a program for training 16,0000 airmen annually.

A new destroyer unit was created in the navy's Atlantic squadron, with Rear Admiral F. K. Reichmuth in command of some 100 ships of both new and World War construction.

Preparations also were underway for returning 71 decommissioned destroyers and submarines to active service.

In the field of help for the Allies, President Roosevelt reiterated at his press conference that the United States was doing everything it possibly could. War Department officials backed up this statement, but emphasized "we are not de-arming the army."

British Reply Rips Hitler's Interview

LONDON, June 15 (INS)—The Ministry of Information today issued for publication in Britain a summary of the interview with Hitler obtained by Karl von Wiegand and published by Hearst newspapers in the United States.

In the interview, published in the Boston American yesterday, Hitler denied any German intention of attacking the United States or any part of the Western Hemisphere. President Roosevelt, commenting upon Hitler's remarks, said they brought up recollections and that he could name countries invaded by Germany—Editor's note.

WOULD RULE BRITAIN

The ministry of information simultaneously issued this comment:

"Chancellor Hitler's allegation that he intends to destroy those who are destroying the British Empire means nothing else than that he wishes to eliminate existing parties of the state, all of which are united in their determination to prosecute the war, and to replace them with a puppet Nazi-Fascist government of his own choosing.

"Determination of so-called British hegemony at sea means that he wishes Great Britain to be dependent upon his good pleasure for maintenance of her vital sea communications. It means Britain is to be reduced to the condition of a vassal state, liable to be strangled at any moment if Hitler so wishes.

AIM TO DOMINATE WORLD

"Hitler's cautiousness regarding peace aims is characteristic as he has never been ready to put his card, on the table and define German aspirations.

"The vital requirements of Germany cannot even now be safely defined, because Hitler will never be satisfied until he has achieved not only domination of Europe but of the world.

"Hitler said talk of a Fifth Column is stupid and fantastic. This bland disclaimer is likely to be received with derision in countries which witnessed or suffered from the activities of his Fifth Column . . .

"Nazi agents for years have been busily fomenting trouble throughout the globe and the leniency with which they and Nazi sympathizers have been treated is responsible for the very real danger presented by a Fifth Column in every country in the world.

"Those acquainted with Hitler's past history and technique will perceive only too clearly the threat to the liberty of the world implied in his remarks, 'America for Americans, Europe for Europeans.'

"It means Europe under a German hegemony which will pursue an economic policy which must be disastrous to the nations of the American continent. . . .

"In the light of his assurances to other over-run nations, his statement that he never dreamed of interfering with the Western Hemisphere is more than ominous . . .

"The 'dawning of reason with nations' to which Hitler refers means ready acceptance of Nazi philosophy and complete subservience to the German rule of force for which it stands."

Nazis Spokesman Scoffs at Peace Talk

BERLIN, June 15 (INS)—Nazi Germany has no need nor desire to seek peace at present, official German sources declared today in reply to rumors of a "peace offensive."

"With gigantic military triumphs already received,' an officials spokesman said, "Germany has no reason whatever to cease the war, especially since the Allies declared war on Germany."

Questioned as to whether the United States might send men as well as material to the Allies, the spokesman said:

"Both President and Mrs. Roosevelt have denied this, which should be the most competent answer imaginable."

On the subject of material support from the United States to the Allies, the spokesman said:

"Herr Hitler answered this question himself in his interview with Mr. Von Wiegand."

Selassie Appoints Ethiopian War Chief

JERUSALEM, June 15 (INS)—General Ras Biddu, 50-year-old former war minister of Ethiopia, was appointed commander-in-chief of Ethiopian forces by Haile Selassie today.

He immediately flew to the Sudan to organize Ethiopian forces against the Italians.

Four Million French Flee Nazi Wrath

LONDON, June 15 (INS)—Four million refugees — one of the greatest civilian migrations in all history — are heading south through the French countryside under a torrential downpour of rain, the London Evening Standard reported today from Tours.

The paper said the refugees are travelling on foot, on bicycles and other conveyances and that many are trudging along wheeling perambulators loaded with their personal possessions.

Cars bearing canaries, cats, dogs and other pets have been turned away from Tours because of lack of food and accommodations.

The Standard said great crowds of women and children are being fed at mobile canteens.

The rain added to the distress of the refugees, soaking mattresses tied to the tops of old carts, leaving knapsacks sodden and reducing to drenched rags the clothes worn by the travellers.

Whole groups of the refugees, the paper said, slept during the night on the drenched ground, too tired and weak to proceed further.

Canada Pledges Paris North American Aid

OTTAWA, June 15 (INS)—North American aid to France "in the great cause for which she fights" was seen today by Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King in a message to Premier Reynaud, which said:

"I have read your appeal to the United States. You may be sure the peoples of North America see with clear eyes the realistic needs of the hour. It is my faith that all of the material and economic strength of this continent will be marshaled without any delay to help the French republic in the great cause for which she fights."

Midnight Deadline For U. S. Income Tax

The second installment on your Federal income tax is due and payable today.

Because Saturday is a half-holiday, the office of the collector at the Federal building will close at 1 p. m. Payment by mail, however, will be accepted if the letter is postmarked not later than midnight.

SPECIAL
EVENING ROUND TRIP
AFTER 6 P.M. 40c AFTER 6 P.M.
FROM ROWES WHARF to PEMBERTON AND NANTASKET
IN EITHER DIRECTION
Except Sundays, Holiday Eves. and Holidays
Good Only on Date Purchased
Phone HUB. 1000

BOSTON AMERICAN

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Boston, Mass., under the Act of March 3, 1879, also at the Postoffice Department, Canada

Published daily except Sundays and holidays, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass., by the NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY. Telephone Liberty 4000

Subscriptions by mail postpaid, one month, 50c; three months, $1.50; six months, $3.00; one year, $6.00. Boston Postal District, 75c month. Domestic rates include postage in the United States, Porto Rico, Philippines, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, Canal Zone, Canada. Mail subscriptions payable strictly in advance Rates to foreign countries $2.00 per month.

The Boston Evening American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements, nor will repeat that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertiser will please notify the management immediately of any error which may occur.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for reproduction of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper, and also the local news published therein. All rights of reproduction of special dispatches herein are reserved by the Boston Evening American.

Midnight Deadline For Family Contest

Down the home stretch the contest to choose the Typical American Family in Massachusetts is headed today—with the deadline for entries set at midnight tonight.

At that time all contestants must have their bids in for consideration by the judges, who will start Monday on the huge task of deciding which is the winning family to spend an entire week at the New York World's Fair of 1940, with all expenses paid.

Thus, only a few hours, remember to get your entry in.

Every cent of cost for this wonderful week at the Fair, the week of July 22, will be paid for the winning family, even the cost of transportation from Boston to New York and return, housing at the Fair, meals, admission and all entertainment.

WEEK OF A LIFETIME

It will be the week of a lifetime for the fortunate family selected.

While at the Fair, this family will live in one of the two new FHA model houses on the grounds, both of which have been completely furnished by Sears, Roebuck & Co.

This same concern will also completely outfit the family for the trip before it is begun.

FOUR OTHER PRIZES

In addition to the first award to the winning family, there are also four other World's Fair prizes, these to go to the next four families picked as runners-up.

Second prize: Free transportation, round trip, between Boston and New York via New Haven R. R.; free admission to the Fair for three days; free entertainment and guides—plus $40.

Third prize: Free transportation via American Airlines; free admission for three days; free entertainment and guides—plus $30.

Fourth prize: Free transportation, via Eastern Steamship Lines, cabin and meals free; free admission to the Fair for three days, free entertainment and guides—plus $20.

Fifth prize: Free transportation, via New Haven R. R., between Boston and Providence, and Colonial Steamship Lines between Providence and New York; free cabin and meals; plus free admission for three days, free entertainment, free guides and $20 cash.

Contest Rules

1—The Typical American Family Competition, conducted by the Boston Sunday Advertiser and Boston Evening American, in co-operation with the New York World's Fair of 1940, is open only to citizens of the United States residing in Massachusetts.

2—The name and address of each family, with the number of children, boys and girls, must be submitted on the official entry form, together with a letter of not more than 300 words describing the family and explaining why it should be selected as the Typical American Family in Massachusetts. No photographs will be returned.

3—Entries will NOT be judged by the literary style or excellence of the letters submitted, but strictly on the qualifications and characteristics of the family.

4—A recent photograph or clear snapshot of the family must accompany the entry.

5—The entry of a candidate family may be submitted by a relative or friend, or by a member of the family.

6—Entries close on Saturday, June 15, at midnight. The completed form must be mailed or delivered to the Advertiser-American Typical American Family Editor, 5 Winthrop sq., Boston, Mass., before that time.

7—The selection of the Typical Family will be made by a committee of distinguished Massachusetts men and women will qualified to establish the requirements of a Typical American Family, and the committee's decision will be final.

8—The parents and two children of the Typical Family selected, the eldest child to be not over 18, will be transported from Boston to the New York World's Fair and back by automobile, with all meals and hotel expenses paid. They will be entertained at the Fair for one week, beginning July 22, without any cost whatever to themselves. The Family, while at the Fair, will live for one week in a completely furnished house built inside the Fair Grounds in accordance with the standards set up for home construction by the Federal Housing Administration. The house accommodates four persons, and for this reason only four members of the Family selected may go to the Fair. The Family will have complete freedom of action as to what they want to do and see. They will, in fact, live each day as they would during any normal holiday period.

9—It is understood that entrants give permission to publish photographs and stories of their Family.

10—This competition is not open to employes of the Boston Sunday Advertiser-Boston Evening American, nor of other publications or advertising media.

Wm. H. O'Brien
3 Private Lessons $1
10 Lessons $5
Newest Dances
9 A.M. to 12 P.M.
240 Mont. Ave. Cor. Mass. Tel. Chi. 6526
One Class Night 75c
12 Nights $5
Tues. Wed., Thurs. Fri. 8 to 11:30
With Orch.

TYPICAL DAUGHTER

Adorned in Indian garb, pretty Marjorie Williams, 17, Oklahoma's typical American daughter is greeted by George Spaulding, who wears George Washington costume, at the New York World's Fair. Marjorie and her family are living in one of the two FHA homes on the fair grounds, having been selected as Oklahoma's typical American family.

OFFICIAL ENTRY FORM

The Boston Sunday Advertiser
— Boston Evening American

TYPICAL AMERICAN FAMILY IN MASSACHUSETTS CONTEST

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

CITY OR TOWN _____

NO. OF CHILDREN _____

BOYS _____ GIRLS _____

RECENT PHOTO OR SNAPSHOT OF ENTRANT ATTACHED HERE NOT NECESSARILY THIS SIZE

Milton Wins Honors In Red Cross Drive

The Milton chapter of the American Red Cross received a telegram of congratulation from Chairman Norman H. Davis today, for being the first chapter in the nation to triple its original relief fund quota.

Legion Girls In Tam Row

The 21st annual convention of the American Legion Auxiliary was scheduled to close with installation of officers today at the New Ocean House in Swampscott.

At final business sessions, more than 2000 members came out strongly in favor of an official uniform. It was voted to place a resolution for such a provision before the national convention to be held in Boston in September.

Most of the dissention centered over the tam or beret-like hats which now are worn with a military cape. Massachusetts members favor the more becoming overseas cap worn by legionaires and which now is banned by the national organization.

United Shoe Machinery Corporation

The Directors of this Corporation have declared a dividend of $1¼ per share on the Preferred capital stock. They have also declared a dividend of $2½ per share on the Common capital stock. The dividends on both Preferred and Common stock are payable July 8, 1940, to stockholders of record at the close of business June 15, 1940.

CHARLES G. BANCROFT, Treasurer.

Hub Offers to Take War Orphans Mount

As congressmen and Washington officials begin action to bring endangered little boys and girls from Europe to the safety and security of American homes, New England men and women apply in increasingly large numbers for the children.

Every letter addressed to the Editor of the American receives immediate consideration.

Each is rushed to the Special War Orphans' Bureau opened in Washington by the American in cooperation with the Daily Record and Sunday Advertiser.

It is hoped that these letters will prove to officials that there is a demand for the little ones in New England and that, as a result, permission for their prompt admittance to the United States will be granted as soon as possible.

Each letter will go to the proper authorities and every effort made to see that every person who has volunteered to take a child either for the duration of the war or for adoption receives one.

A few of the many letters received today read as follows.

LOWELL—"My heart goes out to the children of war-torn Europe. I have three sons of my own, and I would love to have a little girl to bring up as a daughter. Will you see that my name is added to the list of Massachusetts people who want babies?"

RUTLAND — "My plea is no different from those of other married women who long, hope and pray for babies. The ache in my heart is no greater than theirs.

"We have tried to adopt a little boy, but it has been all in vain. Surely there is some child in England, France or Belgium who could be happy with my husband and me.

"You may be sure that we will love him always as our very own."

WOLLASTON — "My husband and I want to add our names to the list of persons volunteering to take war orphans.

"We have been married 12 years and have no children. We are financially able to take care of a child and could give one loving care, a good home and all the things that make a youngster happy.

"We would prefer a baby boy of about six months. The nationality does not matter.

"If a baby will not be available, we shall take a child under six years of age. We would like to have the child get accustomed to our ways and language before entering school.

"We have always wanted a son and would like very much to have him go to college and then to medical school."

SPRINGFIELD—"I am a spinster. Though I am still in my early forties I don't think I shall ever marry. However, I dearly love children and would be the happiest woman in the world if I could take a little orphaned French or English boy.

"He would have an excellent home, a good education and chance to become a worth while man.

"I am a Christian Scientist, so estant parentage. estant parentage.'"

HARTFORD, Ct.,—"We have three children, but we shall be very glad to care for three war orphans while the war lasts. We want to help the Allies. Taking the children seems a good and practical way.

"We would prefer children between the ages of six and 12; they would then be companions for our own daughters."

ROCKLAND—"I am the mother of three girls, aged ten, eight and two. I would be more than happy to take one of the little children you are trying to bring from the war zones of Europe.

"Naturally, with my family of girls a little girl would probably find herself more at home. But, if boys are more numerous, I shall gladly take a boy."

MELROSE—"It would afford me the greatest satisfaction to take two war orphans, a brother and sister. We have no children of our own, and very probably will never have any. We would adopt the little ones immediately, give them our name and all our love."

WHERE TO SAVE

SMALL ACCOUNTS ALWAYS WELCOME

A small amount added weekly from your pay envelope will make it grow.

INTEREST BEGINS ON DATES LISTED

Boston Five Cents Savings	June 18
East Boston Savings Bank	June 15
Eliot Savings Bank	June 15
Inst. for Savings in Roxbury	June 15
Wildey Savings Bank	June 15
Massachusetts Savings Bank	July 1
Boston Penny Savings Bank	July 10
Union Savings Bank	July 10

—SUBURBAN—

East Cambridge Savings Bank	June 15
Quincy Savings Bank	July 1
Brookline Savings Bank	July 10

—NATIONAL BANKS—

Deposits in national banks will draw interest from said dates.

First National Bank (all Branches)	July 5

—CO-OPERATIVE BANKS—

Merchants Co-op. Bk. New shares on sale

SALE

Reg. $35 to $75

SUITS $10

GABARDINES ($15 up)

TOPCOATS & TUXEDOS

Including New Imported HOUSE OF LORD LONDON HARRIS TWEEDS

Foreclosed from our Finance Dept. 350-400 Bigh Grade BRAND NEW Garments. Made to sell for $30 to $75. For Non-Payment. Must be sold regardless of Cost (UNDER THE LAW OF MASS.)

THE ONLY SALE OF ITS KIND. SAVE AT LEAST ½

CASH or CREDIT
Small Payments at No Extra Charge

GREAT NORTHERN DULY BONDED FINANCE CO.
172 MERRIMAC ST., Cor. STANFORD ST.
2 Minutes from Bk. Station on Merrimac St.
Open Eves. Till 9 P. M.

Here Are The CORRECT ANSWERS TO PUZZLES Nos. 21-25 in the $15,000.00 DAILY RECORD BOSTON AMERICAN REBUS CONTEST

No. 21—PAST
No. 22—CORD
No. 23—AND
No. 24—HITCH
No. 25—RACK

Answers to more puzzles in the Rebus Contest will be published in MONDAY'S RECORD and AMERICAN

1500 1410 1D 1120 990 920 830 590

RADIO LOG

WMEX WAAB WNAC WCOP WBZ WORL WHDH WEEI

BEST BETS

7:30 P. M., WEEI—"Sky Blazers," Dramatic Aviation Half-Hour.
7:45 P. M., WMEX—Arentures of Jungle Jim.
8:00 P. M., WEEI—Gang Busters, Crime Drama Half-Hour.
9:00 P. M., WBZ—National Barn Dance, Variety Hour.

DANCE MUSIC

7:30 P. M., WNAC—Joe Reichman.
9:00 P. M., WEEI—Hit Parade Music.
10:00 P. M., WNAC—Bob Crosby.
11:30 P. M., WBZ—Sleepy Hall.
12:00 Mid., WNAC—Jimmy Dorsey.
12:05 A. M., WBZ—Jan Savitt.

*Indicates programs to be also heard by frequency modulation over Station WIXOJ at Paxton, Mass., operating on 43,000 kilocycles.

3:00 P. M.
WEEI—U. S. Marine Band
WBZ—Irving Miller Orchestra*
WMEX—Ranch Boys
WAAB—Baseball Game—Bees vs. Chicago
WHDH—News

3:15 P. M.
WBZ—Brazil Music
WMEX—Organ Music
WHDH—Don Humbert Music

3:30 P. M.
WEEI—American System
WBZ—Bob Strong Or.*
WHDH—Air Express
WMEX—Melody Mart
WCOP—Hits-Encores

3:45 P. M.
WEEI—Old Vienna
WCOP—Frolic Makers

4:00 P. M.
WEEI—Session
WBZ—Club Matinee*
WHDH—Rudy Bauer Orchestra
WMEX—Tea Time
WCOP—Frolic Makers

4:15 P. M.
WMEX—Consolairs
WHDH—Fishermen

4:30 P. M.
WEEI—Buffalo Show
WMEX—Melody Mirror
WNAC—Boy and Girl and Band
WIXOJ—Aqueduct Races
WHDH—Hayshakers
WCOP—Happy Jim

4:45 P. M.
WBZ—Belmont Races
WHDH—Modernistics
WCOP—Dancetime
WIXOJ—Joe Rines Or.

5:00 P. M.
WEEI—Van Alexander
WNAC—Tommy Dorsey Orchestra
WBZ—Gus Steck Or.
WMEX—Hollywood
WHDH—Hit Revue
WCOP—"Happy Jim"

5:15 P. M.
WEEI—Gasparres Or.
WAAB—Junior Club
WHDH—Song Shoppers
WCOP—Frolic Makers
WIXOJ—Jimmy Lunceford

5:30 P. M.
WEEI—Sports
WBZ—Ricardo Rhythm
WHDH—Serenaders
WMEX—Melody Mirror
WCOP—Rhythm Romance
WIXOJ—Delaware races

5:45 P. M.
WEEI—South American Way
WMEX—5-Star News
WHDH—Serenade
WAAB—Frank Ryan, Sports
WCOP—News
WORL—920 Club

6:00 P. M.
WEEI—News
WBZ—Weather, News
WNAC—News*
WMEX—Italian
WHDH—Weather
WAAB—Dinner Concert
WCOP—Interlude
WORL—920 Club

6:15 P. M.
WEEI—Bill Elliott
WBZ—Dinner Dance
WNAC—Sports*
WHDH—Frank Ward Orch.
WCOP—Scores

6:30 P. M.
WEEI—Jack Leonard
WBZ—Pentrew
WNAC—Rendezvous*
WAAB—News
WCOP—Frolic Makers
WORL—Twilight

6:45 P. M.
WEEI—World Today
WNAC—Scheme Drama
WAAB—Race Results*
WHDH—Sports
WORL—920 Club

7:00 P. M.
WEEI—People's Platform
WBZ—Israel Message
WNAC—Kindergarten
WAAB—"For Children"*
WCOP—"Happy Jim"
WHDH—Billy Kelly Or.
WMEX—Chamber Music

7:15 P. M.
WNAC—John B. Kennedy, War News
WHDH—Continentals
WMEX—5-Star News
WCOP—Horlick Show

7:30 P. M.
WEEI—"Sky Blazers"
WBZ—Eric Madriguer Orchestra*
WNAC—Joe Reichman Orchestra
WAAB—Dance Music
WMEX—Let Us Dance
WHDH—Chick Harris Orchestra
WCOP—Frolic Makers

7:45 P. M.
WNAC—"Confidentially"
WMEX—Jungle Jim
WHDH—Ben Pullo Or.
WCOP—Danny Coffey, Songs

8:00 P. M.
WEEI—"Gang Busters"
WBZ—Gene Krupa Orchestra*
WNAC—Dramatic WAAB—Wythe Williams, Talk*
WHDH—Rudy Bauer Orchestra
WMEX—Jamboree
WCOP—Eventide

8:15 P. M.
WHDH—Let's Dance
WAAB—Geo. Stearney Orchestra*

8:30 P. M.
WEEI—Wayne King
WBZ—Radio Guild Drama*
WNAC—National Ass'n of Manufacturers
WAAB—"Nobody's Children," Drama
WMEX—Red Cross
WIXOJ—Guy Lombardo*

9:00 P. M.
WEEI—Hit Parade
WBZ—Barn Dance
WNAC—Concert Music
WAAB—Gabriel Heatter, Talk*
WMEX—Classic Album
WHDH—Variations
WOXOJ—Stage Memories

9:30 P. M.
WNAC—Symphony
WAAB—Opera Series*
WHDH—News

9:45 P. M.
WEEI—Serenade
WHDH—Fishermen

10:00 P. M.
WBZ—European News
WNAC—Bob Crosby
WMEX—5-Star News
WHDH—Old-Time Hits

10:15 P. M.
WEEI—Public Affairs
WMEX—Dance Parade

10:30 P. M.
WEEI—War News
WNAC—Clyde Lucas Orchestra.*
WBZ—Vaughn Munroe
WAAB—Review of Republican Convention
WHDH—The Islanders
WMEX—Velvet Rythm

10:45 P. M.
WBZ—Night Melody
WMEX—Russ Brown
WEEI—O'Hearn Orch.

11:00 P. M.
WEEI—News
WBZ—News
WNAC—News*
WAAB—Barn Dance
WMEX—Sportoscope

11:15 P. M.
WEEI—Dance Time
WNAC—Weather?
WBZ—Dance Music
WMEX—Bertone Orch.

11:30 P. M.
WEEI—Midnight Swing
WBZ—Sleepy Hall Or.
WMEX—Sweet Music
WNAC—Ben Cutler Or.
WAAB—Larry Clinton*
WMEXDay's End

12 MIDNIGHT
WEEI—Jimmy Lunceford
WBZ—News
WNAC—War News
WAAB—News*

RADCLIFFE TO GIVE DEGREES WEDNESDAY

Some 500 alumnae returned to Radcliffe College today for the start of Commencement activities which will reach a climax Wednesday when 229 seniors receive degrees.

Among those returning for class reunions will be six of the seven living members of the class of 1890.

Principal scheduled event Sunday was the baccalaureate sermon by Dr. Rufus M. Jones, professor emeritus of Harvard College. It will be delivered in the First Church, Congregational, Cambridge, at 4:30 p. m.

At Harvard meanwhile, President James B. Conant annuonced he will initiate Commencement week with a baccalaureate sermon tomorrow at the Harvard Memorial Chapel.

Conant's address starts five days of activities, which include a Harvard-Yale baseball game Wednesday and the traditional parade of students on the same day. Commencement exercises will be held Thursday morning.

Bowdoin College held its 135th Commencement today at Brunswick, Me., distributing degrees to 119 seniors.

What America Needs for Defense!

What Every American Citizen Wants to Know Today!

The huge task of national defense is now in the hands of our leaders. The taxpayers will dig deep to pay the bill and want to know how the job will be done. Tomorrow, in the Green Magazine, military, naval and aviation experts give the first details of this defense plan.

IN TOMORROW'S SUNDAY ADVERTISER

The Epic March of the Mormons in 1847

The true story of the "Road to Zion" told for the first time by a 72-year-old pioneer whose mother walked all the way from Missouri to Utah. Three big pages in the American Weekly Magazine begin this dramatic tale of the Mormons and what befell them along their perilous trail.

A Divorce and a Vacation for $430

How our Virgin Islands offer something different to divorce seekers is revealed in the Green Magazine Sunday. A divorce can be obtained in a few weeks in our Caribbean possessions and the decree is valid in all 48 states.

Speed Ray Camera "Freezes" Another Sport

For the first time the speed-ray camera catches racing hounds in action—see them in Sunday's big sports section stopped in flight at 1-100,000 part of a second.

Jimmy Foxx Tells of Sox's Pennant Chances to Joe Cashman

In the concluding chapter of his "Baseball Adventures," Captain James Emory Foxx gives Cashman the inside dope on his team and their fight for the championship.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Laugh and Tour America with Jiggs in the Boston Sunday Advertiser

WELL- IT WON'T BE LONG BEFORE WE GIT HOME- AN' I'LL HAVE TO GIT SOME NEW CLOTHES-AS I AM GETTIN' TO LOOK PRETTY SHABBY-
FOR GOODNESS SAKE - WHAT HAPPENED? DID YOU LOSE AN ELECTION BET?
DON'T YOU LIKE THE GET-UP?
GOLLY-THAT'S THE FUNNIEST THING I HAVE SEEN OUT-SIDE MAGGIE'S HATS-
I'M SO SORRY- I DIDN'T LIKE IT EITHER-BUT MY WIFE INSISTED ON GETTING IT FOR ME-
Copr. 1940, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

This Is Too Much!

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

(Copyright by King Features Synd., Inc.)

ACROSS

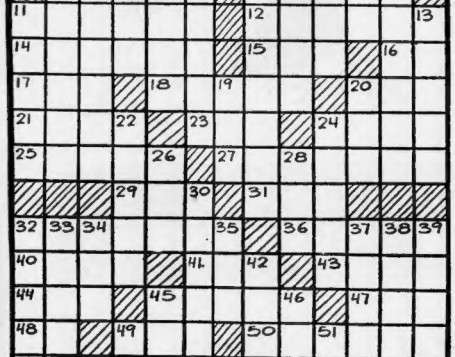
1—breast
6—danger
11—salt of boric acid
12—fertilizer for cereals
14—inflammation of the ear
15—drag
16—depart
17—scold annoyingly
18—tropical resin
20—cry of a crow
21—one
23—greet with the head
24—attractive as a child
25—church council
27—weakened with water
29—totem pole
31—pinch
32—alike
36—tower of ice
40—sign
41—woman under vows
43—stringed instrument
44—binding custom
45—pertaining to morning
47—supreme being
48—measure of area
49—exhumed
50—Italian city
52—distant
54—one who ascends
55—striped animal
56—ore deposits

DOWN

1—study of plants
2—source
3—pertaining to the ear region
5—mesial plane
6—a champion
7—Jewish month
8—equip
9—at home
10—tie with a ligature
11—premium
13—pulled along
19—seed vessel
20—sever
22—poison made by bacteria
24—assaying cup
26—split pulse
28—fleur-de-lis
30—bright-colored bird
32—pertaining to the sun
33—Turkish inn
34—sea gull
35—groove
37—wrinkled
38—makes amends
39—evergreen tree
42—living in snow
45—silent
46—Roman emperor
49—domestic animal
51—free
53—note of the scale

Solution on Page 20

Average Time of Solution: 30 Minutes.



Mistress Mary's Garden

Plants for Dry Spots

By T. W. LEGGETT

Here are some suggestions for plants to cover dry spots. If there is a spot so dry and sun-baked that nothing will grow on it, try Eschscholtzia and it will be a joy rather than a disappointment.

Then there is the handsome low growing, spreading salamander of gorgeous colors. Portulacs. No soil too hot or too arid for it. And it reseeds itself, coming up annually. A little care may be required to reset the plants to fill bare places.

Other good plants for these places of desert character are Gaillardias, Mimosa, Nasturtiums, Verbena, Phlox Drummondi, Gypsophila paniculata, Echinopsis, Veronicas, Helianthus, Rudebeklas, Gleome, called Spider Plant and Convolvulus minor.

Marvel of Peru, also called Four O'Clock, is another to add to the list. The bushy plants bear showy flowers, red, white, pink and yellow in profusion in the afternoon. Many have grown this from seed annually, not knowing that the roots may be dug in the autumn, stored like dahlia tubers, to be replanted in spring, producing larger plants that will betar more flowers.

To the above list may be added native perennial of the South, Yucca filamentosa, hardy in the North.

A little study of suitable plants will clothe these barren desert spots with beauty.

LEARN TO DANCE! ENROLL NOW
Uptown School Modern Dancing
338 Mass. Ave., Com. 0526
Newest Steps Beginners a Specialty
15 Private Lessons $5
Hours 10 A. M. to 12 P. M.

GALA OPENING TONIGHT!
CASINO of MAGNOLIA
RUBY NEWMAN'S
SAMMY EISEN
ROUTE 127 FROM SALEM

Houdini's Widow Carries on Drive

By HARRIS MORGAN

Harry Houdini's unceasing crusade to expose fraudulent medium who mulct the gullible of hundreds of thousands of dollars annually has not terminated with his death, the Trans-Lux film attraction reveals.

In "The Mystic Circle Murder," a mystery story starring Betty Compson and featuring the master magician's widow, the material he and Mrs. Houdini gathered over a period of 25 years has been utilized in behalf of the victims of these fakers.

It is the story of Martha Morgan, young heiress recently bereaved, who is convinced that "The Great LaGagge" is possessed of supernatural powers and can communicate with her dead mother. Martha's fiance, a newspaperman, in his attempt to save Martha from this suave phony, follows her to India, where he is frozen in a block of ice with the apparatus prepared to hoodwink the credulous women and then dumped into the Ganges river.

In the course of the unreeling, the seance paraphernalia collected by Houdini in his one-man drive on charlatans is used to show how the unsuspecting are beguiled into believing miracles are happening.

Betty Compson is supported by Robert Fiske—as The Great LaGagge—Helene LeBerthon, Arthur Gardner, David Kerman, Robert Frazer and Mrs. Houdini.

Second Trans-Lux offering is "Lives of a Bengal Lancer," which, as all film fans know, has Gary Cooper and Franchot Tone in the big roles.

War News Digest At South Station

A digest of the latest war news tops the South Station Theater's 2½-hour program of short subjects. Included are "Counterfeit Money," latest in the crime-does-not-pay series; "Servant of Mankind," a Thomas A. Edison true story; "United States Air Army," story of America's air defense program; a Popeye cartoon, Pete Smith's "The Domineering Male," an Andy Clude comedy and a Betty Hutton musical short.

Benny Hit Heads New Bowdoin Bill

Jack Benny in his greatest picture hit, "Buck Benny Rides Again," featuring his radio company headed by Eddie "Rochester" Anderson and the screen's popular Andy Devine, Ellen Drew and Virginia Dale, today opens a four-day run on Bowdoin screen. On the same bill is "Dr. Cyclops," fantastic story in technicolor having to do with a mad scientist who reduces humans to doll size.

FIREWORKS
NITE BEFORE THE 17th Celebration
ALL AMUSEMENTS OPEN
ALL NIGHT SUNDAY
REVERE BEACH

Boston's Movie Clock

STATE—"Mortal Storm"; 11:20, 2:55, 6:30, 10:05. "Phantom Raiders"; 1:40, 5:15, 8:50.

METROPOLITAN—"Safari"; 10, 12:15, 2:50, 6:45, 9:45. "Those Were the Days"; 11:35, 2:30, 5:25, 8:25.

ORPHEUM — "Mortal Storm"; 11:20, 2:5, 6:30, 10:05. "Phantom Raiders"; 10, 1:40, 5:15, 8:50.

RKO BOSTON—"Mad Men of Europe"; 9:30, 12, 2:35, 5:05, 7:40, 10:10. "Love, Honor and Oh, Baby"; 10:50, 1:25, 3:55, 6:30, 9:05.

KEITH MEMORIAL—"Irene"; 11:20, 2:50, 6:15, 9:45. "Beyond Tomorrow"; 9:45, 1:15, 4:45, 8:15. "Information, Please"; 11:10, 2:40, 6:05, 9:35.

PARAMOUNT — "Torrid Zone"; 10:10, 1:50, 3:50, 5:40, 9:30. "Fugitive From Justice"; 9:10, 12:50, 3:50, 5:40, 8:30.

FENWAY—"Torrid Zone"; 2:05, 4:45, 7:20, 9:55. "Fugitive from Justice"; 1:10, 3:45, 6:20, 9.

TRANS-LUX—"Mystic Circle Murder"; 11, 1:45, 4:30, 7:15, 10. "Lives of a Bengal Lancer"; 9:30, 12:15, 3, 5:50, 8:35.

HOWARD—"Wings of the Navy"; 10:20, 6:40. "Santa Fe Marshal"; 9:10, 3:30. Burlesque; 12, 2:30, 8:30

GAYETY — "Kidnaping Gorilla"; 10:40, 1:25, 4:15, 7, 9:40 "My Son Is Guilty"; 9:30, 12:05, 2:50, 5:35, 8:20.

NORMANDIE—"Broadway Melody of 1940"; 9:20, 12:20, 4:05, 7:45. "My Son, My Son"; 10:20, 2:05, 5:45, 9:30.

TREMONT—"Amazing Mr. Williams"; 9:50, 1:10, 4:40, 8:10. "Wizard of Oz"; 9, 11:15, 6:20, 9:50.

GLOBE—"Reefer Madness"; continuous from 9 a. m. on.

SCOLLAY—"Lillian Russell"; 10:30, 2:25, 5:55, 9:30. "Biscuit Eater"; 9:30, 1, 4:35, 8:05.

UPTOWN—"Johnny Apollo"; 2:55, 6:30, 10. "Till We Meet Again"; 1:10, 4:45, 8:20

MODERN—"Lillian Russell"; 9:50, 1:50, 5:45, 9:30. "Biscuit Eater"; 12:10, 4:15, 8.

SOUTH STATION—"Counterfeit Money," war newsreels, "Story of Edison," cartoons, sports; 9:30 a. m. to 11:30 p. m.

BEACON—"Courageous Dr. Christian," "Women Without Names"; 9 a. m. to 12 p. m.

OLYMPIA—"Johnny Apollo"; 9:20, 12:20, 3:25, 6:25, 9:30. "Dr. Kildare's Strange Case"; 11, 2:05, 5:05, 8:16.

BOWDOIN—"Buck Benny Rides Again"; 9:10, 12:15, 3:20, 6:30, 9:35. "Dr. Cyclops"; 10:50, 1:55, 5, 8:10

Pops Soloists Announced

The Pop concerts in Symphony Hall will enter on Monday upon the last week but one of the season, under the direction of Arthur Fiedler. The concert on Tuesday has been taken over by the Harvard Class of 1915 for its 25th anniversary. All other nights are open to the public.

Features will be the appearance of Jesus Maria Sanroma as soloist on Thursday (together with the Cecilia Society Chorus); and the first appearance at the Pops of Alec Templeton at a Pension Fund Pop concert on Sunday, June 23 (there will be no concert tomorrow night).

Howard Goding will be the distinguished soloist tonight. This concert, which is particularly dedicated to the New England Conservatory of Music, will have Quincy Porter and Francis Findlay as its guest conductors. The program follows:

Quincy Porter, Guest Conductor:
Overture to "The Secret of Suzanne" — Wolf-Ferrari
"A Night on Bald Mountain" — Mousgorsky
Scherzo from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" — Mendelssohn
Prom and Dance — Quincy Porter
Piano Concerto in A minor — Schumann
Soloist: Howard Goding
Francis Findlay, Guest Conductor:
The New England Conservatory Chorus
Chorale and Finale from "Die Meistersinger" — Wagner
Radiant Morn (Nocturne) — Cesar Cui
Finale from "The Gondoliers" — Sullivan
(Accompaniment orchestrated by Michael Abruzzese, N. E. C. M., 1931).
Rakoczy March — Berlioz

Final Day for Gayety's Film

"Kidnaping Gorilla," weird tale of native women who mysteriously disappear from their tribe in deepest Africa, will have its final showing on the Gayety screen. On the same program is "My Son Is Guilty," with Bruce Cabot and Harry Carey.

TOPS IN TOWN
THE Sheraton Roof
NEWLY DECORATED
Overlooking the Charles
OPEN SUNDAY EVENINGS
from 5:30 P. M.
Delicious Dinner $1.50
Concert Program—2 Pianos
• HERBERT R. BOARDMAN
• WILLIAM STRONG
SPENCER L. SAWYER
General Manager

AMUSEMENTS

COOL KEITH MEMORIAL
2nd WEEK
ANNA NEAGLE
RAY MILLAND
IRENE
Plus NEW 2nd Feature!
BEYOND TOMORROW
CHAS. WINNINGER • JEAN PARKER
new "INFORMATION PLEASE"

Cool RKO BOSTON
2 FIRST RUN FEATURES
MAD MEN OF EUROPE
Plus 2nd Feature
LOVE, HONOR and Oh!—BABY!
WALLACE FORD • MONA BARRIE

TRANS-LUX
"THE MYSTIC CIRCLE MURDER"
BETTY COMPSON
GARY COOPER
"LIVES OF A BENGAL LANCER"

Symphony Hall—Com. 1492
TONIGHT AT 8:30
POPS
ARTHUR FIEDLER—Conductor

UPTOWN 1000 Seats 30c Starts 2:30 Air-Conditioned
Tyrone POWER
Dorothy LAMOUR
"JOHNNY APOLLO"
Merle OBERON
George BRENT
"Till We Meet Again"

BOWDOIN
JACK BENNY
BUCK BENNY RIDES AGAIN
also DR. CYCLOPS

CONT. 9-11PM BEACON YEL. CAP 4038
"COURAGEOUS DR. CHRISTIAN"
"WOMEN WITHOUT NAMES"

NORMANDIE
15¢ TIL ONE
BRIAN AHERNE
MY SON, MY SON
E. POWELL
F. ASTAIRE
BROADWAY MELODY of 1940

TREMONT
JUDY GARLAND
WIZARD OF OZ
DAILY 15¢ TILL SIX
J. BLONDELL
M. DOUGLAS
"MAKING MR. RIGHT"

Star Film Butler Goes 'Strawhat'

By PEGGY DOYLE

The world's highest salaried butler has given his notice and will work for tea and crumpets in the "strawhats."

Arthur Treacher

He could be no one else but Arthur Treacher, Hollywood's delightful deadpan who was recently married to Virginia Taylor, "a big, jolly girl who always laughs at my stories."

Treacher, who initiates 12 consecutive weeks of summer theater appearances in the enduring play, "The Hottentot," a week from Monday at Mount Holyoke's Mount Park Casino, was host to the press yesterday at a luncheon at Hotel Somerset.

Among other things he disclosed that his friend of 20 years' standing, J. Colvil Dunn, will play the butler in the Willie Collier stage hit, "The Hottentot." He himself is playing the reluctant jockey who hates horses but is forced to ride in the steeplechase event and to his own amazement wins the race.

Another interesting fact Treacher revealed is that he is no hero to his colored butler, who believes he has nothing to learn from his master's school of butling, never goes to see any of the films featuring "Butler" Treacher and is blandly satisfied with his own mastery of the fine points of this branch of service.

• • •

But about Treacher quitting Hollywood, don't get him wrong—he really loves Hollywood.

"In the past two years I've only made six pictures. That's three a year. In between pictures, I was on contract being paid handsomely for doing exactly nothing.

"In my seven years in Hollywood I've made some grand friends. They helped to make life very pleasant. I was very content but suddenly I awoke to the fact that I was becoming a human vegetable, my chief worry being the proper location for the petunias or the right temperature for the wine.

"I had a nice house in Encino. I built it myself—without an architect. Just me and a draughtsman. But I sold it in four days. I decided I must live in a trunk again. The inactivity was boring me. I've got to be in the sawdust.

"Broadway? I'd like nothing better than to get back on the stage in the fall. I've had quite a varied stage experience. I've even been in musical comedy and if I haven't forgotten all I ever knew about it I'd enjoy being in a musical."

Treacher's second week in "The Hottentot" is scheduled for the Cape Playhouse at Dennis, which is opening its season a week from Monday night with his fellow-countrywomen, Gertrude Lawrence, in Noel Coward's "Private Lives."

ZORITA and her daring snake dance headline the Old Howard's next week's show, starting with a special holiday eve show tomorrow night at 12:01.

Zorita Back At Old Howard

Exotic Zorita brings her daring snake dance to the Old Howard for the new show, starting with the special holiday eve show tomorrow night at 12:01.

Assisted by a cast of 53, she heads the "Shooting High" burlesque revue, reported to be the "livest and most entertaining of the season." It played to "standing room only" throughout its Atlantic City engagement.

Outstanding in the parade of pulchritude are Jean Carroll, with an individual dance routine; Paula Lind, a "dare-devil from Broadway," and Dell Orell, with a song and dance act that recently delighted Chicago.

On the comic side are Fred Binder, Joe Freed and Jack Rosen. Others are James X. Francis, Norma Payne, Pat Paige, James Cavanaugh and Ann and Patricia Davis.

The Old Howard's three daily shows start at 12 m., 2:1) and 8:30 p. m. There is a regular Friday midnight show, starting at 11:30.

Marihuana Film Reveals Dangers

By DON WARD

Marihuana—a weed that grows wild anywhere and is more deadly than cocaine or heroin, in the opinion of narcotics experts—is the villain of the Globe's thought-provoking film of high school youths and "reefer" peddlers.

"Reefer Madness" is its title. Based on case histories in the files of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, it reveals how unscrupulous peddlers fraternize with high school boys and girls at their "sandwich and soda" rendezvous and then invite them to "reefer" parties.

Carlton Young, as the marihauna salesman, has gotten an "in" into the high school group by employing the services of handsome Dave O'Brien, older than the rest and the school idol for his athletic prowess. He has begun smoking marihuana cigarettes. Soon the younger Kenneth Craig and Warren McCullom are following his example.

Driving his sister's car with reckless speed one day, Warren is involve din a hit-and-run accident. In keeping the news from his family, he becomes more and more evasive and bad-tempered. Dorothy Craig, his sister, is concerned about him, finally learns of the apartment he frequents. She goes there and when Craig, her high school sweetheart, sees O'Brien forcing his attentions upon her he goes berserk. Young, alarmed that the ruckus will bring the police, rushes in with a revolver. Tiying to club Craig into insensibility, it goes off, killing Dorothy.

"Reefer Madness" is hardly a pretty picture but, for that matter, neither are the results of marihuana smoking. A committee representing the Women's Christian Temperance Union attended the picture's preview.

PHONE CAPITOL 1565 MORNING PRICES 25 and 35 Cents
OLD HOWARD
3 COMPLETE SHOWS DAILY at 12 (MIDNIGHT)—2:30—8:30 P.M. MIDNIGHT SHOW EVERY FRIDAY at 11:30 P.M.
THE ONLY BURLESQUE SHOW IN BOSTON
SPECTACULAR (Holiday) MIDNIGHT SHOW
TOMORROW NIGHT (SUNDAY) AT 12:01 A. M.
The MOST SENSATIONAL GIRL IN BURLESQUE!
ZORITA
IN HER NEW AND STARTLING DANCE CREATIONS!
SHOOTIN' HIGH BURLESQUERS featuring
JEAN CARROLL The EXOTIC PARADER | PAULA LIND N.Y.'S LITTLE DAREDEVIL | DELL O'RELL DARING BLONDE
AND THOSE THREE ACE COMEDIANS
JOE FREED—FRED BINDER—JACK ROSEN
WHO WILL GIVE YOU A HUNDRED BELLY LAUGHS!
Tanner & Thomas, direct from London's Swanky Night Clubs. James X. Francis' Norma Payne, James Cavanaugh, Ann and Patricia Davis, Pat Paige, 60 People in cast with 20 Show Girls. Huge Beauties

Programs AT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE FOR SATURDAY

ARLINGTON
ARL. 1197 REGENT MAT. 2—EVE 7:45 Comes the Answer Contest! Boris Karloff-M. Lindsay "BRITISH INTELLIGENCE" "DR. CYCLOPS"

BACK BAY—KENMORE SQ.
KENMORE Ken. 6800 I TAKE THIS WOMAN SPENCER TRACY - HEDY LAMARR Also—"NICK CARTER MASTER DETECTIVE"

BOSTON
SOUTH STATION HUB 5560 PETE SMITH • U-S-AIR ARMY • THOMAS EDISON'S LIFE • COUNTERFEITERS vs. FEDERAL MEN 2½ hrs. PROGRAM

BROOKLINE
CONT. 2:00 P.M. COOLIDGE CORNER BEA 3600 TYRONE POWER • DOROTHY LAMOUR ★ JOHNNY APOLLO ★ Also—"STAR DUST" with LINDA DARNELL

BROOKLINE VILLAGE
CONT. 2:00 P.M. BROOKLINE Deanna DURBIN IT'S A DATE ADVENTURE IN DIAMONDS SUN: Mickey Rooney "As Young You Ever Were"

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY HARVARD SQ. KIR 4580 MADELEINE CARROLL Brian Aherne MY SON, MY SON! JONES "ON THEIR OWN" & Marsh of Time SUN: TOO MANY HUSBANDS & IT ALL CAME TRUE

CHARLESTOWN
CONT. 1:30 P.M. THOMPSON 50 WALT DISNEY Feature Cartoon J. Stephenson-M. Stevenson "CALLING PHILO VANCE" "PINOCCHIO" SAT. EVE. STARTING "MOON NIGHT"

DORCHESTER
DORCHESTER GEN 0700 "BLONDIE ON A BUDGET" also Evelyn Venable HERITAGE OF DESERT PLAY "WAHOO"
GEN. 2200 MAGNET CONT. 1 TO 11:30 "REBECCA" Tom Brown "MA ME'S BAKING EYES AT ME"

DORCHESTER
CONT. 1:30 P.M. CAPITOL PARK KEN. 0348 Errol Flynn-Bir. Hopkins "VIRGINIA CITY" Erlene W. Hanlon-Lupino "LIGHT THAT FAILED" CHARLES BICKFORD "ONE HOUR TO LIVE" "CONVICTED WOMAN" CONTINUOUS TODAY

LYNN
LYNN OPEN-AIR AUTO THEATRE Set in Your Car—See & Hear Movies On the Lynnway Bend St. Extension or Cor. Essex Bridge St. G. FIELDS Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy "YOU CAN'T CHEAT AN HONEST MAN" BORIS KARLOFF "The Fatal Hour" LUMINOUS BEAM TO MIGHTE

MEDFORD
MEDFORD MYSTIC 1600 ALBERT DEKKER, "DR. CYCLOPS" LINDA DARNELL-ROLAND YOUNG "STAR DUST"

MALDEN
ORPHEUM CONT. 1:30 P.M. EVENINGS 7:15 & 9:15 Tom Mitchell-Edna Best "Young Dr. Malone" Wm. Boyd-Hidden Love "Sing Your Way Home"
MAPLEWOOD MAT. 1:15—Eve. 7:15—9:15 "Grandpa Comes to Town" Charles Laughton "Ruggles of Red Gap" Fe Manche "Mr. Dynamite" Gloria Stuart

THEATRES NOTICE!
Capacity audiences are attained by reaching the masses and not the classes. Your theatre depends on volume to create a most profitable operation. The Daily Record Evening American is the largest circulation by far of any other Boston daily newspaper combination.
These Are Facts! . . Not Opinions!

MALDEN (Continued)
GRANADA CONT. • MAT. 7654 1:30-11 • Free Parking JACK BENNY-"BUCK BENNY RIDES AGAIN" Lew Ayres-L. Barrymore-Dr. Kildare's Strange Case"
MYSTIC Sun. Day—Today • Mat. 7654 Eve. 50c & 60c • Free Parking Tyr. Power "JOHNNY APOLLO" Also "Angels From Texas"

NORTH STATION
LANCASTER SAT. MATINEE CHILDREN'S PARTY "STAR DUST"-Linda Darnell-John Payne Jackie Cooper-Betty Field-SUN-TUES-WED "PETER IBBETSON"

QUINCY
STRAND QUINCY "YOUNG TOM EDISON" "2 Girls On Broadway" "BARON OF TIME" Sun "My Son My Son" Chan's Murder Cruise" "CURTAIN CALL" Fri-Sat Stage Show Sun "Johnny Apollo"

REVERE
BOULEVARD-REVERE Rev. 2400 CONT. FROM 1 P.M. 2 BIG HITS AT THE PRICE OF ONE! 2:00 A MASSEY "LINCOLN IN ILLINOIS" B. GORDON "FREE, BLONDE & 21"-LYNN BARI-JOAN DAVIS

ROXBURY
HUMBOLDT NIG. 2100 MAT. 2-EVE. 8 LAURENCE OLIVIER "REBECCA" "OUTSIDE THE THREE MILE LIMIT" SUN JEAN ARTHUR-"TOO MANY HUSBANDS"

SAUGUS
Drive-In Theatre KAY KYSER "IT'S ALL RIGHT YOU'RE WRONG" OTHER SHORTS & LATEST NEWS CONT NIGHTLY RAIN or SHINE STARTS at DUSK-LAST SHOW DIES

SHREWSBURY
Drive-In Theatre GINGER ROGERS "FIFTH AVENUE GIRL" WALTER CONNOLLY-WALTER HUSTON MARCH OF TIME "CANADA AT WAR" OTHER SHORTS & LATEST NEWS CONT NIGHTLY - RAIN or SHINE STARTS at DUSK-LAST SHOW DIES

SOMERVILLE
DAVIS SQ. Som. 2290 Mat 2-Eve 7:15 GET RITE TONIGHT Robt. Montgomery-"PARK OF CHICAGO" "ALL WOMEN HAVE SECRETS"
TEELE SQ. "NORTHWEST PASSAGE" & "Young As You Feel"
SOMERVILLE "STRAPLESS" & "CONGO MAISIE"
BROADWAY "Judge Hardy & Son" & "Disputed Passage"

SOUTH BOSTON
CONT. 1:30 P.M. STRAND BROADWAY KOP 0060 Jean Hersholt-D. Lowell Chateau-Dr. Christian "Doctors" Ellen Drew-Robert Paige "Women Without Names" Jack Holt-Dick Purcell Erin Friends-3 LITTLE Bowery 3 Mile Limit PUPPETS AT HOME"

SOUTH END
NATIONAL Han. 2860, Cont. 12:30-11 "LUCKY STRIKE" Preston Foster-Helen Vinson-"GUILTY" And Sothern-John Carroll-"CONGO MAISIE"

WATERTOWN
WATERTOWN SQ. MID. 0059 Margaret Sullavan-Jas. Stewart-"Shop Around Corner" RONALD REAGAN-"SMASHING THE MONEY RING"

WEYMOUTH
Drive-In Theatre CLAIRE TREVOR-JOHN WAYNE "ALLEGHENY UPRISING" MARCH OF TIME "BATTLE OF THE PACIFIC" "READY'S SHOE SHOP" OTHER SHORTS & LATEST NEWS CONT NIGHTLY RAIN or SHINE STARTS AT DUSK-LAST SHOW DIES

WINTHROP—DEDHAM
WINTHROP and STATE COMMUNITY Dan. Lane-Eddie Albert "ANGEL FROM TEXAS" E. Powell-Fred Astaire "BROADWAY MELODY of '40" S. "SHOOTING HIGH" & "PANTHER"

AMUSEMENTS

GAYETY CONTINUOUS 9 A.M. TO 11 P.M.
NOW ENDS SAT. WHAT HAPPENS TO WOMEN KIDNAPPED BY GORILLAS?
LOVE LIFE of a GORILLA Adults Only!
Also 5th DARING ADVENTURES OF DARKEST AFRICA
KIDNAPPING GORILLA
Also—MY SON IS GUILTY

Now METROPOLITAN AIR-CONDITIONED Plus 2nd HIT
MADELEINE CARROLL DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, Jr. SAFARI
"THOSE WERE THE DAYS" EZRA STONE WILLIAM HOLDEN

GLOBE FIRST NEW ENGLAND SHOWING
The sweet "pill" that makes life bitter.
ADULTS ONLY
REEFER MADNESS
DARING! SHOCKING! STARTLING!
A LIVING HELL ON EARTH

PARAMOUNT FENWAY
CAGNEY • O'BRIEN • SHERIDAN "TORRID ZONE" also Roger Pryor, "Emotion Town Junior"
2nd HIT SCOLLAY MODERN BOTH THEATRES AIR CONDITIONED
ALICE FAYE—DON AMECHE "LILLIAN RUSSELL" also Billy Lee "THE BISCUIT EATER"
4th BIG HIT WASH OLYMPIA AIR CONDITIONED
Tyrone Power "Johnny Apollo" Dorothy Lamour "DR. KILDARE'S STRANGE CASE"

COMMUNITY theatres Programs for SATURDAY

ALLSTON—JAMAICA PLAIN
ALL. 2121 CAPITOL JAMAICA KIR 4651
Merle Oberon-G. Brent "'Til We Meet Again" | Mickey Rooney "YOUNG TOM EDISON"
Lew Ayres-Lor. Day-Dr. Kildare's Strange Case | Wayne Morris-R. Lane "An Angel From Texas"

CAMBRIDGE
Central Sq.—Harvard KIR 4651
Tyrone Power-D. Lamour "JOHNNY APOLLO" | N. Fonda-John Darnell "GRAPES OF WRATH"
Dr. Kildare's Strange Case CONT. PERF. 1:30-11 | Frank Morgan-R. Rorke "GHOST COMES HOME"

DORCHESTER
TAL. 4040 Codman-Franklin TAL. 5900
Brian Aherne RAYMOND MASSEY "MY SON, MY SON" Madeleine Carroll "Abe Lincoln In Illinois"
Tal. 2200 Fields Cor. | Morton Gen. 6300
"DR. CYCLOPS" IN COLOR
SIDNEY TOLER "CHAN IN PANAMA" | EDMUND LOWE "CROOKED ROAD"

MATTAPAN—DORCHESTER
BLU 3200 Oriental-Strand COL 2000
Jack Benny "Buck Benny Rides Again" Roche-ter Brent-Maria Ouspenskaya "'TIL WE MEET AGAIN"
BOTH THEATRES CONT. TODAY 1:00 11 P.M.

ROXBURY
NIG. 0100 RIVOLI Jack Benny-Rochester "Buck Benny Rides Again" Pat O'Brien-Geo. Brent "'TIL WE MEET AGAIN"
NIG. 0043 Dudley-Shawmut CAR 1370
LAUREL & HARDY "CHUMP AT OXFORD" "Parade Leaves" | ALL IN COLOR "DR. CYCLOPS" "CHAN IN PANAMA"
SUN "DR. CYCLOPS" Son "STRANGE CARGO"

SOMERVILLE
CENTRAL STRAND KOP 0060
Allen Jones-F. MacMurray "Little Old New York" | JACKIE COOPER "SKATERS"
P. Foster-Irene Hervey "MISSING EVIDENCE" | Wm Gargan-Wallace Ford "ISLE OF DESTINY"

LOEW'S STATE ORPHEUM
MARGARET SULLAVAN JAMES STEWART ROBERT YOUNG FRANK MORGAN MORTAL STORM
From the great novel!
PHANTOM RAIDERS
Extra • Added Attraction
"THE FLAG SPEAKS"
Stirring Drama of the Stars and Stripes

$2 SUNDAY CRUISE PROVINCETOWN
This trip you will never forget—thrilling 100-mile sail to historic Provincetown on the luxury liner Steel Pier. Leave Foster's Wharf 10 A.M., return 8 P.M. 2 hrs. ashore. Dancing, entertainment, cafeteria, morning cocktail lounge, free deck chairs. $2 round trip. Children ½ fare. Cape Cod S.S. Co. Hub. 2650
STEEL PIER

READ FOR PROFIT—USE FOR RESULTS
RECORD-AMERICAN WANT ADS

Smart Set Functions

By BETTY ALDEN

THERE ARE MORE LARGE weddings on today's social calendar than on any other day during this month of brides . . .

Out in Needham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parkman D. Howe, their daughter, Marietta, becomes the bride of Richard W. Davisson Jr., of Glen Cove, Long Island, at a late afternoon garden wedding . . .

Walking down the garden path on the arm of her father, Marietta will make a lovely picture in her white marquisette gown with fine pleats edging the cuffs of the long sleeves, neckline and hem, and a marquisette veil falling from a halo of the pleating . . .

Surrounding her at the improvised altar in a corner of the garden are her sister, Maud, Mrs. David E. Howe of Nashota, Wis., honor attendants, and six bridesmaids, all gowned in pale green marquisette with full sleeves and skirts and tight fitting basque waists . . . In keeping with the picturesque outdoor setting they are carrying green parasols and wearing two gardenias in their hair . . . The bridesmaids are Phyllis Howe, cousin of the bride, Rebecca Ames, Anne Soule, Cynthia Forbes, all of Boston, Helen McIntosh of Milwaukee, and Joan Davisson of Glen Cove, L. I., sister of the bridegroom . . .

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Paul Frybil and Mr. R. L. Davisson, is graduating from Harvard next week and a number of his classmates are in his usher staff . . .

* * *

Tappan-Stickney Ceremony

WITH 20 ATTENDANTS in their wedding in Cambridge this afternoon, Anne Stickney and Robert Tappan have been entertained at a whirl of parties, climaxed by a bridal dinner given by Mrs. David Edwards at The Country Club last evening . . . The preceding evening Constance Ann MacBride entertained members of the families and the bridesmaids and ushers at a buffet dinner in Waban, followed by dancing at the Sheraton Roof . . . Connie Anne, together with Hope Halsey, Leila Ernst, Rebecca Stickney, Martha Pervere, Marietta Withington, Mrs. John Sabine and Florence Boynton are all in the wedding party . . .

Contrasting with Anne's white net gown and veil, with which she is carrying gardenias, are the filmy yellow and blue costumes of the attendants . . . The reception is at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Stickney of Belmont . . .

* * *

Frances Fabyan Weds at Beverly Farms

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH, Beverly Farms, was the scene of the marriage of Frances Fabyan to Howland Davis at 12:30 today . . . The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marshall Fabyan of Hickory Hill, Beverly Farms, and Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howland Davis of Tivoli, N. Y. . . .

Eleanor B. Fabyan, the maid of honor, headed a group of attendants which included Anne Blake, of Beverly Farms, Kitty Fiske of Warren, R. I., and a number of New York friends of the bride . . . Eleanor's gown of rose marquisette was enhanced by a leghorn picture hat with blue streamers and a bouquet of blue delphinium and lavender cornflowers . . .

Dr. Fabyan escorted his daughter to the altar . . . She wore a gown of white satin made on princess lines with a collar of heirloom Point d'Alencon lace and carried lilies of the valley, gladioli and stephanotis . . .

* * *

Brooks-De Menocal Wedding

ESMEE DE MENOCAL is wearing a gown of ivory faille with a veil of heirloom lace and net and carrying Madonna lilies for her marriage to Shepherd Brooks in Emmanuel Church this afternoon . . . The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. de Menocal at whose home the reception is being held, and Mr. Brooks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gorham Brooks of Chestnut Hill . . .

The matron of honor, Mrs. William Simpson (Babs de Menocal) of Locust Valley, L. I., is wearing white organza and the bridesmaids are all wearing yellow and carrying yellow and white Iris with coronets of leaves in their hair . . . The bridesmaids include Violet Brooks, Mrs. Curtis Prout, Mary Hutchins, Joan Dick, Faith Kidder, Nancy Burrage and Diana Bird . . .

Day of Days For Debs

Boston Evening American Photo

SILHOUETTED against Beantown's skyline, Nancy Bernard, left, and Cynthia Vose flashed their most winning smiles at the photographer at their joint debut luncheon on the Sheraton Roof yesterday. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Bernard of Chestnut Hill and Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Vose of Brookline.

Mary Spratt Newton Bride

Juel Frances Spratt was the sole attendant for her sister, Mary Ramona, who became the bride of Daniel Gerard Holland, of Jamaica Plain, this morning, out in Newton Center's Sacred Heart Church.

Rt. Rev. Richard J. Cushing performed the ten o'clock ceremony and Rev. Fr. Winn celebrated the nuptial mass.

John Vincent Flanagan gave his cousin in marriage. Francis J. Holland was his brother's best man and the ushers were Vincent Paul Holland, Philip R. Kelly of Boston, Frank J. Donahue, Cambridge, and John J. Murphy, Brookline.

Miss Spratt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Willard Spratt studied at Art Students League and Hunter College.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel J. Holland of Jamaica Plain, was graduated from Boston College in 1935, and is now in the advertising business.

Novel Toast For Bridal Couple

Reinette Plimpton and William S. Pier, who are being married today in Leslie Lindsey Memorial Chapel, received a novel toast at their bridal dinner party given by the bride's father, T. Barnet Plimpton at the Hotel Sheraton Roof last evening.

Gardiner Pier, the bridegroom's brother and best man, proposed the first toast and presented the couple with a miniature cottage with green shutters and a garden made of real plants. Mrs. Gardiner Pier (Emily Dick) was a guest at the party, wearing baby orchids in her blonde hair and a gay dress of Indian print under a short mink jacket.

The bride wore a white dinner gown with a rosy tile beaded jacket and a huge orchid corsage. Among the guests was Mary Hastings in a green and white printed gown and beige and white maribou bolero.

Irene FitzGerald to Wed

A late summer wedding is being planned by Irene Regina FitzGerald, whose engagement to Jay H. Thomas, of Indianapolis, is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benedict FitzGerald, of Cambridge.

The bride-elect attended the Convent of the Holy Child in New York, and the Prince School in Boston. She is a granddaughter of the late Baroness von der Aue. Her father . . . director of music in the Cambridge schools . . . is past president of the Charitable Irish Society of Boston.

Mr. Thomas . . . son of Mrs. Jay H. Thomas, of Indianapolis, and the late Jay Harry Thomas of St. Louis . . . is a member of Harvard's class of '39 and belongs to Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity, and Harvard Dramatic Club. He will receive his officer's commission in the Harvard Reserve Officers Training Corps at Fort Ethan Allen this summer.

NEWPORT PARTY

Checked and double checked on the smartest Newport social calendars is August 17, the date chosen by Count and Countess Alfonso Villa for the large dance they will give at Fairholme for their debutante daughter, Francesca.

IRENE FITZGERALD
Weds This Summer

Lois Proctor Bride Today

Lois Elizabeth Proctor, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Bingham Proctor of Brookline, is being married this afternoon to Howard Sumner Macdonald, son of Mrs. Kenneth Colin Macdonald of Milton, in the Chapel of Harvard Congregational Church.

The bride, who is being given in marriage by her father, John Albert Proctor of New York, is wearing a gown of white mousseline de soie made with a front panel of Chantilly lace. Her finger tip veil falls from a coronet of Chantilly lace and she is carrying a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Melvin M. Johnson, Jr., (Virginia Rice) noted tennis player, is the matron of honor. With her gown of jewel green starched organdy she is wearing a small toque of emerald ribbon bows and carrying a sheaf of yellow flowers. The bridesmaids Valerie Proctor, Faith Lamont Dorothy Letitia Dillon and Phyllis Childs, are wearing Swiss cloque organdy, flower printed in shades of green and yellow, with toques and flowers like the matron of honor's.

The chapel is decorated with Italian candelabra and tall urns of lilies and white stock. The reception is at Longwood Towers where the bride's mother is receiving in a gown of bois de rose lace with a large rose lace hat and burgundy accessories. Mrs. Macdonald is wearing powder blue chiffon with white orchids.

Edwin J. Fitzpatrick of Rochester, N. Y., is best man.

The couple will spend their honeymoon on a motor trip to Hot Springs, Va., and will live in Boston.

Helen Addison Joins Brides

Four clergymen are performing the ceremony this afternoon in Christ Church, Cambridge, at which Helen Crocker Addison become the bride of Rev. Robert McConnell Hatch, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. P. Hatch of Cambridge. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Thayer Addison of Cambridge.

One of the officiating clergymen is the bridegroom's father, and the others are Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, Rev. C. Leslie Glenn and Rev. Arthur Lee Kinsolving. The bride's gown of white faille is trimmed with rose point lace to match her headdress and she is carrying white orchids.

Blue and rose is the color scheme of the bridal attendants who include the bride's sister, Martha, Mary C. Crocker, Virginia T. Ferry, Nancy G. Peabody, all of Boston, Barbara K. Austin of Glencoe, Ill., Sheila B. Hallah of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., Mary Alice Hunter of Montclair, N. J., and Marjory Klein of Grosse Point, Mich. They are wearing hats to match their gowns and carrying rose orchids.

The reception is being held at the Harvard Faculty Club where Mrs. Addison is receiving in a gown of navy blue and pink lace and Mrs. Hatch in gray lace and net.

The bride attended school in Florence, Italy, and Vassar College and belongs to the Junior League and Vincent Club. Rev. Hatch is a Harvard '33 graduate.

Ledlie Laughlin Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Laughlin of Concord are announcing today the engagement of their daughter, R. Ledlie Laughlin, to David Beckwith Rodd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rodd, Jr., of New York.

The bride-to-be, a debutante of 1935-36, studied at Bryn Mawr and spent last winter at the Sorbonne in Paris. She belongs to the Vincent Club and Junior League.

Mr. Rodd attended St. Paul's School and graduates from Yale next week. He will enter Harvard Law School in the autumn.

Cooking

New Ice-Box Desserts

By MARTHA LEE

HERE'S a hot-weather hint: when the temperature goes up, serve a tempting cold dessert that requires no cooking. The trick is simple. You start with a baker's sponge cake, and use your refrigerator instead of your stove.

Ready-made sponge cake, cut in squares or purchased in the form of "Mary Ann" cups, makes a perfect base for chilled sweetened berries, fresh sliced and sugared peaches, or chilled canned fruit. If it's handy, add sweetened whipped cream, flavored with cinnamon or vanilla. Or top each serving of cake with ice cream, then fruit. For a "sundae" on cake, pour prepared chocolate sauce or juicy fruit over the ice cream, and add a sprinkling of chopped nuts

ICE-BOX DESSERTS

Ice-box desserts that require no cooking are a welcome thought. These are made with one or two layers of square sponge cake. Split each layer crosswise with a sharp knife. Spread bottom layer thickly with jelly, jam or preserves. Top with next layer, pressing it down firmly. If two squares of cake are used repeat, building up cake to four layers. Wrap in wax paper, and chill thoroughly in refrigerator. When cold, "ice" top and sides with creamed cheese softened with top milk or cream; or with sweetened whipped cream, or marshmallow sauce.

If your refrigerator is automatic, you can turn out delicious Ice Cream Cake. Serve it when you want something special for "company."

ICE CREAM CAKE

1 baker's sponge cake
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup milk
2½ tsp. vanilla
¼ tsp. salt
1 cup cream, whipped

With sharp knife, slice sponge cake lengthwise into thin strips, making enough to line bottom, sides and top of dessert freezing try of your refrigerator. Place strip of wax paper in bottom of tray, then fit in cake sections so that they completely line tray; reserve enough to cover top. Stir together sugar, milk, vanilla and salt. Fold in whipped cream with lightest possible handling and pile mixture into cake-lined tray. Fit remaining slices of cake over top to form a tight cover. Place tray in freezing unit; freeze until firm, 3 to 4 hours. Unmold and slice from end for serving. (Tastes extra good with hot fudge sauce!)

DEVIL'S FOOD ICE CREAM LOAF

1 quart vanilla ice cream
2 layers chocolate devil's food cake
1 cup cream, whipped

Line a freezing tray with wax paper. Pack half the ice cream into bottom tray; cover with thin layer of cake cut to fit. Pack rest of ice cream firmly on top. Press another layer of cake firmly onto top; place in freezing compartment for 3 hours. Turn out onto chilled platter, remove wax paper, and pile whipped cream on top. Serve on chilled plates. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Smart Set Fashions

Knit a Shoulder-Cape

THE SHAWLS started something . . and the outcome is a new shoulder cape for sports or evening wear, that's soft as a fleece of a cloud . . . and just as becoming! This is the most youthful cape of its kind we've come across . . . and you'll be using it next winter as a throw over your shoulders when you're abed and reading late at night, and the house gets chilly. It is deftly designed in pastel stripes, and the "drop stitch" pattern falls into pleats. Only one skein of knitting worsted in each of two colors, so the pleated effect will be more pronounced, is needed.

FOR YOUR SET of knitting directions, simply write to Annice Brink, Fashion Editor, Boston American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.*

Shorthand Increases Chances

A big gulf, you may think, between the girl who has a job and you who are hopelessly seeking one . . . waiting long hours for interviews which lead nowhere.

Yet often the only difference between you is shorthand. And with a little spunk you can teach yourself shorthand, be ready to step in when openings occur.

Pitman shorthand, you learn, is based on the sounds in our language. For each sound you have a brief symbol, but actually you haven't many symbols to learn, for even in a long letter or speech there are only a few different sounds.

From your lessons you learn a few symbols each day and you steadily progress to the point where you can write any word in shorthand.

To get in line for a good position in business or civil service, study the principles of shorthand give in our 40-page booklet, PITMAN SHORTHAND SELF-TAUGHT. Gives a simple explanation of the Pitman method in 15 easy lessons.

YOU CAN EASILY TEACH YOURSELF AT HOME

Send 15c in coins for our booklet, PITMAN SHORTHAND SELF-TAUGHT to Boston Evening American, Home Institute, 109 West 19th Street, New York, N. Y. Write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Love

And Marriage

Future Citizen Her Fiance

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I met a young man at one of our club parties, and after going out with him several times he asked me to marry him. I accepted after much thought, and he gave me my ring for an Easter present.

He came from a foreign country and told me he has taken out his first papers, but that he would have to wait two years for his second papers. Do you know if this is true? Of course, I have no right to doubt his word, because he has always been straight forward. But still I wonder.

We wanted to be married in August; do you think I ought to wait until the final papers are given him? I do love him very much. He is 28 and I'm 19, but I look and act a good deal older. Please help me, won't you, Miss Fairfax? WORRIED.

As the young man has been straightforward with you about becoming an American citizen, you might be equally generous with him, and not wait until he gets his final papers. You're both in love; you're young, and time has a way of speeding.

I verified your question through the proper channels.

LEILA ERNST HOME

Leila Ernst, the local gal who made good on Broadway, and even in Hollywood, is home for a few weeks resting and visiting her friends, before the opening of the summer theaters.

You Can Be Beautiful

Here's a Perfume Ideal For Your Summer Needs

By ARLINE GOULD

NO MATTER how charming you find a perfume to be, if it doesn't get the nod from the men in your life . . . what good is it?

Our perfumed-sharpened senses immediately started to say "stop, look and sniff" when we came across a perfume which is featured by a custom-made cosmetic line . . . and, if we needed any confirmation of its vital appeal, we received it right then and there!

"You like it, do you?" asked the manager of the shop. "Then you'll be intrigued by this: The stylish of this line walked into an elevator in New York, where the men are apt to be blase about even the $40 an ounce perfumes, and the three male occupants were instantly heads up . . . and she heard one say to the other, 'There's a perfume that's got something!'"

Frankly, it baffles us a little bit. There is no putting a finger on its derivations. As a matter of fact, we don't want to know anything about its base. That would be something like the blasting of a childhood illusion on discovering that the jolly old department store Santa Claus was none other than your next door neighbor.

Sufficient to say that it is light enough, vibrant enough to play in with your summer moods . . . and something to count on when you are intent on turning an advantage engendered by springtime into a romantic coup some fine summer night. It is perfect for evening clothes; and ultra-so with sheer, floating afternoon things. It would be wise to confine it to the hours when you choose to be other than your daytime self, readily different than the girl who lets her hair fly unrestrained, and her face gleam with a healthy sheen and brilliant, heightened color.

If you'd like to learn about this exclusive perfume (relatively not expensive) which is undoubtedly a personality among fragrances phone Arline Gould, LIBerty 9900, week-days except Saturday, or write, inclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Martin Pattern

Pattern 9425 may be ordered only in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 requires 3½ yards 39-inch fabric.

To get this pattern send fifteen cents to Boston Evening American, Pattern Department, 232 West 18th street, New York, N. Y. Ten cents additional will bring you our newest Pattern Book.

Birthday Horoscope

By FRANCES DRAKE
Saturday, June 15

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY—You are willing to take on many responsibilities and tasks—often too many for the good of your nerves and general health. Artistic and practical. You have a keen appreciation of humor; probably are quite witty yourself. Deserve higher education. Make the most of any honest opportunity to further enlightenment. You should like travel. Maintain poise and a quiet demeanor—disposition is an important factor in the aid of success.

LUCKY NUMBER—Today's lucky number is 27.

LUCKY COLOR—Today's lucky color is orange.

Send 15 cents and large self-addressed stamped envelope to Frances Drake, Boston American, Box 2228, Boston, for an individual horoscope, personal guide and lucky calendar for the first six months of 1940, giving the day and month you were born.

'Boston After Dark," by George Holland, appears every day in the Boston American.

OLD NEW ENGLAND
KITCHEN MEMORIES

RECIPES
taken from grandmother's hand-written recipe book
Indian Pudding
Bum Cake
"Dip-Rosies"
July 4th Special and other prize winning, tested recipes appear in the HOUSEWIFE'S ALMANACK
IN THE AMERICAN WEEKLY MAGAZINE with the June 16
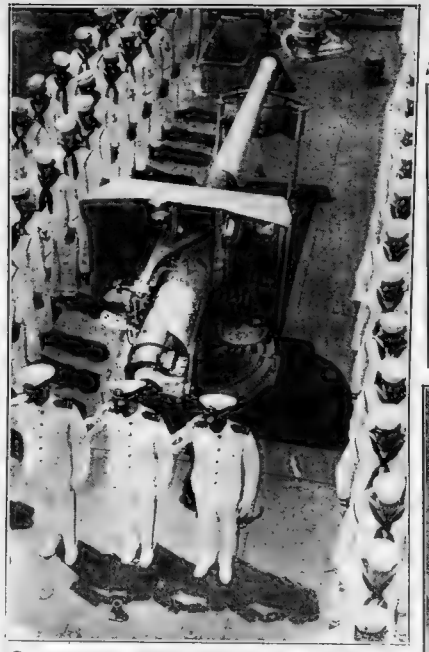
SUNDAY ADVERTISER

HAT-TRACTIVE

Two Models With a Tricky Angle

Fashionable—Two feminine hats that turn masculine heads are these . . . worn by filmland's Rita Johnson. Top is a straw affair that rests jauntily over one eye. Trimming's bright green grosgrain. And below is a two-decker turban of white, accented with red and gold strips. She brings her bangs through the opening and lets the hair fall in curls.



Ceremony—During recommissioning ceremonies recently at U. S. S. William B. Preston naval aircraft tender, Rear Admiral Clark H. Woodward (foreground, ship's officers and crew stand in salute as flag is raised. Scene is at Brooklyn navy yard.

KIWANIS CLUB IN THE SWIM

Summer Comes to Chauncy Lake and Youngsters Are Happy

Wet Fun—Children of Kiwanis Club members have fun at the organization's resort on Chauncy Lake, Westboro . . . as New England becomes the nation's best Summerland.

Fair Flier—Twelve hours' instruction was all Mrs. Dave Morey, wife of former football great at Dartmouth, needed to take her first solo flight . . . and you see her in her plane at East Boston Airport.

Raccoon—Franklin Park Zoo's having trouble keeping the raccoons safe from collegiate coats . . . but Zippy is still on the job, although he'd like to be elsewhere as his reaching arms signify.

From Out of the Past . . . Wheelwrights

Remember?—As when Longfellow wrote of the Village Blacksmith . . . this photo, taken long ago in East Cambridge, brings a nostalgic memory to the oldsters . . . who remember standing in the open doorways to watch the changing of a rim.

Photo Evening American Library

SANDWITCH

Briton in Hollywood

Lucky Life Saver—From . . . recent stage to Hollywood's screen is the route of lovely Elizabeth Earl, 24-year-old Briton . . . shown now in a bathing suit that definitely makes her a natural in filmwise.

BOSTON AMERICAN
ALL THE NEWS AND PICTURES FIT TO PRINT Think American
Talk American
Read American
Buy American
★BE AMERICAN

THE PRESIDENT'S speech this week at Charlottesville made three major pronouncements of policy.

He said all "the material resources of this nation" were to be extended to the Allies.

He said the United States would arm itself for "any emergency and every defense."

He said the accomplishment of these objectives "must be kept clear of obstructions."

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT
Did All One Man Could Do To Prevent This War

The rest of the speech was interesting, and valuable for the record, but relatively unimportant.

It was interesting, for instance, to know for the first time the specific and substantial efforts President Roosevelt had been making to induce Premier Mussolini to keep out of the European war.

It is quite unfortunate, and quite as much to the regret of humanity, as Mr. Roosevelt said, that he did not succeed.

President Roosevelt has clearly done all one man could do, first to prevent this war and second to stop it in its early stages.

The rush of European events, however, was too swift for any sane and reasonable and peaceful voice to be heard; and President Roosevelt was speaking futilely against the thunder, as was the wise and good Pope Pius.

Fortunately, this war will not last forever and some day peace and sanity will return, and then perhaps men and nations will not be so deaf to wise and good leaders and will realize how much better it would have been to have heeded them sooner.

President Roosevelt can well and truly say he used all the influence at his command to save Europe from war.

Now his task is to try to save the United States and the Western Hemisphere from war and, failing in that, to save this part of the world from defeat and conquest.

THE WHOLE STRENGTH and spirit of America should and does support him in this task.

There are and will continue to be differences as to method.

There are no differences as to aims and purposes, and can be none.

Up to a certain point a democracy such as ours can and should freely debate methods and measures.

Once fixed, however, our course of action must govern us all.

We have been by no means unanimous in agreeing with Mr. Roosevelt that all the material resources of the United States should be put at the disposal of the Allies.

But if it is the policy of our government, and the will of a majority of our people, that this should be done, then it should be done completely and whole-heartedly.

We should not deceive ourselves about what this means.

It means we are NOT NEUTRAL, and that we will be for all practical purposes AT WAR, and that eventually we will probably be A BELLIGERENT.

And we should not deceive ourselves about the grim realities of this war if we get into it.

It does not necessarily assure victory for the Allies if we get in. Our whole effort might not save France, perhaps not even England.

But if we think we are compelled and required to make the effort, regardless of results and consequences to our own nation and our own people, why then let none of us hold back from it.

First let us decide democratically what we should and want to do.

FATHER'S DAY, tomorrow, will be the sixteenth and most general observance of its kind in America.

Sons and daughters everywhere will unite to show their affection for "Just Dad," remembering for one day at least that he is the PROVIDER, the one who not only takes the brunt of life's storm but CONCEALS ITS FURY, the one who feels hardship FIRST and HARDEST.

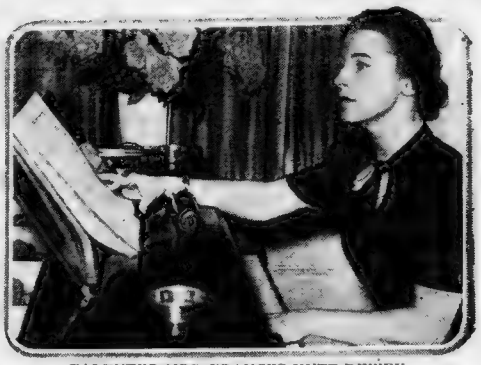
This outpouring of filial devotion is the offspring of a suggestion made thirty years ago in Spokane, Wash., by Mrs. John Bruce Dodd. The meritorious proposal appealed to the Far West. But it was not until 1924 that Boston, New York and other Eastern cities adopted the observance.

However, the fact that we borrowed rather than initiated the custom will in no way detract from the enthusiasm of tomorrow's programs. If anything, we shall buy a better gift and try to do a little more and thus make up for lost time.

On The Side -:- -:- By E. V. DURLING

STATED I had forgotten what a forget-me-not looks like so a charming client has sent me a picture of some forget-me-nots. I do not know the lady, personally, as the saying goes. When I say she is charming I mean she writes charmingly. She says she has a garden on the terrace of her penthouse on Park ave., Manhattan. This paragraph is going to drive a reader I have in Tujunga, Cal., practically batty. All he does is pick on me saying I write only of "trivial" things. "Can you imagine?" he will probably say to his wife "the world is aflame with war and this nit-wit writes an opening paragraph about forget-me-nots."

BESSIE Q. MOTT is an outstanding member of the Executive Woman's Association. Smart girls, these feminine executives. But it is hard to find a man who is happy working for a female boss . . . Frances Hutt Dewey is the wife of the famous district attorney and Presidential candidate. She once sang on Broadway but she met Mr. Dewey when she was singing in a church. Mrs. Dewey is from Sapulpa, Okla. . . . Irving Cohn, the bandmaster, was one of the perpetrators of the song "Yes, We Have No Bananas." The expression furnishing the title of this ditty was first used by Tad Dorgan in his cartoons. The music is reminiscent of Handel's Messiah . . . Tommy Lyman, the perennial cafe entertainer, dares you to name an old song he doesn't know. I thought I had him last night when I requested "Just Because She Made Dem Goo Goo Eyes," but he came through with it.



TALENTED MRS. FRANCES HUTT DEWEY
Met Dynamic Husband While Singing in Church

TALKED to hundreds of Italians all over Italy last Summer and never met one who wanted to go to war on Germany's side. Didn't meet one Italian who didn't like America and the Americans . . . Just saw a man leading a wire-haired terrier and having some difficulty with the animal who insisted upon snarling and barking at a mounted policeman. I had a wire-haired once that was a very quiet little fellow except when he saw a motorcycle cop. Then he went into a terrible rage snarling, growling and showing his teeth at the officer. I didn't get this dog until he was four years old. He wandered out of the nowhere into our house and made himself right at home. I often wondered what there had been in his past life that made him so bitter at motorcycle cops.

ATTENDED a luncheon today, at which only one speech was made. Rest of time was given to entertainers. Great idea. The one speech was the best I have heard in some time. About the Japanese-Chinese situation by Jimmy Young, the American-newspaperman who was jailed in Tokio because he wrote something that displeased the government.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt -:- -:- MY DAY

WASHINGTON, Friday, June 15 —A great friend of mine, Miss Martha Gellhorn, arrived from New York City Thursday afternoon.

After dinner, three of us sat out on the south porch with our eyes fixed on the gleaming whiteness of the Washington monument and talked as everybody else does today of the world in which we find ourselves, and of the preparation we must make in our minds to meet the future.

I was interested to find in the two women with whom I was talking, a greater understanding of the attitude of our young people than one usually discovers in the older generation.

Our great writers and those of us of lesser degree, have told youth how horrible and futile war is. Honest people, whether they are artists or just ordinary individuals, must tell the truth as they see it, and there are few of us today who believe that war is an instrument for good. We know that it calls out in human beings fine qualities, but so does any event requiring great self-sacrifice.

BEING HONEST, we would not want to change our teaching. We hope that youth will always feel that war is a horrible thing, but we know that we have to meet circumstances as they exist and that when there is a war of opposing ideas and it becomes a war of force, there is nothing to do but accept force as a weapon, unless we wish to accept that which submission represents.

The choice is not as yet before us, but we must in our minds prepare to meet it if necessary, and so must all our young people.

I can't blame them for not liking the choice. I can't blame them for trying to find alternatives to it. If you haven't lived at all, or have lived very unsatisfactorily, and no one has been particularly interested in how you have lived, it is a bit ironic to find that you are chided for not wanting to die.

So let us have patience with young or old who find it hard to face the mental preparation necessary to meet today's peculiar conditions. Circumstances and time will force us to ultimate decisions and I have faith that they will be the right ones.

I receive word every day of small groups that are trying to do relief work in different parts of Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Waitstill Sharp, of Massachusetts, under the auspices of the Friends of Czechoslovakia, and co-operating with the Red Cross and other organizations, have just sailed to work among youth and children of France.

Of course, it seems to me that all such groups should be co-ordinated in closer co-operation with the Red Cross, for all available workers and all possible equipment should be directed by a co-ordinating group. I hope experienced workers such as these will realize this necessity and put themselves under the direction of a central organization.

The Campbell Girl

Copr. 1940, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

"It's some girl being murdered over on Court st.—and bring back two ham and cheese on rye."

Duke of Windsor

Broadway Medley

WINDSOR RECOVERS SILVERWARE

By Leonard Lyons

NEW YORK, June 15 — Louise Macy, the fashion editor, returned this week, via Genoa. She was in Paris when the story broke concerning the retirement of the Duke of Windsor. The Duke and his Duchess had left for Biarritz—but then Windsor returned to Paris, alone . . . Miss Macy and her friends therefore discounted the story of his retirement, and felt that he merely had acted as the solicitous husband—escorting his wife from the danger zone, and then returning to his mission . . . But the Duke didn't remain in Paris for long. He went first to his hotel, for his golf bags, and knickers, and then directly to the Guaranty Trust Co. there, and from his safety-vault there, removed the silver ware for use at their Chateau. He returned to Biarritz. His aide is still in Paris.

* * *

PRINCE LICHTENSTEIN, who once induced Ina Claire not to take the leading role in "Rain From Heaven," is reported detained in Finland . . . The Radziwills, cousins of the Polish envoy, Count Jerzy Potocki, are in Poland, reluctant to migrate to this country because of the report made by two of their family who made their first and last visit here in the summer of 1938. As soon as they had disembarked, they took a taxi ride up 5th avenue . . . At 84th St. their cab was stopped by a policeman, who warned them that a man was about to jump from a hotel window . . . That was the John Ward suicide . . . They proceeded to Tony's, in time to participate in a raffle conducted by a cab driver, with phoney money, and they won a photo of Anna Held, of whom they never had heard. The two Radziwills then returned to Poland, vowing America is the craziest place.

INA CLAIRE

* * *

VICTOR MOORE, who now is portraying the innocent, befuddled Senator's role in "Louisiana Purchase," once was invited to play the leading part in Molière's "The Would Be Gentleman." The beloved Moore had confessed an eagerness to play a different type of role. "For 20 years in vaudeville," he explained, "I've been playing that same character—the innocent, vague and timid type—and I'd like a change" . . . "Molière's play will be a definite change," he was advised. "Can I play the character as a sort of a timid man—a shy man," asked Moore . . . "Well, yes. It might be played that way," the producer replied . . . "Can I play him as a sort of a hick-type?" Moore continued . . . "Yes, that's possible," the producer answered . . . "And is it possible to play him as a sort of a Puritan type, and meek?" Moore asked . . . "Yes, that's possible," the producer agreed . . . "There. You see?" was Moore's answer, in rejecting the role. "It's no different."

BOSTON After DARK

By GEORGE HOLLAND

BOB HOPE'S COMING ENGAGEMENT at the Metropolitan was not achieved without a spirited behind-the-scenes "battle of bookers" . . . The RKO-Boston Theater, this corner has learned, was bidding high for the comedian's services at the same time that negotiations were proceeding on the Metropolitan's New York front . . . The Tremont street theater held an "edge" in the friendly conflict for two reasons . . . One was that Mr. Hope is under contract to Paramount, and the Metropolitan is the major first-run house in New England for that studio's output . . . But the other, and deciding basis for the Metropolitan inside track, was personal . . . That theater's booker was an intimate friend of Bob's.

WHILE THE KEITH OFFICE was trading its persuasive power solely on the Hope agent, the Metropolitan representative in New York went directly to the actor who committed himself personally . . . Comedian Hope was informed his agent of his choice . . . And as agents are not averse to appearing a $20,000 a week meal-ticket in these slack days in the variety field, Mr. Hope is opening at the Metropolitan the 28th of the month . . . Of course, there is no certainty that the RKO-Boston will have won the booking in open bidding . . . The background of the Hope engagement is significant, however, because it implies that two Boston movie houses are eyeing the possibilities of expensive personal appearances with much more enthusiasm than in the immediate past . . . (I said you won't catch us predicting that "vaudeville is coming back.")

ONCE OVER LIGHTLY: Willard Alexander has taken Vaughn Monroe and the Monroe band under the theatrical wing . . . As Mr. Alexander is the top man of the William Morris office department of bands, the handsome Mr. Monroe may be conceded a chance at the bigtime (and big money) . . . The Vaughn unit has been augmented already by enough instruments to make it a 13-piece unit . . . A new recording contract has been made with Bluebird . . . But the engagement at Sellers Ten Acres will continue . . . The last bit of concentrated promotion accomplished by Mr. Alexander and the Morris office was the development and exploitation of the Will Bradley band which made its debut in Boston a year ago.

JERRY COOPER'S ORCHESTRA has brought a rush of patronage to the famous old Mansion House, one of the oldest roadhouse landmarks in the Bay State . . . Although we await generally an analysis from the stalwart Michael McNamee, the reformed legislator who was always a newspaperman at heart when a situation arose in connection with the Boston water department—Michael was unavailable as we went to press . . . Therefore we submit forthwith what may safely be termed "resentment" among South End residents of alleged collection tactics of the aforementioned city department.

SOUTH ENDERS ARE CHARGING that the water department chooses such awkward times as the period immediately preceding Christmas and the eve of the advent of summer to stage a collection "drive" . . . Faced

Continued on Page 24, Column 3

Hollywood Today

FRANK MORGAN GETS CHARACTER ROLE

By Harriet Parsons

Frank Morgan

Hoch-Hitting for Louella O. Parsons, Who Is on Vacation

HOLLYWOOD, June 15—Frank Morgan's versatility is no surprise to those who remember him in the theater, but it may come as a revelation to movie fans. With the exceptions Frank's screen roles have been tailored to suit his aptitude for dizzy comedy. But one of these exceptions, the recently-previewed "Mortal Storm," in which he plays a highly dramatic role, has convinced M-G-M that Frank's histrionic abilities deserve more respectful attention. Consequently he'll have another serious character role as the unscrupulous politician in Fanny Hurst's "Great Laughter." Part won't have the sympathy of the tragic professor role in "Mortal Storm" but is equally dramatic.

Hope Metro doesn't go overboard about this thing and divorce Frank from comedy entirely. I'd hate not to see any more of the inimitable Morgan buffoonery.

* * *

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD: Will Orson Welles and Dolores Del Rio attended the [illegible] party Lucille [illegible] for them at [illegible] of Lily [illegible] Welles is [illegible] Broadway [illegible] the hot [illegible] Leaders like the Welles and [illegible] Jackie's latest [illegible] at the Casa Manana where [illegible] in a party with his cute Lily [illegible] James Rogers, Buddy Pepper (pianist in Jackie's [illegible] and Peola Granville; Apropos of the Casa Manana, I got a great kick out of meeting Patty, Lucille and Maxine, the socko singing Andrew Sisters who are doing terrific business at the dance spot. They start their Universal picture with the Ritz Brothers Monday and tell some plotous tales about makeup and wardrobe tests and the business of being glamorized.

MARY CARLISLE

* * *

MARY CARLISLE and Jimmy Dunn open their F. A. tour in Chicago July 5; don't believe it when you read that Wendy Barrie confirms her interest in Georges Herascu but denies she's seeing Lee Sterling. As reported here, she's still seeing Lee in spite of those daily phone calls from Herascu, and was at the Bev Tropics with him just t'other night; Greg Bautzer got in Wednesday from New York. Dottie Lamour not only met on at the plane but accompanied him to a business meeting of the Hollywood Bar Association and jetted of proceedings with a few songs; the Bob Taylors and the Jack Bennys seem to be going steady. They were together again at Earl Carroll's.

TWO-MINUTE STORY

"NOTHING DOING," Travers said for the tenth time and took a defiant stand in front of the window. His wife wilted in despair behind him and even at that, she could look over his head and see the people on the street.

"I've been a worm long enough," Travers continued, inwardly marvelling at the snap in his tone. "It took a lot of headwork to rake in that dollar-fifty at the poker game last night and I'll be darned if I give it to you for a new hat!"

"It's such a sweet little hat," his wife said wistfully. "And it only costs a dollar and forty-nine cents. Won't you let me have the money, dear? Please? Darling?"

"NONE OF THAT," said Travers, wary of the sugar in his wife's voice. He turned, arms folded at his breast and faced her.

"You might have tripped me up with that honey when I was a worm," he told her, "but I ain't a worm any longer. I'm keeping the buck fifty!"

"That's your final word?" His wife demanded, her face a mask for battle.

She slipped over to the mantle above the fireplace and put out an arm for the vase.

"Absolutely!" Travers shouted and intercepted her arm before it got to the vase. He carefully placed it out of reach.

"Get out in the kitchen and get my supper!" He roared, his eyes blazing.

His wife stood dumbfounded before his intense gaze. Finally, she lowered her eyes and moved slowly out of the room.

Travers waited until he heard the sputtering of something frying on the stove.

"There!" He said to himself and sat down to his evening paper.

"WHOOSH!" Travers said and sat up in bed with a start. The room was pitch dark. His alarm clock told him it was four in the morning. Stealthily, he got out of his bed and tip-toed to where his trousers were slung over a chair. He put a hand in the right pocket.

Even before his exploring fingers felt the solitary penny . . . the balance of his poker winnings . . . he knew that his wife had won again.

"Still a worm," he mused, crestfallen, and went back to bed.

The writer of this story, a resident of Attleboro, receives five dollars.

LISTEN, WORLD! By Elsie Robinson

WAITING, hour after hour, in front of the radio. Waiting . . . dreading the news. Wondering what will come next.

But whatever comes next, you and I must live each hour as it passes. Whatever happens to England or France—that hour is our first duty. That hour—and what we do with it.

—Do you know how to live an hour? Do you know how to get the most out of it, in beauty and strength and wisdom?

I didn't. For years I raced through life . . . skimming its surface . . . taking a quick, fiery glimpse of its risks and adventures . . . gulping it all down in stupid, excited haste. And only when the hair began to gray above my ears, did I realize that you couldn't get the real flavor of life by gulping. You had to take things slowly . . . quietly . . . with an open heart.

RECENTLY I ran across this passage by gentle David Grayson in his "Adventures in Solitude."

"Many times in my life I have repeated Rodin's saying that 'slowness is beauty.' To read slowly, to feel slowly and deeply: what enrichment!

"In the past I have been so often greedy. I have gobbled down books. I have gobbled down work—I have even gobbled down my friends!—and indeed had a kind of enjoyment of all of them.

"But rarely have I tasted the last flavor of anything, the final exquisite sense of personality of spirit that secretes itself in every work that merits serious attention, in every human being at all worth knowing."

"To feel slowly and deeply—there's a whole philosophy of life."

TAKE YOURSELF." Have you ever known a sunset? Yes, you've glimpsed a flurry of gold and crimson as you sped by in your car, or sat with your Best Girl. But have you ever watched and waited quietly until the full glory of that sunset became a part of your own soul . . . until its gold and crimson rested in your own life?

We've had an unwholesome training, we Americans. We've been trained to expect speedy results . . . to despise slow and laborious methods.

But life never yields its richest, truest harvest to speedsters.

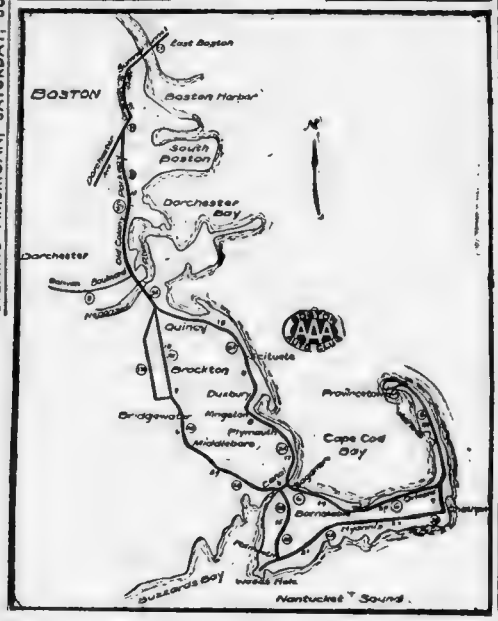
Your soul must be still before it can receive the seeds of beauty.

(Copyright by King Features Synd., Inc.)

Motor and Outing News

By J. LEO SUGRUE, Automobile Editor

Interesting 320-Mile Cape Trip



THOMAS P. FULLHAM, travel counsellor for the Boston Auto Club and J. Leo Sugrue, American Automobile Editor, tested this 320-mile trip in the 1940 Chevrolet De Luxe Town Sedan (below). They discovered avoiding the main highways added interest.

HISTORIC SPOTS ON CAPE TOUR

The Boston Evening American's fourth tested road trip approximates 320 miles of driving.

Thomas P. Fullham, travel counselor of the Boston Auto Club, was our test pilot and headed the 1940 Cheviolet DeLuxe Town Sedan south from Boston on Old Colony Parkway across the Neponset river to Quincy.

We left 3A and followed markers along Jerusalem road, the show place of the South Shore. Then we hit 3A to south of Greenbush and followed 3A and 3 through Plymouth to Sagamore at Cape Cod Canal, No. 6 out to Provincetown and return to Orleans.

Then on No. 28 to Chatham around the heel of the Cape to Falmouth and again crossed the Canal at Buzzards Bay and continued north on 28 around Middleboro to West Bridgewater, then followed the short cut 106 to route 138 and returned to Boston.

2-DAY TOUR

Two full days, or longer should be spent in exploring the charms of our own Cape Cod, a storied land full of contrasting natural beauty. Sometimes it is referred to as the "Last Frontier of the East" still unspoiled after three centuries which modern highways, good hotels, theaters, and smart shops have intermixed with quiet little inns, old fashioned villages and ancient landmarks.

Our trip to the Cape was taken with the spirit of adventure, and while we have both been there a number of times during the past years we always felt that we had to arrive at a certain spot at some set time; as a result we had not seen the Cape at all. We made it a practice of taking all side roads, and in a short time began to see just what we had been missing on our former visits.

QUAINT SETTINGS

Interesting fishermen's shanties, sand dunes, an old Indian church, small fleets of fishing boats, an old lighthouse, an out-door studio by the sea or on an old pier. Fishermen raking oysters from the bay, quiet little towns seemingly from another age, a sandy beach or rocky headland, one of the Cape's 276 lakes.

A picturesque cranberry bog and a land locked little harbor with its variety of sail boats, speed boats and other small craft were among the rewards received for our efforts in leaving the main highways.

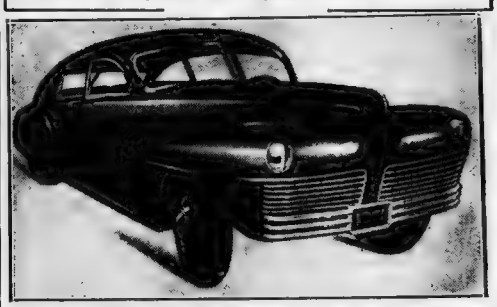
We also found a number of outstanding points of interest and will list only a few of the highlights as we found that half the fun of this trip were the discoveries we made.

HOME OF PRESIDENTS

Quincy, birthplace of two Presidents as well as a number of other important figures in American history.

Plymouth Rock on which the Pilgrims first stepped in 1620. Buriel Hill, site of old fort built in 1621 and Watchtower built in 1643, as well as the John Hancock house in 1667, the Harlow house, 1677, and the Registry house with its early American records of the Colony are among the highlights to be noted in Plymouth.

Nash Stylist Designs New Front



NEW FRONT BUMPER TREATMENT, developed experimentally by George W. Walker, widely known Detroit industrial stylist and designer of the Nash car, who believes that conventional design detracts from rather than enhances the styled beauty of the modern motor car.

AUTO PRODUCTION TO BE KEPT AT NORMAL LEVEL

DETROIT, June 15—Normal production of cars and trucks for civilian consumption will very likely be continued in spite of the national defense program, declared C. E. Wilson, acting president of General Motors immediately upon assuming leadership of the corporation during the absence of William S. Knudsen, president who has gone to Washington.

Wilson stated that the magnitude of the defense program would of course determine the future operations of industry in this country. He said General Motors is ready and glad to participate in any activity that the government may allocate to it, but that he hoped that such work would be limited to building things on wheels.

GREATER VOLUME

The new acting president stated that, while defense program demands may be of greater volume than anticipated, he did not feel that requirements would entail major additions to the present working staff of 220,000 men and women now on G. M. payroll.

Present defense demands he said would not interfere with production of 1941 models and so far there is no indication of interference with plans for new models for 1942. The corporation at present is basing its plans for the remainder of this year and next on the expectation of a normal continuation of sales during that period.

LESS SENSITIVE

Under present circumstances he said, it would be difficult to make any predictions but he felt that the car buying public is less sensitive to war talk than are the stock markets. In substantation of this statement he pointed out that car sales in Canada, which has been at war since last September, were 15 per cent higher in May this year than in May a year ago.

Fay Co. Wins Sales Awards

The C. E. Fay Co., Chrysler and Plymouth distributors, are the recipient of awards for recent sales activities. The Fay Co. has just celebrated its 23d anniversary in the automobile business, and the trophies were accepted by Allen M. Fay, president, and C. Norman Fay, vice-president.

April was known as the anniversary month throughout the United States for all Chrysler dealers and distributors and the Fay company qualified for a beautiful console radio and Victrola by doubling their Chrysler retail deliveries over the month of April, 1939. The radio was presented by M. T. Powers, New England regional manager for the Chrysler Sales Corp.

They won in addition the State Award as the largest Plymouth retailer not only in the City of Boston but also in the State of Massachusetts for the year 1939 and in recognition of this achievement were presented with a magnificent cup from the Plymouth Motor Corporation by W. H. Sauerbeck who is the Plymouth special representative for New England, who also presented them with a handsomely engraved plaque significent of the winner of the award to the largest Plymouth retailer in Boston in 1939.

C. S. Jenney Lays Stress On Use of Right Oil

Friction produces heat and when the heat of friction and burning gasoline are added to an already high outdoor temperature, then things get pretty hot in a car engine.

We begin to see boiling radiators here and there, but the careful motorist will not wait until his radiator boils before taking precautions to have his motor in good shape.

Speaking in the offices of the Jenney Manufacturing Co., C. S. Jenney, president, said:

"There's many a motor that formerly ran too hot but had its troubles cured by the proper attention to the right oil and clean oil passageways.

"To clean out the clogging deposits of gum and sludge from oil passageways by hand is a tedious process involving tearing down an engine at considerable expense. That's why," said Mr. Jenney, "we lay so much stress on the gum solvent and sludge inhibiting properties of Jenney Solvenoil Motor Oil. These two characteristics of the oil have saved many an owner considerable annoyance and big cash outlay."

50 PROTEST PARKING PLAN

The Boston Board of Appeal heard protests from 50 Dorchester residents against a proposal to change zoning restrictions to permit construction of free public parking spaces at 38 Henderson st., and at 1 Lenoxdale ave.

Car and Truck Sales Higher

DETROIT, June 15—Factory sales of passenger cars and trucks totaled 404,700 units in May, it was estimated today by the Automobile Manufacturers Association.

The May production raised the total for the first five months of 1940 to 2,168,178 units, 25 per cent higher than the corresponding period of 1939.

Buick Sales Soar All Over Country

Consistent retail demand in every section of the country was reflected in sales reported today by W. F. Hufstader, Buick general sales manager.

The executive announced that domestic deliveries of Buick motor cars during May totaled 23,572 units, a 32 per cent increase over last year, while the company entered June with nearly 5000 unfilled orders on hand.

Hupp's New Models Shipped to Dealers

DETROIT, June 15—The first Hupp Skylark models have come off the line and been shipped to dealers, J. Walter Drake, president of the Hupp Motor Car Corp., announced today.

He also officially disclosed for the first time that a manufacturing contract has been entered into between the Hupp Motor Car Corp. and the Graham-Paige Motors Corp. under the terms of which the Hupp Skylark is being assembled in the Graham plant—one of the most modern and efficient in the industry.

Fays Win Awards on 23d Birthday

FAYS WIN AWARDS from Chrysler-Plymouth factory (see story above). Left to right: W. H. Sauerbeck, Allen M. Fay, C. Norman Fay and M. T. Powers.

SECRET AGENT X-9

WE'VE GOT TO GET OUT OF THE AIRPORT WITH THIS TRUNK WITH THE G-MAN IN IT, GRANDMA! OH, PORTER!
HE'S QUIET, NOW—PROBABLY SUFFOCATED! HEE! HEE!

The G-Man Gives Bill a Stand-Up

ANNOUNCEMENTS

9—Funeral Directors

J. S. Waterman & Sons
Funeral Directors
497 Commonwealth Ave., Boston

10—Monuments

MONUMENTS—At a Saving
THOS. J. CRAIG, GRanite 1681
GENERAL ANT. GUNSET, MASS.
Write for Designs and Prices
Large Stock on Hand—Open Sat. Afternoon Sundays and Evenings Under Lights

14—Church Notices

THE FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST The Mother Church
Falmouth, Norway and St. Paul Sts., Boston. Sunday Services at 10:45 A.M. and 7:30 P.M. Sunday School at 10:45 A. M. Subject of Lesson-Sermon:
"God the Preserver of Man"
Wednesday eve. meetings at 7:30 include testimonies of Christian Science healing.

15—Lost and Found

LOST Black cocker spaniel bitch with tan under body. Name "Bonnie". Dog is lame, needs treatment. Reward for immediate information or return to E. S. Smith, 391 Beacon St., Boston.

18—Special Notices

PILES! PILES! PILES!
Get relief from piles, rectal irritations, fistulas with Cheney's Medicated Suppositories; Cheney's Suppositories melt at body temperature and absorb. No fuss, no muss; hundreds of unsolicited testimonials prove their remedy must be good; box of 12, 35c; mailed for 45c. G. S. CHENEY CO., 15 Union St., Boston.

28—Professional Services

RUPTURE! ASK FOR CIRCULAR
Our TRUSS is EASY and SURE TO HOLD. No undesirable elastic belts. NO rigid steel. POWERS & JOHNSON, 100 Boylston St., Boston, Room 905. Established 40 years. HAN. 1426.

29—Medical

PROSTATE KIDNEY—BLOOD CHRONIC DISEASES
C. B. CORNER, M. D., 32 Boylston St. Hours 9-8.

X-RAY Treatment. Daniel J. Walsh, M. D., 18 Boylston St., Boston.

1—Legal

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Office of District Supervisor, Alcohol Tax Unit, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Boston, Massachusetts. Date of first publication June 15, 1940. Notice is hereby given that the following seizure was made for violation of the Internal Revenue Laws, to wit: Section 2806 (f) Internal Revenue Code: On May 24, 1940, in Middlesex County, 157 gallons of alcohol, 19 100-lb. bags sugar, 2 General Electric motors with pumps, ½ and ¾ h. p. respectively. Any person claiming an interest in said property must appear at the Office of Investigator in Charge, Alcohol Tax Unit, 918 Post Office Bldg., Boston, Mass., and file claim and cost bond as provided by Section 3724, Internal Revenue Code, on or before July 15, 1940, otherwise the property will be disposed of according to law. Sidney Sherwood.

2—Bids and Proposals

U. S. ENGINEER OFFICE, 3rd floor, Park Square Bldg., Boston, Mass.—Sealed Bids will be received until 11:00 A. M., E.D.S.T., July 2, 1940, for dredging approximately 86,600 cubic yards, place measurement, of material and removing two steel sheet piling cylinders from the Annisquam River, Mass.; Invitation No. 178-40-12. Further information upon application.

RENTALS

101—Hotels

HOTEL ESSEX
OPPOSITE SOUTH STATION
400 OUTSIDE ROOMS
SPECIAL WEEKLY RATES $9.00 UP
Daily rates $1.50 to $3. None higher

93—Moving—Trucking—Storage

FURNITURE moved into a lic., bonded storage Worked and insured; pay in Oct. Highlands 5496

Other Classified Ads on Page 27

AUTOMOTIVE

200—Automobiles For Sale

AUTOMOTIVE

200—Automobiles For Sale

AUTOMOTIVE

200—Automobiles For Sale

AUTOMOTIVE

200—Automobiles For Sale

We're BLASTING USED CAR PRICES

BUICK '37-61	4 Dr. Tr. Sedan 5 wheels, hydr. Brakes and Heater, Stock No. 580	$399
NASH '37	LAFAYETTE 6 Cyl. 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan. Heater and other extras, only	$299
BUICK '36-41	4 Door Touring Sedan. Radio and Heater	$349
OLDS. '39-70	DeLuxe 6 Cyl., 4 Dr. Tr. Sedan. Radio and Heater, Sun Tan Tint	$599

'38 Buick 81; 4-Dr. 6-W. R.&H. $849 | '37 Buick 81; 4-Dr. Sp. Sed. R.&H. $789
'39 Buick 46-S; Club Cpe., R.&H. 749 | '36 Buick 46 S; Opera Cpe. R.&H. 519
'39 Dodge 4-Dr. Tr. Sed. R.&H. 619 | '36 Terraplane 2-Dr. Tr. Sedan 289
'38 Olds 6; 4-Dr. Tr. Sed., Htr. 499 | '35 Ford Tudor Sedan 169
'37 Buick 46; 4-Dr. Tr. Sed., R.&H. 469 | '36 Pierce Arrow 4-Dr. 6-W. Sed. 799
'33 Buick 6-5; 6-W. 4-Dr. Sed. Htr. 149 | '37 Dodge R. S. Coupe, 12,000 mil. 399

ULLIAN'S BUICK 980 BROADWAY CHELSEA
CHE. 2970 — OPEN EVERY EVENING TILL 10

Save With ED BURNHAM

Dodge 4 Dr. Sedan	$75
Chev. 2 Dr.	150
Chev. 4 Dr.	95
Plymouth 4 Dr.	195
Packard 4 Dr.	425

Members, all prices & makes.

BURNHAM MOTORS
1339 Main St., Waltham
Authorized PACKARD DEALER

Porter Sq. Chevrolet
BEST TRUCK BUYS IN BOSTON

'38 Dodge Ton Panel used very little	$565
'38 Chevrolet ½-Ton Panel	395
'37 Chev. 1½ ton dual 157" wb. & tank	265
'38 Dodge Sedan Delivery	225
'37 Ford ½-Ton Canopy	195

2035 Mass. Ave. KIRkland 4400

CAMBRIDGE

'36 Plymouth De Luxe Sed.
Fully equipped with trunk, etc. Raven black finish. Excellent tires and upholstery. Driven by one owner only 58,000 miles. Definitely the cleanest used car in the market.
PRICE $295
Call Mr. Prescott at Somerset 8470 for demonstration. Will trade and finance terms.

OLDSMOBILE $565
'38—2-Dr. Sedan—one owner—Beautiful light blue finish—immaculately clean—actually driven 23,000 miles. Heater and defroster—don't miss this offer—you hear of this kind but seldom find 'em.
THIBAULT BROS., Inc.
"The home of better used cars."
241 Concord Ave., Cambridge. Kir 1369

'37 Packard 120 Conv. Coupe
Equipped with radio and heater, 8 brand new General cord tires with puncture proof tubes. For immediate sale will sacrifice, can be seen any time, call MAIden 6382-M.

'37 PONTIAC COUPE $375
De Luxe 6. Has radio and heater. Full new car guarantee. Terms and trade. GARAGE, 380 Washington St., Brighton. ALG. 7780.

'36 Pontiac 2-Door. $257
$67 down—$14.97 mo. Hayward Motors, Inc., 3249 Boylston St., Boston. CAN. 5166.

DODGE '35 4-Door. Sedan. 6 w. Very nice. Priced at $187. 252 B'way, Camb. ELI. 8322.

'35 Dodge 2-D. Trk. $150
963 Comm. Ave., Boston. Alg. 9541.

'39 Chev. 4-Dr. Mas. $425
963 Comm. Ave., Boston. Alg. 9541.

'34 Bch. Wag.-Glass. $215
963 Comm. Ave., Boston. Alg. 9541.

'37 Chev. 4-Dr. Mas. $285
963 Comm. Ave., Boston. Alg. 9541.

'34 Plym. 4-Dr. Sed. $110
963 Comm. Ave., Boston. Alg. 9541.

Need Money? Don't Ask Friends. Read the Money to Loan Ads in the Classified Section.

MALDEN CADILLAC USED CAR SPECIALS

'38 Dodge 5-Pass. Sedan	$395
'36 Olds. 5-Pass. Tudor Sedan	295
'37 Packard Tr. Sed., R. & H.	595
'39 Chrysler 6 Tr. Sedan	895
'37 Olds. 8 Fordor Tr. Sed., R. & H.	595
'37 Chrysler 6 4-Door Tr. Sedan	575
'36 Buick 4-Dr. Tr. Sedan, heater	375
'35 Packard	395
'33 Ford Sedans, 5 to choose from, each	65

100 Others to Choose From
All Makes and Models.
140 PERRY STREET, MALDEN
MALDEN 3400

'38 WILLYS 4-DOOR SEDAN	$450
'38 FORD 2-DOOR TRUNK SEDAN	390
'34 CHEVROLET COACH	75
'37 WILLYS 4-DOOR SEDAN	495
'39 WILLYS 4-DOOR SEDAN	495
'36 FORD 2-DOOR TRUNK SEDAN	225
LATE FORD STATION WAGON	225

MYEROW BROS. CO., 15 Berkeley St. HAN. 7565

DODGE '36 4-DR. TOUR. SED. Radio, Heater. Like new. 30 day guarantee. Small down payment or your car in trade. 3 to choose from. 780 Beacon St., Newton Centre. Cen. 0097

'36 FORD TUDORS	$190
'37 FORD TUDORS	244
'30 OLDS M. S. COUPE	145

580 OTHERS—30 TRUCKS, $10 to $2000. Any Terms. OAKLEY MOTORS, Inc., 1510 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass. GAR. 1100

WILL SACRIFICE '37 CHEVROLET 4-DOOR SEDAN, LIKE NEW. CAR IN STORAGE ALL WINTER. $40 DOWN, SMALL MONTHLY PAYMENTS. CAN BE SEEN AT 15 BERKELEY ST., Boston.

'38 Ford D. L. Phaeton $495
Hoover Motors Park Sq. Motor Mart Hub. 2100. Open Eves.

FORD '34 4-Dr. Sedan. Must see to appreciate. 132 B'way, Camb. ELI. 8122. $91

'37 Chrysler Cabriolet, $395. Radio, heater and overdrive. 880 Commonwealth Ave. ASh. 9588. Open Eve.

DUNENBERG Sp. Sed. Lasts most classic. ROLLS ROYCE Phaeton. Very sporty. 920 Mass. Ave. Box. CAM. 1690

'35 FORD 5-PASS. SEDAN
A real buy. Bowman Pontiac, 974 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. TRO 4768 $99

'34 PONTIAC 4-Dr. sedan, $95. Fleetwood Motors, 1305 Pleasant St., E. Wey. Wey 2193.

SAVE MONEY AT JORDAN PLACE MOTORS, 132 Broadway, Cambridge (1 Minute from Kendall Square). Studebaker Sales and Service

1937 DODGE trunk sedan, black, original finish, low mileage, R. & H., mechanically o.k. Privately owned. Mystic 7016.

'33 CHEV. panel truck $75. Fleetwood Motors, 1305 Pleasant St., E. Wey. Wey 2193.

'34 Plymouth De Luxe Sport Coupe, Radio and heater $125
Mr. Richards, Jackson Chev. GAR. 2500

Auto Dealers Quick dependable financing service $10 down, 20 mos. LIB. 0965

'37 Plymouth 4-Dr. Tr. Sedan $295. LYPRESS MOTORS, 516 Boylston St., Brookline. Lon. 1737

'37 FORD 1½-Ton Dump, excellent shape. $495. Russell Burnell, Inc. SOM. 7600

'34 Ford Sedan, Harold L. O'Neil, 17 Granite Ave. COL. 4700 $95

'35 FORD 4-Dr. Sed. Radio, htr., w. s., tires. 130 B'way, Somerville. Som. 3700 $175

'37 Graham 8 3 Coupe, Daniel Mc-Devitt 1700 Center St. Par. 7600 $319

1940 Pontiac bed $100 down $30 mo. 280 Wash St. Brighton Alg. 1780

WAR ON PRICES

This is your opportunity to buy a thoroughly reconditioned and guaranteed used car at rock bottom—far below market prices. BUT these are all clean cars and should not be compared with lower prices in the same makes and models. Most have radios and heaters.

'39 Pontiac Club Coupe	$675	'36 Pontiac 4-Door Tr. (5)	$295
'39 Olds 2-Door Tr.	595	'36 Pontiac 2-Door Tr. (3)	295
'39 Mercury 2-Door Tr.	595	'36 Dodge 4-Door Tr.	325
'39 Pontiac 2-Door Tr. (2)	675	'36 Olds 2-Door Tr.	295
'38 Pontiac 4-Door Tr. (4)	525	'36 Plymouth 2-Door Tr. (2)	225
'38 Pontiac 2-Door Tr. (5)	495	'36 Chev. Deluxe 4-Door Tr. (2)	295
'38 Chev. Deluxe 4-Door Tr.	495	'36 Chev. Delux 2-Door Tr. (2)	295
'38 Plymouth Deluxe 4-Door Tr.	475	'36 Chev. Delux 4-Door	295
'37 Pontiac 4-Door Tr. (4)	425	'36 Chev. Delux Sport Coupe	295
'37 Pontiac 2-Door Tr. (3)	395	'36 Ford Delux 4-Door Tr.	275
'37 Packard 4-Door Tr.	395	'36 Olds 4-Door Tr.	325
'37 Dodge 4-Door Tr.	435	'35 Pontiac 2-Door Tr. (2)	195
'37 Ford Tudor	175	'35 Chev. 4-Dr. Sedan	175
'37 Ford Coupe	250	'35 Ford Tudor	65

BLUE HILL PONTIAC, Inc. 1220 Blue Hill Ave., Dorc. GUN. 1300. Open Eves.
E. J. DELANEY, President E. F. GOVELL, Manager

AS LOW AS $10 DOWN
1940 DE SOTO—PLYMOUTH
De Luxe 4 Dr. Tr. Sedans. Company Officials' cars. Radios, heaters, etc. $150-$250 Off list. New car gear.
39 DESOTO Custom 4-Dr. Tr. Sedan. $795
Radio, heater and overdrive
'37 PLYMOUTH 5-Pass. Trunk Sedan $350
'38 PLYMOUTH 5-Pass. Trunk Sedan 495
'37 DESOTO Custom Sed. Broad and Gear. 445
'34 CHRYSLER 4-Door Sedan 75
5 DAY FREE DRIVING TRIAL
PRINCETON-SOMERVILLE
Cor. No. Artery & Wash. St. Som. 8787
ALWAYS OPEN

Vacation Specials

'38 Hudson Terr., "91", black	$475
'37 Hudson Terr., 3 to choose	375
'35 Terr., 4 door, good tires	185
'34 Ford conv. coupe	135

Pleasant Motors
1305 Pleasant St., E. Weymouth
Authorized Hudson dealers. Wey. 1932

Repossessed '36 Olds Sedan, R. & H., inside balance $216. 1070 Pkwy. Everett.

Repossessed '36 Plymouth 4-Door Sedan. Cash or $183. 1070 Parkway, Everett.

'35 CHEVROLET 2-DOOR SEDAN, CHEC. SEA CHEV. 950 B'WAY, CHE. 1880. $189

'37 FORD 4-DOOR $295
HOOVER MOTORS, Motor Mart Hub. 2100

201—Trucks For Sale

INTERNATIONAL

USED TRUCK CLEARANCE VALUES
'38 International D 35, 161" wheelbase, chassis and cab, like new; 2 to choose from.
International 3½-Ton Dump
'39 Chevrolet 1½-Ton Panel
'39 Chevrolet 1½-Ton Rack
'38 Chevrolet 1½-Ton Pickup
'38 Dodge ½-Ton Panel
'36 GMC ½-Ton Panel
'37 Ford 1½-Ton Dump
These trucks have been thoroughly reconditioned in our service dept. and are ready for work.
Many others to choose from.
OPEN ALL DAY MONDAY
We do our own financing.
INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER CO.
61 North Beacon St. Allston
Stadium 1802

Somerville Buick INC.
Where Customers Send Their Friends

'38 DODGE COUPE ... $395
It has been reconditioned to run smooth by and is as clean as new throughout

'36 PACKARD SEDAN .. $295
4 door car, large luggage compartment. Equipped with white wall tires and many extras. Car is spotless.

'36 BUICK "41" Sedan .. $295
4 door touring job. Seat covers and many extras. You won't find a cleaner one around. We know you to see you drive it before you buy

'36 FORD Sport Coupe $175
Rumble seat, beautiful gunmetal finish. Don't be misled by our low price for a nice one

'36 CHEVROLET Coach $175
Brand new steam slip covers. Motor tune and finish excellent. It runs just long at this low price

'35 OLDS. 6; Town Sed. $195
5-pass., 2 door. Large built in trunk. Almost new tires. Car reflects the best of care from original owner.

New BUICKS Used
$50 to $1000 SEE US BEFORE YOU BUY EITHER

111 FELLSWAY
SOMERVILLE SOM. 1515

'39 MERCURY SEDAN, Radio, htr., etc. Must sell. Mr. ATAMIAN, SOM. 1519 $647

THIS IS NOT A BANK BUT YOU SAVE MONEY. RADIAN BROS., 407 Prospect St., Camb. KI 0440.

STATION WAGON, 1937 FORD, 1236 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. TRO 0460 $425

Packard 1937 De Luxe 6 Sedan. Like new, nearly new, terms $ $315

202—Automobiles Wanted

SPOT CASH HIGHEST PRICES PAID. SEE US BEFORE SELLING. BRILLIANTS 192 Broadway, Somerville. SOM. 2480

CASH FOR YOUR CAR
MYEROW BROS. CO. 15 Berkeley St. HAN. 7565

MORE FOR YOUR CAR THAN $100 MORE LAR. 0567 CASH

CARS WANTED FOR CASH. Highest Prices Paid. 1241 Wash. St., Brighton. ALG. 7780.

209—Automobile Insurance

$10 Down 6 months to pay. No Interest. 81 Broadway, Somerville. SOM. 2480

BLONDIE — "Yes, My Darling Daughter!"

BLONDIE—IT'S ELEVEN O'CLOCK AND DAISY'S NOT HOME YET
BOO-HOO MAYBE SHE ELOPED WITH BO-BO
BO-BO, THIS IS A FINE TIME OF NIGHT TO BRING DAISY HOME!! DON'T EVER COME AROUND HERE AGAIN!!
THIS YOUNGER GENERATION!
6-15

Three Plus One

By Leora Wright Walters

LOOKING critically at the niece she had met only an hour before at the Union Station, plump, graying Aunt Alice remarked, "Thanks to Jim Bannister, Myra, the courts have awarded you a hundred and sixty-two thousand dollars. Yet, you look more as if you had just drawn a kidnaper's sentence. You're utterly miserable about the whole thing. Good heavens, girl! What happened to you out West?"

Still in her plainly-tailored traveling suit, Myra Clark stood looking out of the window of her aunt's living room. There was a threat of moisture in her dark eyes as she replied, "That's just it, Aunt Alice . . . It's thanks to Jim Bannister. For two years he's battled this case of mine through the courts to beat a rich old thief who thought he could steal Dad's patents. Jim has put up court costs himself, has slaved and skimped and battled . . . for me."

"Well, he's won," snapped Aunt Alice impatiently. "He'll get a nice slice of money out of it. Besides, he'd have fought to the last ditch for you, anyhow. He loves you that much."

Myra answered, "Jim's done all this because he loves me, because he still thinks I love him. That's the wretched part of it. There's a young artist out in New Mexico where I've been teaching school. And I . . ." Myra choked a little.

"Oh, gosh!" the momentum of Aunt Alice's rocking chair increased as she patted plump hands together. "And you love the artist. . . . Hm! So that's why the flame of glorious victory has turned to ashes . . . What are you going to tell Jim Bannister when he comes over this evening? And with that magnificent check signed by skinflint Sutherland, the losing defendant?"

"What am I going to tell Jim?" said Myra. "I've asked myself that same question a thousand times during the trip back here . . . What can I tell a loyal man who's fought as hard for me as Jim has? I can't let him down. I—I just can't."

"Well, you can trot upstairs and dry your pretty eyes and change your clothes," said Aunt Alice.

Myra seemed glad to flee this room where her aunt, rocking more furiously than ever, still patted plump hands together. Eventually, however, the momentum of the rocker slackened, stopped entirely. Then Aunt Alice grumbled, "Love!" And went out to the telephone in the hall.

When Jim Bannister, tall, wide of shoulder, brown-haired, called at Aunt Alice's ample and tree-shaded home that evening, he found Myra waiting for him, a bit tensely perhaps, in the living room. Gray eyes sparkling, and with the flush of victory on his strong face Jim caught Myra's outstretched hands and whooped:

"Hi, beautiful client of mine!"

"Jim" Myra couldn't keep her voice on even keel. "How does it feel to—to be the conquering hero?" She expected him to sweep her into his arms, but he didn't.

A PROUD GIRL

Reaching in his pocket, he said, "Here! Feel this check of old Sutherland's. And did the old boy squirm and sputter when he handed it to me in person. Said we'd ruined him, you and I, Myra girl. Well, I guess we have, at that. Hah! His gorgeous blonde daughter, Sibyl, was there, too. And did she speak unkind words to me about my legal tactics!"

"Sibyl? Oh, yes." Myra's dark head nodded. "You and I used to carry our lunch to high school, Jim. But not high-headed little Sibyl. A chauffeur-driven car always called for Sibyl."

Jim Bannister's strong jaw tightened as he said, "High and mighty and proud as the Queen of Sheba—that was Sibyl. And always too good to dance with me at the high school flings. And later, when I encountered her at a few college proms, she ignored me like I was wearing a smallpox rash instead of a tuxedo I couldn't afford. And did that burn me! Maybe because I've always thought she was the most glamorous thing that ever wore expensive gowns."

"You—have?" said Myra, a bit breathlessly.

"She wasn't so proud yesterday when I collected the Sutherland bankroll. It was worth all my fighting, my scheming, just to watch her." His gray eyes had narrowed. They looked hard, predatory; not like the eyes of the Jim Bannister whom Myra had last seen two years ago.

Myra said, "I'd never suspected you were so terribly concerned about Sibyl Sutherland, Jim. You act as if your one motive in this legal battle was to see Sibyl humiliated, rather than—"

"Know what she did?" interrupted Jim. "She called me up this morning, apologized for talking to me like she had yesterday. But I catch on. She figures I'm to get a generous slice, probably 25 per cent of the prize money we've won, Myra. And I'm not so bad looking—as good lawyers go. As a matter of fact, Sibyl's out there in my car waiting for me right now."

"Well!" Myra said. She was quite breathless now. "I'd ask you to bring her in, Jim, only I feel that she must resent me and ——"

"Oh, I suppose," he answered casually. "Still, I don't like to keep her waiting out there too long. And as much as I'd like to stay, Myra—talk over old times and perhaps bore you with details about my legal victory. Maybe you could call at my office tomorrow ——"

"Yes," said Myra. "Or perhaps send Aunt Alice as my proxy. Any fee you might ask will be all right, Jim. Perfectly all right. I'm rather anxious to get started for the West again——"

"GOOD LUCK . . ."

"Then your aunt and I can fix things up. Perhaps your long trip East wasn't mandatory. Well, if I don't see you again, good luck, Myra girl." His voice might have betrayed the slightest catch.

"Good luck, Jim. Thanks a million for everything. And—goodby!"

After he had left, Myra stood there in somewhat of a stupor. All those insufferable hours of dread she has gone through . . . But it wasn't love for her that had inspired Jim Bannister's legal triumphs . . . That hard light in Jim's eyes, the uncompromising thrust of his jaw. It was revenge that he had battled for. Long years, ever since school days, he had been hurt by Sibyl Sutherland . . . How could he have been so hurt if he had not loved the blonde girl? Suddenly Myra threw back her dark head and laughed, laughed a bit hysterically and ran upstairs to shout the good news to Aunt Alice.

But Aunt Alice wasn't upstairs. She was out at the tree-fringed curb talking to an attractive blonde girl sitting in a parked roadster.

"I hated to phone Jim today, tell him how Myra felt," Aunt Alice was telling Sibyl Sutherland. "But I couldn't bear to see her play the martyr, throw away real love to discharge an obligation to Jim. Nor did Jim want it that way. He was as sensible, as generous as he was hurt. That's why he's in there now putting on a better act than any lawyer who ever addressed a jury. Strong, that's Jim. If his heart is breaking, Myra will never suspect it."

"I think he's coming out now," Sibyl Sutherland answered. "He must be as fine a man as he is a fine lawyer to do what he is tonight . . . and for the sake of a girl he loves. He was to pay me five hundred dollars for coming down here with him tonight, and to make things look real in case Myra was skeptical. But had up as Dad and I are now, I won't take a penny of his money. I—I couldn't.

AUNTIE GIVES ADVICE

"Nice girl," said Aunt Alice. "But you can take Jim somewhere and see that he gets some champagne. No man could feel sorry for himself very long, not with such a lovely companion as you at his side, Sibyl."

"Do you think that Jim Bannister could learn to . . . ." Sibyl didn't complete her statement of a romantic hope concerning a man who had proved himself quite a man tonight. Jim, in person, was coming down the walk.

"Make it all right, Jim?" Aunt Alice hissed.

"I think so." He seemed tired as he slumped down in the roadster seat. Yet he smiled at Sibyl Sutherland as he said, "Think you could go for a brief bit of night life, lady? I need a drink. Maybe several."

"Which means you'll need someone to look after you," said the blonde girl, reaching out to touch Aunt Alice's arm reassuringly. "Drive on, barrister. The night is ours!"

As the car rolled away, plump Aunt Alice stood there on the curb and mumbled to herself: "Hm-m! I've a sneaking suspicion that Jim will have someone to look after him, and perhaps longer than just for this hectic night . . . Too, I think he's adored Sibyl—at a respectful distance—for longer than he realizes. And maybe he wasn't such a grand martyr as he pretended to be tonight . . . Well, triangles are bad; but quadrangles are all right—if they can be arranged."

THE END.

Don't miss Monday's entertaining story complete on this page. The title is "$10,000-a-Year Man."

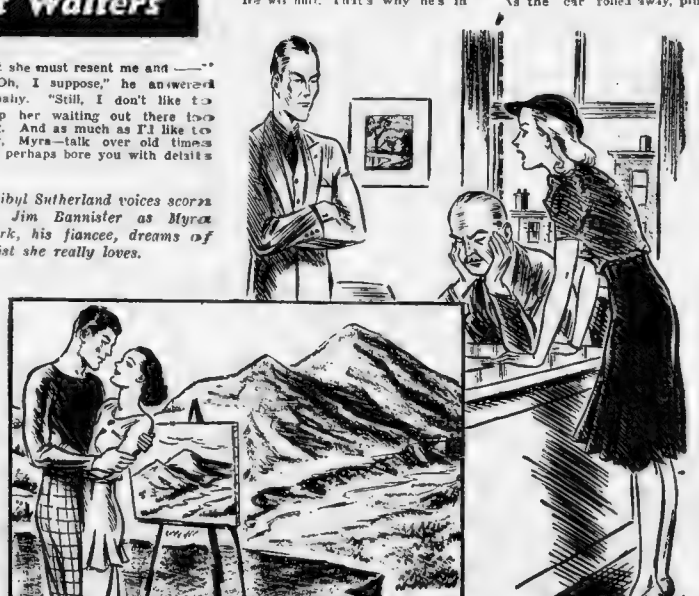
The Cast of Characters in "Three Plus One"

MYRA, who is obligated to JIM, lifelong friend and lawyer, but thinks she loves an artist out West.

SIBYL, the girl who makes the affair a triangle.

AUNT ALICE, who thinks more of quadrangles than triangles.

Sibyl Sutherland voices scorn for Jim Bannister as Myra Clark, his fiancee, dreams of artist she really loves.



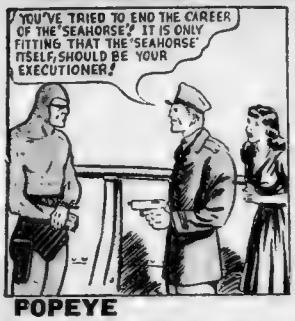
Crossword Solution

Puzzle appears on Page 10

B	O	S	O	M		P	E	R	I	L
B	O	R	A	T	E		A	L	I	N	I	T
O	T	I	T	I	S		L	U	G		G	O
N	A	G		C	O	P	A	L		C	A	N
U	N	I	T		N	O	D		C	U	T	E
S	Y	N	O	D		D	I	L	U	T	E	D
		X	A	T		N	I	P
S	I	M	I	L	A	R		S	E	R	A	O
O	M	E	N		N	U	N		L	U	T	E
L	A	W		M	A	T	I	N		G	O	D
A	R		D	U	G		V	E	R	O	N	A
R	E	M	O	T	E		A	R	I	S	E	R
T	I	G	E	R		L	O	D	E	S

THE PHANTOM

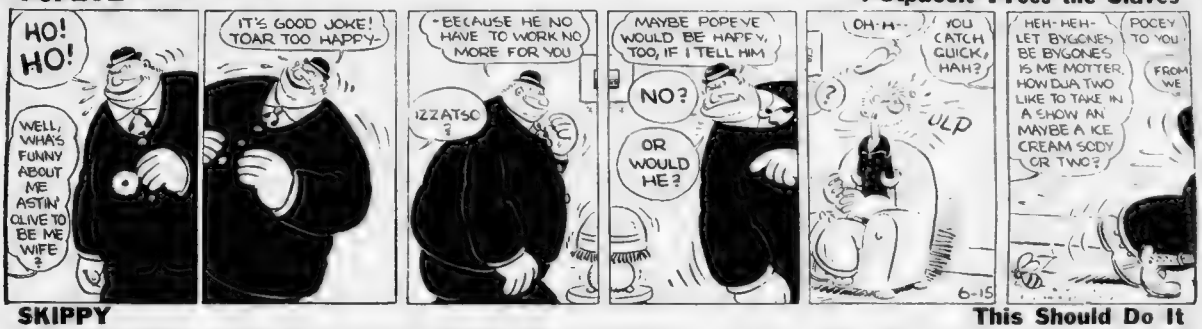
"See the Phantom in Colors in the Boston Sunday Advertiser



The Baron Executes a Neat Trick

POPEYE

Popdeck Frees the Slaves



HO! HO!
WELL, WHA'S FUNNY ABOUT ME ASTIN' OLIVE TO BE ME WIFE?
IT'S GOOD JOKE! TOAR TOO HAPPY-
-BECAUSE HE NO HAVE TO WORK NO MORE FOR YOU IZZATSO?
MAYBE POPEYE WOULD BE HAPPY, TOO, IF I TELL HIM
NO?
OR WOULD HE?
OH-H--
YOU CATCH QUICK, HAH?
ULP
6-15
HEH-HEH- LET BYGONES BE BYGONES IS ME MOTTER. HOW DJA TWO LIKE TO TAKE IN A SHOW AN MAYBE A ICE CREAM SODY OR TWO?
POOEY TO YOU FROM WE

SKIPPY

This Should Do It

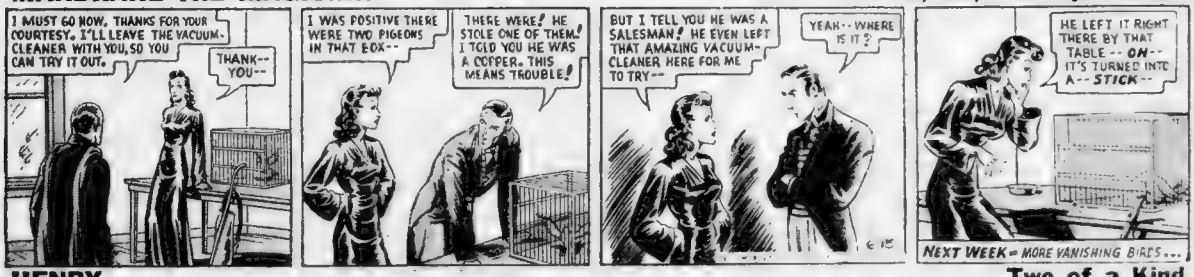
LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

Glorifying the Ugly Duckling

WHATYA DOIN', CORA— MAKIN' A LITTLE PLAYGROUND?
NO— I'M GOING TO MAKE MYSELF A LITTLE CACTUS GARDEN
YOU MEAN YOU'RE GONNA GROW MORE OF THEM PLANTS WITH STICKERS ON 'EM THAT HURT FOLKS?? GEE! I THOUGHT THERE WAS TOO MANY OF THEM STICKER-BUSHES IN THE DESERT NOW
I WOULDN'T GROW ANY OF THE HORRID SPINE-COVERED CACTUS— SOME OF THEM ARE POISONOUS— AND MOST OF THEM ARE USELESS WEEDS—
DARRELL McCLURE
BUT MOTHER HAS GIVEN ME SEEDS FOR A SPINELESS, FLOWERING CACTUS— WHEN IT BLOOMS— INSTEAD OF SHARP SPINES— IT WILL BE COVERED WITH LOVELY BLOSSOMS
GEE— THAT SOUNDS GRAND— KIN I HELP YA?

MANDRAKE THE MAGICIAN

Five, Six, Pick Up Sticks!



I MUST GO NOW. THANKS FOR YOUR COURTESY. I'LL LEAVE THE VACUUM-CLEANER WITH YOU, SO YOU CAN TRY IT OUT.
THANK-- YOU--
I WAS POSITIVE THERE WERE TWO PIGEONS IN THAT BOX--
THERE WERE! HE STOLE ONE OF THEM! I TOLD YOU HE WAS A COPPER. THIS MEANS TROUBLE!
BUT I TELL YOU HE WAS A SALESMAN! HE EVEN LEFT THAT AMAZING VACUUM-CLEANER HERE FOR ME TO TRY--
YEAH-- WHERE IS IT?
HE LEFT IT RIGHT THERE BY THAT TABLE -- OH-- IT'S TURNED INTO A-- STICK-- NEXT WEEK = MORE VANISHING BIRDS...

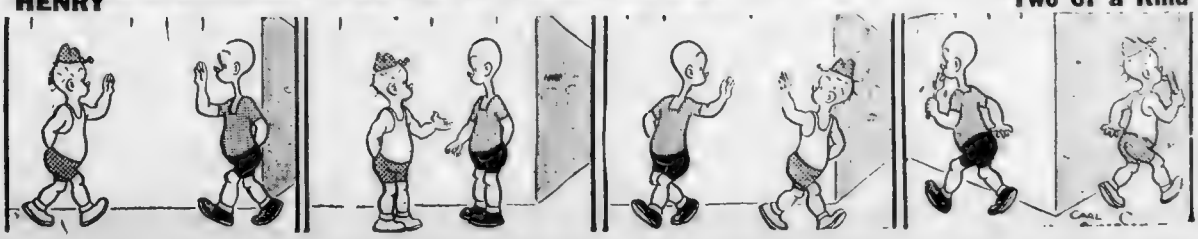
HENRY

Two of a Kind



Mr. Boston

By JACK CONWAY

BASEBALL HAS disintegraded into the lollypop and kiddycar stage. It will soon be necessary for managers to appear on the bench in formal dress, prove they know the answers in the book of etiquette before they can get a job, and display the manners and social poise of the drawing room in their dealings with their players.

HAL TROSKY

Managers of the type of the famous John McGraw, Hughey Jennings, Bill Carrigan and George Stallings will not be able to get major league or even minor league berths under the new order of things.

Baseball players have gone sissy and they won't play unless their managers are nice to them.

This condition has been suspected during the last few years, but it was proved to be a fact when 11 Cleveland players including Bob Feller and Hal Trosky, asked the management of the Indians to remove Oscar Vitt. The players insist that under Vitt's system of operating a ball club they are unable to play their best game.

Vitt comes from the old school of baseball. He never heard Ty Cobb, Sam Crawford, Tris Speaker, Harry Hooper, Everett Scott and other oldtime heroes asking favors from the opposition. Vitt came up in a baseball period where it was a question of the survival of the fittest. He was willing to risk a limb to make an extra base or to win a ball game.

Vitt carried his system of playing the noble game of baseball with him when he assumed the task of managing the Cleveland Indians. It sparked the club, but the players didn't like it. They did not approve of Vitt's driving tactics, they objected to some of his statements on the field and on the bench, while they felt he was not the least bit social as far as baseball was concerned.

WHEN ONE OF the Cleveland pitchers would look like a minor leaguer, Vitt told him so. Oscar was frank in stating that one could not win a pennant unless there was good pitching.

Vitt refused to take a page from the book of those managers who apologize for the mistakes of a pitcher.

"Sorry, old top," one manager told a pitcher, "but I must take you out of the game. Take a rest tonight, and you will forget all about what happened today. I still consider you a fine pitcher."

They did not do things that way when Vitt was playing baseball.

I made two road trips through the South with the Giants in the days they were managed by John McGraw. Any player who would have dared show disrespect for the "Little Napoleon" would have been hit on the jaw with a stout fist, and so none did.

There was not a player on the club who McGraw would not blast if there was occasion for doing so. McGraw's Giants had a deep affection for him, and gave him everything they possessed when on the field.

Bill Carrigan was boss of the old championship Red Sox. His word was law. Carrigan was loyal to his men, and when they had a fight on with the management they could always rely upon him for support. It was a different story if a player refused to abide by Carrigan's orders. The player soon found out who was running the ball club.

When Babe Ruth was at the height of his career as a hitter with the Yankees, I asked him who he rated as the greatest of baseball managers.

"Bill Carrigan was always tops in my book," replied the Babe without hesitation.

Hughey Jennings, George Stallings and the rest of the old school of managers would not have been able to have understood present day conditions.

MOST OF THE present day ball players are young business men more interested in getting the most possible money out of the game than in taking the necessary physical risks required to gain the heights.

The players have very little sentiment for the organization that is paying them their salaries. They usually welcome an opportunity to join a club that will pay them a higher salary.

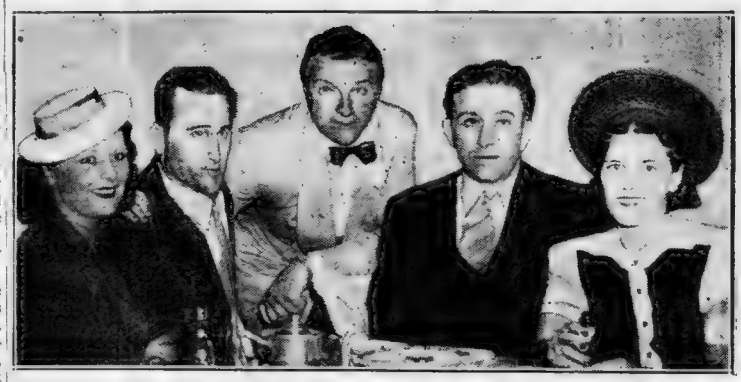
In baseball, as is also true in most other professional sports, there is a desire on the part of the athletes to get the most possible money for the least effort. While in competition, the athletes take as few physical risks as possible. They feel that if they get hurt they will shorten their money making span.

There is some justification on the part of the athlete in his effort to prolong his athletic life and to get the last possible dollar for his services. He knows that as soon as he cannot deliver that the management will brush off a chair for him in the front office, and then tell him that it is deeply grateful for his years of services but that he will have to seek employment elsewhere.

This does not excuse the Cleveland players from becoming sissies and objecting to some of Vitt's he-man actions and words.

AL LOPEZ DEFENDS QUINN

Stengel Sends Posedel After Cubs



EXCLUSIVE! Al Lopez, former Bees catcher and one of the greatest receivers of all time, having dinner at Cocoanut Grove with his pal and teammate for eight years, Tony Cuccinello, after he was sold to Pirates. Left to right, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lopez, Mickey Alpert of Grove and Mr. and Mrs. Tony Cuccinello.

By BILL GRIMES

Unless Pres. Bob Quinn negotiates another sale before midnight, which is the "deadline," in the judgment, at least, of the other seven National League managers, Al Lopez, who was sold to the Pittsburgh Pirates yesterday for an unannounced amount of cash and Catcher Ray Berres, was the only marketable asset on the Bees' roster.

Pres. Bob Quinn was forced to sell Al Lopez. To say that Lopez was traded to Pittsburgh for Berres and cash, is a misstatement. The Bees needed cash, NOT Berres, who was tossed into the deal to scale the transaction down to a price, which Pres. W. E. Benswanger could pay, and, still remain in business.

LOPEZ CAME HIGH

Although Bob Quinn appreciates Bill Benswanger's integrity—(the Pittsburgh president has yet to break his word with Bob Quinn, which is more than can be said for the other magnates who claimed they were interested in Bees' players)—the Bees didn't let Lopez go for $25,000 in cash.

If the Bees netted approximately $30,000 through Bob Quinn's trades, which sent Elbie Fletcher, Danny MacFayden and John Lanning to the Smoky City team—and they did—the sale of Al Lopez topped those figures, by a wide margin.

Al Lopez will be missed by the Bees and the few royal rooters who have stuck with the club.

QUINN HEARTBROKEN

The toughest assignment Bob Quinn ever drew was to tell Al Lopez the sad news. He was heartbroken. But he had no alternative. And it was a blow to Al, despite the fact that he had been forewarned by Manager Casey Stengel while he was on his way to the front office.

"I hope that this club begins to get the breaks it deserves," declared Al, when he came out of Bob Quinn's office. "I sure hate to leave Bob and Casey. But that's baseball and I'll be in there swinging for the Pirates as I did for the Bees and the Dodgers."

Until yesterday morning, Al Lopez wasn't mentioned in any trade. For months, rumors were current concerning this and that Bees being traded. Some of the Bees began to figure that they were going to be

Continued on Page 23, Column 1

NEW BEE. Ray Berres, .239 slugger from Pittsburgh, who comes to Bees for Al Lopez and cash.

By SAM COHEN

You could have filled a good sized bucket with the tears that were shed around National League Field last night when Bob Quinn announced that he had sold Al Lopez to the Pittsburgh Pirates for an unannounced sum of cash and a catcher named Ray Beeres.

But none shed more genuine tears than Al Lopez himself who really grieved at having to leave Boston and Bob Quinn. We found him with tears in his eyes last night at dinner when Mickey Alpert called him onto the Cocoanut Grove floor and the audience cheered him for fully ten minutes as Alpert, very sadly announced Lopez' departure.

TOUCHING SCENE

With Lopez at dinner were his very pretty wife and Tony Cuccinello, his best friend and teammate and Tony's very pretty wife. And when Lopez stepped up to thank the people for their kind tribute large gobs of tears flowed down the faces of Mrs. Lopez and Mrs. Cuccinello while the hardened baseball veteran Cuccinello reached for his handkerchief.

Later, Lopez in an exclusive interview for the Boston Evening American, came to the defense of Bob Quinn, owner of the Bees, who no doubt will be the target of many biting remarks as the result of the sale of this great catcher and big favorite.

When some in the audience hollered to Lopez that they wouldn't be at the park today because he was gone he got to his feet and protested that if they had only patronized the Bees as they should he would still be with the ball club, helping them win.

DEFENDS QUINN

In defending Quinn, Lopez said:

"I've been around a long time and I think I have a lot of baseball left to give Pittsburgh. I call them as I see them, but after I spoke to Mr. Quinn I was lost for words. I think it hurt him as much to sell me as it would if he were selling his own son.

"I'll never stop loving Bob Quinn and the many friends I made in Boston. I hope the fans here will wake up to the fact that

Continued on Page 27, Column 3

Today in Sports

SHOOT

State trap shooting championship at Paleface Gun Club, Medford, 10:00 a. m.

POLO

Intercollegiate final (Yale vs. Princeton) 3:00 p. m.

Consolation game, Harvard vs. Penn M. C., 4:30 p. m. at Forbes Field, Westwood.

TENNIS

Mrs. Wightman's girls tournament at Longwood C. C., Brookline, 10:00 a. m.

Middlesex Bowl tournament at Newton S. & T. C., Newton, 2:00 p. m.

GOLF

M. G. A. medal tournament final at Brockton C. C., Brockton, 9:00 a. m.

HARVARD PLAYS AT TUFTS; B. C. AT N. H.

The college baseball season in Greater Boston was to close with the exception of the Harvard-Yale series this afternoon with Harvard playing Tufts at Medford and Boston College playing New Hampshire University at Durham, N. H.

Captain Allen Hatch, Tufts great pitcher, was seeking his fifth straight triumph over a Crimson nine, and he has yet to be beaten by them. Pro offers have been made Hatch but the good looking right hander prefers to get going on a business career.

Other Tufts players besides Hatch who were playing their last game were Joe Dineen and Leo Geary, first baseman, Geirge Chiros, shortstop, and Sumner Raphael, outfielder.

At Durham, N. H., five B. C. players were wearing their uniforms for the last time. They were Pitcher Frank Leahy, Second Baseman Bob Cromwell, Captain Frank Burns, Cat her Jim Byrne and Left Fielder Brad Martin.

NATIONAL LEAGUE FIELD
Double-header tomorrow at 1:30
BEES vs. CHICAGO
Seats at National League Field. Sts. 9000

'He'll Drive Us All Nuts,' Says Feller of Vitt

CLEVELAND, June 15 (AP)—Pitcher Bob Feller, breaking his silence on the "fire-Vitt" campaign of a dozen Cleveland Indians, said today he had "nothing personally" against Pilot Oscar Vitt, but—

"Sometimes it seems he'll drive us all nuts. Maybe it's just his nervous condition."

The $27,500-a-year hurler was one of the tribe delegation which sought Vitt's ouster Thursday in a visit to the club's front office.

Vitt himself already had admitted "nervousness" in the dugout, adding:

"What do the fellows want? A manager who doesn't care whether they win or lose?"

Silence of the Indians' front office on how it will deal with the players' demand bred a lot of speculation.

The consensus: That club officials probably could do one of three things—

1—Dismiss the peppery pilot.

2—Get rid of the most rebellious players (not regarded as likely, because the club would have to employ sleight-of-hand speed to beat the league trading Deadline at midnight tonight.

3—Conduct a peace campaign salve the wounds of both players and pilot, keeping the services of all involved.

Should Vitt be discharged, Coach Luke Sewell, longtime Cleveland catcher who is the preference of players, probably would be named at least acting manager.

MAY HUNT 5TH COLUMN

Observers believed officials' investigation of players charges would include a search for possible "fifth column" activity within the tribe on the premise one or two persons disgruntled about Vitt's management agitated the others.

It was certain the investigation would reach into every department.

Pilot Alva Bradley, before whom the 12 complaining players took the charges that Vitt ridiculed them and wrecked their morale, indicated as much following a round of conferences with club directors, Vitt and Vice-President C. C. Slapnicka.

Slapnicka obtained Bob Feller for the Indians and acts as business manager for the young pitcher, who was among the complainants.

DIDN'T HURT PLAY

In reply to a reporter's question as to whether Slapnicka came into the incident, Bradley said:

"Not that I know of yet, anyhow."

Their grievances aired, the Indians performed yesterday without a hint of dissension, Johnny Allen blanking the Philadelphia Athletics 8 to 0 with two-hit pitching.

When Ol' Os and Young Bob Were Happier

LAST MARCH. Oscar Vitt shows Bob Feller how much freedom new foot loose pitching rule allows. Bob and his manager seem to be happy enough in this photo.

Quinn Forced To Sell Lopez, Needing Cash

Continued from Page 22

sent to a pennant contender and started to dream about World's Series money. Judging from the article of bail they've been playing some of those mentioned in the groundless rumors haven't had their minds on their work. They have slumped to such an extent that if any club was interested in them the parties who were to have laid the cash on the line misplaced their check books in the nick of time.

FORCED TO SELL

As stated above, Bob Quinn didn't want to dispose of Al Lopez but when McPhail, Terry and the others ran out on him, he had not alternative. It was a case of Lopez or no dice. So, he was obliged to turn loose his best asset.

The Bees got off to a bad start this spring and they have not been able to hit a winning stride up to the present stage of the race. Bob Quinn and Casey Stengel are trying to develop a young club. They gambled on their pitchers carrying the team until the youngsters, Ross, Sisti and Rowell delivered. The pitchers let them down. The youngsters are making the grade.

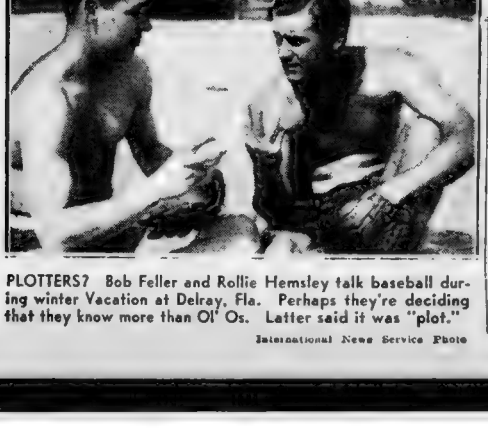
The fans deserted the Bees. They flocked to the Red Sox, pace makers in the American League. Through the combination of small crowds and bad weather the Bees slipped in the "red." Finally the financial situation reached such an acute stage that Bob Quinn was obliged to make a supreme sacrifice, Al Lopez.

The loss of Al Lopez will affect the club, but he cannot affect the "gate." To be perfectly truthful Bob Quinn has been fairer with the fans than they have with him. In all probability Bob Quinn will receive hundreds of letters protesting against the Lopez sale, but they'll be, for the most part, from the radio audience, which doesn't contribute a dime, directly, to the support of the Bees.

Pirate Fans See 1st Division With Lopez

PITTSBURGH, June 15 (AP)—Pittsburgh Pirate fans vision a first division club with acquisition of veteran Catcher Al Lopez from the Bees.

The Bucs have wanted the ace backstop for years and finally got him in exchange for Catcher Ray Berres and a "substantial" amount of cash, estimated from $25,000 to $100,000.



PLOTTERS? Bob Feller and Rollie Hemsley talk baseball during winter Vacation at Delray, Fla. Perhaps they're deciding that they know more than Ol' Os. Latter said it was "plot."

International News Service Photo

TWO YEARS AGO. Bob Feller pays rapt attention to Ossie Vitt as latter tells him how to improve his curve. Feller had won 9, lost 7 previous year under Steve O'Neill. Under Vitt, Feller won 17 in '38, 24 in '39.

LAST APRIL. Ossie Vitt congratulates Bob Feller in no uncertain fashion after kid had pitched no-hit, no-run game against White Sox on opening day of season. Seem to be pal-ly enough here.

Baseball's Big Six

(By the Associated Press)

Player, Club	G	AB	R	H	Pct.
Finney, Red Sox	59	177	31	67	.378
Radcliff, Browns	42	184	24	68	.370
May, Phillies	58	127	19	47	.370
Cramer, Red Sox	44	168	29	74	.351
Moore, Giants	41	165	16	58	.351
Walker, Dodgers	26	127	26	44	.346

Home Run Derby

AMERICAN		NATIONAL
Foxx, Red Sox	16	Mize, Cardinals	17
Trosky, Indians	14	Danning, Giants	8
Kuhel, White Sox	11	Weatherly, Reds	7
Johnson, Athletics	11	Nicholson, Cubs	7

RUNS BATTED IN

AMERICAN		NATIONAL
Foxx, Red Sox	50	Danning, Giants	41
Walker, Senators	41	Mize, Cardinals	38
Trosky, Indians	40	Lombardi, Reds	36
Bl'd'th, Senators	39	Fletcher, Pirates	36

Arc Lights Improve Sox Play

CHICAGO June 15 After looking every inch the American League leaders under the lights the Red Sox intend to prove that they are every bit as effective in the day time as they chase after the second straight win over the Yankees this afternoon and seek their triumph in a row.

Manager Joe [illegible] is counting Herbie Hash, his "rookie" sensation for most of the way. Hash has not worked since his 1-0 victory over the Yankees on Memorial day because of a sore elbow. The youngster looked good in his two innings and [illegible] the Cubs in that Cooperstown exhibition and appeared ready to go.

Ed Smith is slated to go for the White Sox but Manager Jimmy Dykes may decide on Specs Dietrich at the last moment for the undependable right [illegible] has been fatal. [illegible] league leaders this season.

If the Sox do win they will add 41,000 fans under lights [illegible] night in their 5 to 1 [illegible] Either Hash nor Smith should be able to hold them.

The Carmine [illegible] crowd the champions on the opening game of their western invasion. They picked up a [illegible] which was one more than the White Sox but the difference was the Boston outfit made their safe blows count.

The winners' pitcher, [illegible] had behind Denny Galehouse who turned in his second great relief performance of the year.

Denny kept his hits well scattered and was never in trouble.

The victory was particularly gratifying to the Sox as they chalked it up at the expense of Long John Rigney, who made the Hub aggregation look pathetic the last time he faced them, under the arcs here.

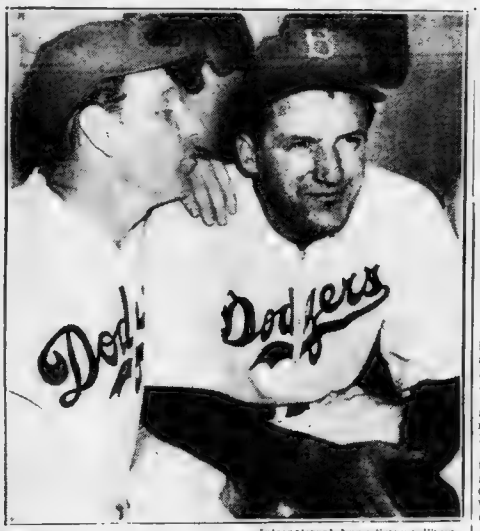
Jimmy Foxx who farred four times in a row against Rigney in that previous night affair poked up three singles and a walk in five times at bat.

College Baseball

Williams 31, Wesleyan 2.

FINNEY HOLDS BATTING LEAD

EVENING AMERICAN, SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1940



International News Service Photo

"WE CAN'T MISS." Leo Durocher, manager of Dodgers, tells Joe Medwick, new acquisition from Cards, that club is sure fire pennant bet now. Joe seems pleased, sensing that extra World Series dough. Medwick drove in one of two runs in Dodgers 2-0 victory over Reds in first game with club.

Four Red Sox, Ross of Bees, Above .300

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—The Boston Red Sox have made the American League hitting race practically shockproof by keeping four of their number among the 13 leaders and Lou Finney on top, but the National League is furnishing enough ups and downs for everybody.

This week Merrill May, third baseman of the Philadelphia Phillies, zoomed right out in front with a .354 average, 33 points better than last Saturday, when he wasn't even among the leaders.

In the last two weeks May has skyrocketed from .274 and there's no way to tell if he's yet reached his ceiling. His sensational performance overshadowed the hitting of all the other major league sluggers, although the New York Giants' Joe Moore, Brooklyn's Dixie Walker and Cincinnati's Frank McCormick all spurted.

Hank Danning of the Giants was the chief victim of May's big march, dropping 13 points to .339 and skidding from first to fourth among the National League hitters.

Finney, who had a .368 percentage in leading the American League a week ago, managed to increase this to .379 during the week.

The ten leaders in each league:

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Player, Club	G	AB	R	H	Pct
May, Phila.	36	127	19	45	.354
Moore, N. Y.	41	165	36	58	.351
Walker, B'kl'n	25	127	20	44	.346
Danning, N. Y.	42	165	25	56	.339
Gustine, Pitts.	33	116	17	39	.336
Ross, Boston	41	156	29	51	.327
F. M'C'ck, Cin.	49	200	37	65	.325
Leiber, Chi.	43	162	23	52	.321
Gleeson, Chi.	33	122	18	39	.320
Fletcher, Pitts.	42	146	26	46	.315

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Finney, Bos.	39	177	31	67	.379
Radcliff, St. L.	47	184	24	68	.370
Cramer, Bos.	41	198	29	70	.351
Appling, Chi.	50	192	30	66	.344
Wright, Chi.	50	204	31	70	.343
M'Cosky, Det.	14	166	35	57	.343
Mack, Cleve.	31	182	23	60	.330
Williams, Bos.	44	170	40	56	.329
Travis, Wash.	39	149	21	49	.329
Foxx, Boston	44	165	38	54	.327

Baseball Standing

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.	*G.B.
BOSTON	23	15	.676	—
Cleveland	30	21	.588	3½
Detroit	27	20	.574	2½
New York	26	22	.542	4
Chicago	23	27	.460	7½
St. Louis	21	29	.420	10
Washington	21	31	.404	11
Philadelphia	19	29	.396	11

*Games behind leaders.
nNot including night game.

RESULTS YESTERDAY

Red Sox 5, White Sox 1.
Indians 8, Athletics 0.
Tigers 10, Senators 1.
Yankees 12, Browns 3

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	P.C.	*G.B.
Brooklyn	31	13	.705	—
Cincinnati	32	16	.667	1
New York	29	15	.659	2
Chicago	26	25	.510	8½
Philadelphia	16	27	.372	14½
Pittsburgh	15	27	.357	15
St. Louis	16	29	.356	15½
BOSTON	14	27	.341	15½

*Games behind leaders.

RESULTS YESTERDAY

Bees 4, Cubs 2.
Dodgers 2, Reds 0.
Cards 6, Phils 2.
Giants 8, Pirates 6.

TODAY'S GAMES AND PITCHERS

(Won-lost records in parentheses)

NATIONAL LEAGUE

Cincinnati at Brooklyn—Walters (9-2) vs. Carleton (3-0).
Chicago at Boston—French (7-4) vs. Posedel (3-5).
Pittsburgh at New York—Bowman (3-1) vs. Hubbell (5-2) or Schumacher (2-0).
St. Louis at Philadelphia—Cooper (0-) vs. Beck (2-1).

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York at St. Louis—Pearson (5-3) vs. Kilduff (2-4).
Boston at Chicago—Hash (4-3) vs. Smith (3-6).
Washington at Detroit (2)—Hudson (3-8) and Leonard (3-3) vs. Newsom (6-1) and Gorsica (1-1).
Philadelphia at Cleveland—Caster (1-9) vs. Dobson (0-2).

McKechnie Admits Dodgers Team to Beat

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK, June 15—Cincinnati's board of strategy Manager Bill McKechnie, Coaches Hank Gowdy and Jimmy Wilson and Catcher Ernie Lombardi—views the National League situation in this light today:

1—The Dodgers are definitely the team to beat.

2—The addition of Joe Medwick and Curt Davis has made Brooklyn tougher than ever—"and they were tough enough before."

3—Nevertheless, the Reds should win because they still have the best pitching in the league.

4—And that pitching will begin to tell when the doubleheaders come along.

All four of the Reds' heavy thinkers agree that Davis is far from through. "He'll help them a lot," said McKechnie, "and Medwick certainly won't hurt them any."

"I wish I knew how to pitch Medwick," chimed in big Lombardi. "We know his power is up high, but he's just as apt to bust one off his ankles or hit a wild pitch into the stands. How are you going to pitch a guy like that?"

"Ever notice," asked Gowdy, "that a pennant winning club always has a great relief pitcher?"

"Yes," agreed McKechnie, "they're worth their weight in gold and we have two of the best in Milt Shoffner and Joe Beggs. Those fellows are going to come in handy when the going gets real tough."

"That reminds me," said Wilson, "where does anybody get the idea that we have only three pitchers. Of course, Thompson, Derringer and Walters are the best trio in the league, but what's wrong with Turner?"

"And din't overlook Whitey Moore and Johnny Vander Meer," cautioned McKechnie. "Here's something few people realize. Moore is about the fastest pitcher in the league. He's got enough stuff to beat any team the game ever had. The weather has held him back and he still lacks control. But he'll come around.

Boston After Dark

By GEORGE HOLLAND

Continued from Page 17

with the shutting off of its water supply, a segment of the citizenry is rebelling articulately (and in letters to the column) . . . The charge is that the water department's canniness in pressing for payment at times when Christmas or vacation money has been set aside is shrewd, but inconsiderate.

THE WPA has done a marvelous job in modernizing the East Newton street armory, according to reports of several who pre-viewed the shiny new inards of the long-neglected edifice . . . Accommodation for 45 trucks has been made possible, and the service company of the 101st Infantry has been transferred to the South End armory . . . The building has been equipped with shower-baths and modern kitchen and sanitary devices . . . In an emergency, hundreds could be sheltered in the armory . . . The tank companies of the 26th Division, by the way, have been transferred from East Newton street to the Commonwealth armory.

ELEANOR EARLY'S NEW BOOK is entitled "New England Sampler," and although the title is apt while being unprovocative, the text is alternately shocking, hilatious and dramatic . . . As well as absorbing from Page 1 to The End . . . It marks the graduation of the attractive former girl reporter of this newspaper, a Wellesley native, into the first-flight of belles lettres . . . Nor should the recognition the book is due to get on a national scale be anything but highly helpful to the earlier Early output—mostly travel-books with a "different" (and attractive) style.

Rural Rube Runs Futurity Near Record Time

Rural Rube, great racing greyhound whose work was so outstanding during the 1939 season at Wonderland that he was given a dinner at the Copley-Plaza, is just as fast as he was a year ago time trials in the schooling races reveal.

The Rube, in his first test of the season before a gallery of 5000 covered the Futurity distance in 28.4, only 2-5 of a second off his own world record and 3-5 of a second better than any schooling time at the Beach thus far this year.

The "Rube" was placed in an event with two of his kennel mates, Gustawind and Big Fella. He was seven lengths in front of Gustawind at the finish.

Star-Dust

By the Associated Press

Luke Hamlin, Dodgers — Held Reds to two hits as Brooklyn increased lead of last year's champions.

John Allen, Indians — Shut out Athletics on two hits and came within five putouts of a no-hitter.

Dick Errickson, Bees—Scored fourth victory without defeat on four-hit performance against Cubs.

Ernie Koy, Cardinals—Got two hits, one a triple, to lead Cardinals to triumph over Phillies.

Burgess Whitehead and Nick Witek, Giants—Each made three of New York's total of 13 hits in scuttling Pirates.

Dennis Galehouse, Red Sox—His seven-hit pitching brought Boston easy 5-1 decision over White Sox.

Charley Keller, Yankees—Led 17-hit assault on four Browns' pitchers with perfect night at plate, four hits including two home runs and a triple.

Ring Results

HOLLYWOOD, Cal.—George Latka, 178, San Jose, Cal., stopped Nick Peters, 188, Sta Ines City, stopped Nick Peters, 188, Sta Ines City, stopped Nick Peters, 188, NEW YORK Maxie Shapiro, 139½, New York, defeated Pat Foley, 134½, 8 (10).

WILKES BARRE, Pa.—Jackie Munley, 188, Old Forge, Pa., defeated Bill Bandos, 184½, Shenandoah, Pa. (10).

MT. FREEDOM, N. J.—Ike Williams, 132, Trenton, knocked out Billy Hilde, brand, 136, Morristown (6).

Eastern League

Hartford 3, Williamsport 1.
Elmira 5, Springfield 2 (1st game).
Elmira 2, Springfield 0 (2d game).

$300.00 IN CASH!

PLAY THE HORSES WITHOUT BETTING A PENNY!

Free Daily Contest!

PROVE YOUR SKILL--WIN UP TO $300.00 EVERY DAY

Can You Beat Mr. Wright Handicapping?

(MR. WRIGHT'S SELECTIONS ARE PUBLISHED DAILY IN THE DAILY TURF REPORTER)

We think MR. WRIGHT is TOPS as a HANDICAPPER. You may disagree. If you do, select one horse in each race at SUFFOLK DOWNS today. If at the end of today's races you have selected TWO OR MORE WINNERS than MR. WRIGHT you win the following schedule of daily cash awards:

2 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $1.00 CASH AWARD
3 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $5.00 CASH AWARD
4 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $10.00 CASH AWARD
5 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $25.00 CASH AWARD
6 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $50.00 CASH AWARD
7 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $100.00 CASH AWARD
8 WINNERS MORE THAN MR. WRIGHT — $300.00 CASH AWARD

Your Cash Awards Will Be Wired to You by Telegraph Within 24 Hours

1. This contest has been arranged by the publishers of the Daily Turf Reporter for your pleasure and amusement and gives you an opportunity FREE of any charge whatsoever to prove your skill and judgement in handicapping race horses. The above cash awards will be sent to you for your skill and ability in selecting winners with the compliment of the DAILY TURF REPORTER.

2. This contest is POSITIVELY FREE TO EVERYBODY. You may enter this contest by filling out a free entry blank which can be obtained at your newsdealer (or a facsimile) or, if you have no entry blank or facsimile, you may obtain an original entry blank by writing to the DAILY TURF REPORTER, P. O. Box 1111, Boston, Mass. containing a self-addressed stamped envelope. The entry blank will be sent to you by return mail together with the rules of the contest ENTIRELY FREE.

3. Your selections must be made of individual starters irrespective of whether or not the horse is part of an entry or field. For example if A & B is in entry or field you must select either A or B as your choice. And if you select A, and B wins you have not selected the winner.

4. All selections that do not bear the postmark prior to 2.15 p. m. the day selections are intended shall be declared void. Only one selection blank per person will be permitted on any one racing day. All contestants must use real names and his or her proper address, together with personal signature on selection blank for identification purposes, in the distribution of awards.

5. The contest is open to everyone except postoffice employees and their relatives.

6. The sole judges of this contest shall be confined to the editors and publishers of the Daily Turf Reporter.

7. In the event of a dead heat to win in a race or a race being declared off so that a substitute is run, in either case the dead heat or substitute race shall not be considered, and all selections made for that race shall be declared void.

8. IF YOU DESIRE A COPY OF MR. WRIGHT'S SELECTIONS FOR ANY PREVIOUS DAY YOU MAY OBTAIN SAME FREE BY WRITING TO THE PUBLISHER CONTAINING A SELF ADDRESSED STAMPED ENVELOPE

MR. WRIGHT'S SELECTIONS and all the information you need at Suffolk Downs to help you win at the race-track. Published in the DAILY TURF REPORTER.

AT ALL NEWSSTANDS THROUGHOUT NEW ENGLAND

25c a Copy

DON'T MISS TODAY

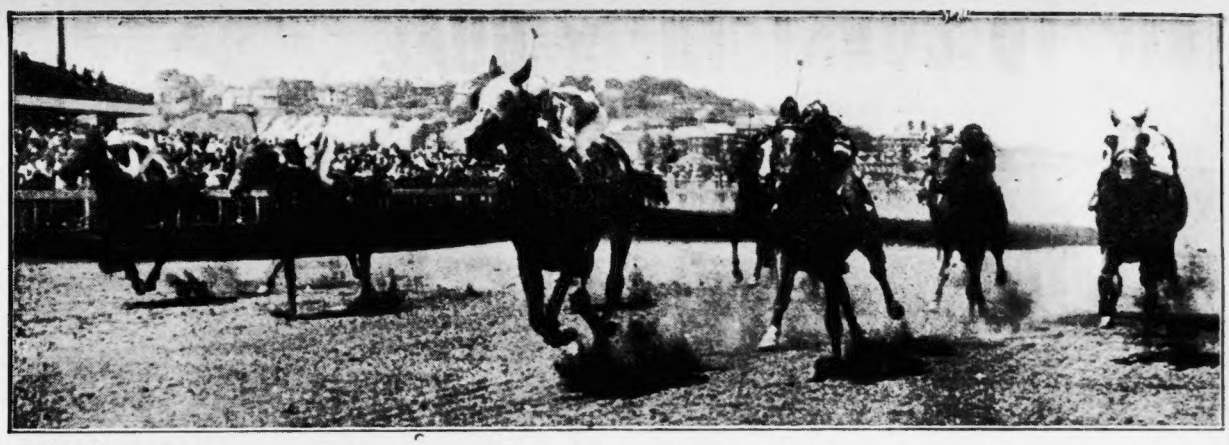
START TODAY

YOU CAN WIN BUT YOU CAN'T LOSE BECAUSE YOU DON'T WAGER A CENT.

DAILY TURF REPORTER

25c At All Newsstands | $1.50 Six Days By Mail

P. O. Box 1111, Boston, Mass.



FRONT CENTER. That's where Clayville finished in the opening race on the Friday card at Suffolk Downs. Jockey Berger is shown whipping him home

Suffolk Race Results

FIRST RACE

7—Steel King
2—Hallie's Play
3—Fernonde
4—Uvalde
5—Jet-Em-Down
6—Knight's Sox
7—Flag Unfurled
8—Conrad Mann

First	Second	Third
1-■	3-■	8-■

Bomber's Handlers Fear Chicanery

NEW YORK, June 15 (INS)—Arturo Godoy, whose ring tactics include flailing elbows, energetic butts and a Rumba step, has given Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis more scares than any other challenger he has met, according to the pronouncement of what Louis does not want Godoy to do to him when they play their encore next Thursday night.

This time Louis, or specifically, his handlers fear that the Chilean will put the slug on the titleholder after the bell has sounded ending one of the scheduled 15 rounds.

They plan to take the matter up with the boxing commission next Tuesday and ask for legislation against any such eventuality.

TO ASK EXTRA REST

The champion's handlers pointed out today (1) that Max Schmeling had clipped Louis after the bell ending the fifth round and went onto a knockout and (2) Lew Jenkins visited similar pain, embarassment and consternation upon the person of Lou Ambers in lifting the latter's lightweight title in a recent match.

The heavyweight champion's stable of managers will ask the commission for an extra three minutes' rest for their man in the event he falls victim of a post-bell punch, and, of course, will be willing to give Godoy a similar concession. We doubt that the commission will pay any heed to the request.

However, it is still another point over which Louis can worry, if he's of mind to, and he seems to be perpetually pestered by something Godoy may or may not do. Not all of it is thought up for publicity purposes, either.

In fact, Louis, who is noted for his ability to give the right answers despite his slow thinking, attracted some criticism to himself with his excuse for failing to knock Godoy out in their previous match.

ELBOWS AND BUTTS

His main fear that evening, as he explained it afterward, was that he would hurt his hands. The critics pointed out in rebuttal that the customers had paid to see Louis punch and weren't particularly interested in what happened to his hands in the process

Prior to that one, Louis reportedly was fretting over the possibility of Godoy butting him.

The truth of it all is, of course, that Godoy will inadvertently land some elbows if possible, will butt like an irked goat when he can, will take Louis' punches on the head if this measure promises a quick and complete fracture of Louis' hands, and he may even let one go after the bell.

But this is Louis' 11th defense, and if he hasn't learned how to take care of himself by this time, then we'd suggest that he avoid embarrassment by scoring a knockout—but quick.

We're not condoning Godoy's roughness, only warning Louis what to expect and offering meek advice on what to do about it.

Danny Driscoll Rides in $10,000 Cap

Trainer Duval Headley, who will saddle Hal Price Headley's Third Covey for the $10,000 added Kent Handicap at Delaware Park, has engaged Jockey Danny Driscoll to ride the son of Supremus and Paradox in the mile and one sixteenth event.

Dufferin Park Entries

FOR MONDAY, JUNE 17

FIRST RACE—Purse $700, claiming, three-year-olds and up, six and a half furlongs (10):

1	Savamark	116	6	Marys Crick't 111
2	May Bud	105	7	Fagan Lake 105
3	Mallinson	110	b	Gold Jug 105
4	xOrange Liz	100	9	News Sweep 110
5	Bes'ts Sp'nk	105	10	Quintechief 116

SECOND RACE—Purse $700, claiming, three-year-olds and up, six and a half furlongs (10):

1	Fly's Tulach	111	6	Game H'n'r 110
2	Little Trick	105	7	Sen Briar 116
3	Dorisenie	105	8	Fair Fort 116
4	Ritchie	116	9	Baiquerhelle 111
5	Barbara H.	111	10	Roseneath 105

THIRD RACE—$700, claiming, four-year-olds and up, seven furlongs (9):

1	Sass	118	6	Listy Coat 105
2	Sixweep	113	7	Faques 108
3	Friskiness	109	8	Nights Bud 113
4	Ku	105	9	Ten Jester 108
5	Margie Lou	108

FOURTH RACE—$700, claiming, four-year-olds and up, seven furlongs (8):

1	Golden Bough	105	5	Peter Pal 108
2	Martinlust	110	6	Tonyzone 113
3	Sing Bampa	108	7	Sping Beil 103
4	Poppinalong	113	8	Cville Lad 115

FIFTH RACE—$700, claiming, four-year-olds and up, seven furlongs (8):

1	Rose Marine	105	5	Danarco 118
2	Belle Fuller	108	6	Icanwin 105
3	Ellendodo	118	7	Hammel 113
4	Dowling	108	8	xEonsmore 103

SIXTH RACE—Purse $700, claiming, four-year-olds and up, seven furlongs (8):

1	Jealous Swain	110	5	Ardawn 108
2	Lassie's Mary	108	6	Madfast 108
3	Black Game	105	7	Silent Sea 108
4	Langwill	113	8	Chicharra 113

SEVENTH RACE—Purse $760, claiming, four-year-olds and up, one mile and one-sixteenth (7):

1	Fair Countess	109	5	Drayton Lad 114
2	Queen's Color	109	6	Lingster 104
3	Sam Bean	107	7	Viereing 107
4	Stand Out	117

x Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

$445.20 Payoff Sets N. E. Mark

The longest price horse of the New England season, R. C. Groff's five-year-old Sue Harpen, won the eighth race for a payoff of $445.20 to win, $146.40 to place and $61 to show at Suffolk yesterday.

It was the longest shot to win in New England racing came back to this section.

Few of the large gathering gave Sue Harpen a chance, judging from the number of tickets sold. But those that has faith in the fleet filly were well rewarded. There were two $10 tickets, three $5 tickets, $2 $2 tickets and four $6 combinations sold to lucky patrons.

The daughter of Sun Flag-Miss Sue had won but once in 15 starts last year and had run a dozen times this year without finishing in the money.

Suffolk Downs Entries

FOR MONDAY, JUNE 17

FIRST RACE—$1000, claiming, two-year-olds, five furlongs (10):

1	xPunchdrunk	102	6	xAlkyon 109
2	Zacatine	113	7	All Even 115
3	Lost Gold	118	8	Cavu 106
4	Ariel Rose	106	9	Hermar 113
5	xUnending	102	10	Beamy 116

SECOND RACE—$1000, claiming, four-year-olds and up, six furlongs (16):

1	xSadie F.	102	10	Lifenike 113
2	Malign	107	11	Hasty Wire 112
3	xBubbiesome	107	12	James N. 112
4	Hittie	107		Also eligible:
5	Royal Hobo	112	13	Prospectus 112
6	Atatime	118	14	Oronico 112
7	xPenrill	102	15	xOur David 110
8	White Topper	112	16	Ali Agog 107
9	xGr'gia's Boy	107

THIRD RACE—Purse $1000, claiming, three-year-olds and up, six furlongs:

1	xElita's B'be	105	9	Krin Toreh 115
2	Pause	110	10	King Cotton 117
3	xWoodsia	10	11	xClocks 110
4	xSargazo	110	12	Notice Me 115
5	Shalleen	100		Also eligible:
6	Time Please	115	13	xGossip Time 112
7	Maroon	115	14	Gambit 105
8	Praetorian	115	15	Night Chase 108

FOURTH RACE—Purse $1000, "The Ticonderoga," two-year-olds, five furlongs (6):

1	Port	118	4	Hi-Light 109
2	Kilocycle	112	5	Blue Pair 118
3	Double Call	115	6	Blue Twink 115

FIFTH RACE—Purse $1400, "The Lexington," three-year-olds, Grade C, six furlongs (6):

1	Dollar Bay	109	4	xOne O One 107
2	Limitation	110	5	xAbrasion 110
3	Mismark	113	6	Dusky Duke 115

SIXTH RACE—Purse $3000 added, "The Bunker Hill Handicap," three-year-olds and up, one mile (14):

1	Star Board	108	8	Dunade 115
2	aMar-Le	110	9	Tat'demalion 115
3	bPrairie Dog	104	10	Big Pebble 110
4	aMany Stings	120	11	acNight Edi'r 118
5	Forever Pr'ce	107	12	bCourt Dance 107
6	Calexico	109	13	U-Boat 100
7	Panoramcope	105	14	cPatrol Scout 100

aLe May Stock Farm entry.
bMrs. E. Denemark entry.
cMrs. C. C. Winters entry.

SEVENTH RACE—Purse $1000, claiming, four-year-olds and up, 1 1-16 miles (6):

1	March'g Feet	109	4	xLady Roma 110
2	Brown Bomb	114	5	The G' N' 2d 115
3	Dark Beau	112	6	Cave Hill 118

EIGHTH RACE—Purse $1000, claiming, four-year-olds and up, one mile and 70 yards (16):

1	Moralist	112	10	Freelander 112
2	Stepacola	107	11	El Puma 115
3	xCrossover	107	12	O'Cleary 112
4	xPolly Girl	102		Also eligible;
5	Goldfin	107	13	xMr Buddy 107
6	xVirginia Boy	107	14	Idolon 112
7	Metaurus	112	15	xSun Lamp 107
8	Slavic	107	16	xBerzit 105
9	Indiana Spa	107

MAN O' WAR 25¢ SPORTS AND TURF WEEKLY
FREE CODE
AQUEDUCT-ORANGE
48-44-78-32
See P. 2 Man O' War
Editor's Special
AQUEDUCT-SUE
57-47-97-87
For Subscribers Only
Send $2 for 5 Great Issues to MAN O' WAR—Knickerbocker Bldg., N. Y. C.

Today's Race Scratches

AT AQUEDUCT

2—Hard Loser.
5—Ringle.
Weather clear; track fast.

AT SUFFOLK DOWNS

5—Mismark.
6—Misty Quest, Kilocycle, Frontier Jane and Camp Sertie (late scratches).
Weather clear; track fast.

AT CHARLES TOWN

1—Dabs, Travelo, Home Hunter, Wise Money, Good Gracious, Grey Gleam.
2—Seplin, Camola, Famas Fay, Idle Scout, Kin Mag, Bank Note.
3—Barraca, Hurdy Gurdy, Circus Lights, Marbran, Jackfull, Happy Marlene.
4—Col. Hatfield, Miss Green, Five O Four, Happy Hostess, Overbost, Last Revue.
5—Lady Circk, Ace of Trumps, Pukka Heaven, Roving Eye, Star On, Counora.
7—Bolivar Knight, Pirate Ship, Butterman, Little Harpist, Lickety Split, Devils Broth.
8—Last Scamp, Stingaree, Channing, Some Bull, Real Money, Bright Chance.
9—Declared off.
Weather clear; track fast.

AT DUFFERIN

1—Tea Jester, Fay Vixen, Pete's Lady, Sandalman.
2—Ann Hanover, Barford, Bars First, Lee D.
6—Hasty Wave, Viceline.
7—Dearzin, Fair Countess.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

AT DETROIT

1—Sweeping Bow.
6—Red Moss, Noble Boy.
7—Miss Bonnie.
Weather cloudy; track fast.

AT DELAWARE

1—Aurelian, Rodio, Egypta, Escolar.
3—Roseanita, Miss Brideaux, White Time.
7—Sir Gay.
8—Nancy Mae.
Weather clear; track fast.

AT LINCOLN FIELDS

3—High Blanc.
5—Crumpet.
8—Vella's Choice.
Weather clear; track slow.

Suffolk Mutuels

For Friday, June 14

1—2—7 Races	$94.40
1—2—3—5—7 Races	$162.40
7 Races	$232.40
Three Races	$59.60
Five Races	$175.60
Seven Races	$232.40

GAMES WANTED

The Somerville Rosebuds, semi-pro ball club at home, would like a game for June 17th and Sunday June 30th. Teams preferred are Plymouth, T. T. and Braintree White Sox. Call L. Chisholm, Columbia 0972.

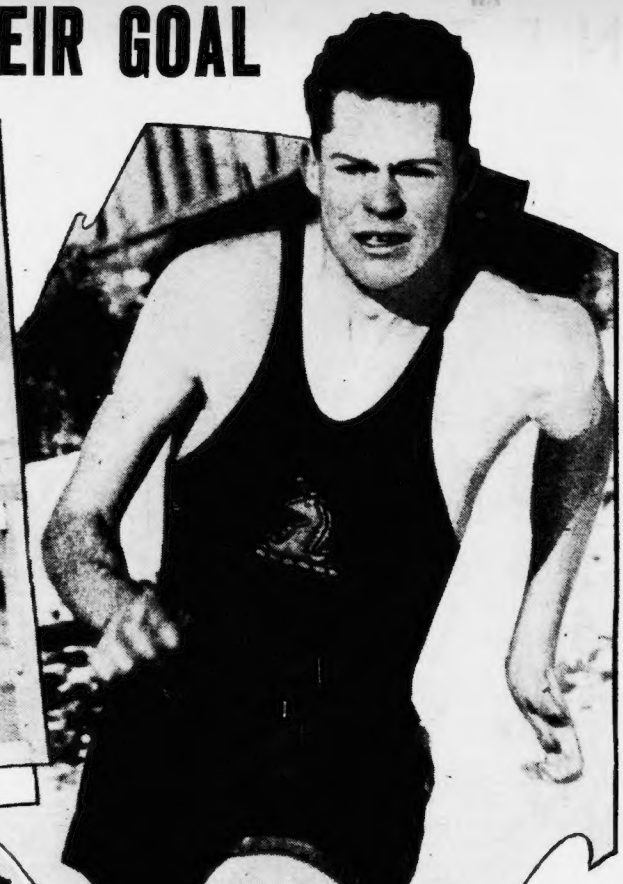
BENNETT'S RATINGS
It's the talk of the town!
25 Registered* WINNERS
FIRST 4 DAYS THIS WEEK
The Bennett Way
At Suffolk & Aqueduct
Bennett's Ratings have built a reputation for producing profit over a period of time. And here's why — Our average mutuel has been approximately $12.00. This means you must show a profit.
*Registered Winners
For your Protection, Bennett's Ratings are registered each day before the races at the Library of Congress, Wash., D. C., and a copy sent at the same time to this newspaper. All winners advertised are strictly legitimate.
1 track $1.00 daily—$5.00 weekly
2 tracks $1.25 daily—$7.50 weekly—
Mailed overnight—payable in advance. Copyright daily.
25 TREMONT ST., BOSTON
CALL CAPITOL 6563

"TODAY" SHOULD BE "ANOTHER BIG WINNING DAY"
OUR CLOCKER REPORTS
Today Is the Day
Don't go to the track today without first getting our
4 PROSPECTIVE WINNERS
Don't Miss This Opportunity Today
HERE THEY ARE
TRANSACTION NO. 1 Here we have word from the SMARTEST OF SOURCES on a REAL UNDERCOVER GOOD THING—A BIG MUTUEL PRICE expected—PLUNGE to win only on this one.
TRANSACTION NO. 2 This REAL GOOD THING has been waiting for a spot and properly placed today is an outstanding play for both SMALL and LARGE BETTORS.
TRANSACTION NO. 3 Connections like this speedster today—should pay BIG ODDS and worth a real good wager. Goes in one of the late races TODAY IS THE DAY on this one.
TRANSACTION NO. 4 One of the best things of the meeting and connections think this one should gallop home alone, odds extra good.
See Us Today Without Fail
We have given out many winners to our clients at Suffolk. But these 4 good things SHOULD SURPASS ALL Previous Releases. Ask for Clockers Reports, regular price is $5.00, Saturday only $2.00.
ALL THIS INFORMATION FOR THE SMALL PRICE OF
$2 PAYS FOR ABOVE 4 TRANSACTIONS
$3 For 6 Days
If unable to call in person, wire your subscription to address below
Reliable Racing Information
BARKER NEWS CO.
3 SCHOOL ST., BOSTON LAF. 8447

TRIP TO COAST THEIR GOAL

EVENING AMERICAN, SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1940

JOHN McNEIL



WALTER HALL

AL MORRO

DICK GILL
B. A. A. Captain

HARLAN WOODS

Cross Section of Competitors for Berths on N. E.'s Track Team to the Nationals on West Coast

N. E. Track Stars Battle for Berths To Finals on Coast

New England's greatest track and field athletes were to compete for both sectional titles and a trip to the nationals in California in the annual N. E. A. A. A. U. championships at Tech Field this afternoon.

BARNEY PALLIS
Artesani Club Hurler

Headliners in the list of competitors were the I. C. 4-A. champions, Bob Bennett, University of Maine, and Ed Dugger, Tufts.

Bennett was determined to break all American records for the hammer throw, while Dugger sought a triple in the 100-yard dash and both hurdles.

QUALIFIED FOR N. C. A. A.

Both are assured of the trip to Fresno, Cal., for the June 28-29 championships because both qualified for the N. C. A. A. championships by winning in the I. C. 4-A.'s.

As there is only $800 to split among the athletes going to Fresno, Dugger and Bennett are sure to go because it will cost only another $150 apiece to send them from Minneapolis to California.

The other probable tourists are the B. A. A. relay team (five men). These are Bob Folsom, Doug Raymond, Capt. Dick Gill, Don Fleet and Bill Dowd.

B. A. A. DOMINATES

The B. A. A. has rounded up a squad of 50 athletes and will romp away with honors. In fact they should take every individual title with Ed Cook in the 100, Mel Vincent in the 220, Bob Folsom in the 440, Jim Stanton in the 880, Harlan Woods in the mile, Bill Harkins in the three miles, Frank Ryder in the six miles, Walter Hall in the high hurdles, John McNelli in the low hurdles, Dan Miles in the high jump, Andy Hunter in the broad jump, George Hammerlund in the pole vault, Bill Gilligan in the shot put, Al Morr in the discus, Joe Zabilski in the hammer, Justin McLaughlin in the javelin, Frank Zeimetz in the hop, step and jump.

SURE TO SCORE

Outstanding event of the meet from a competitive and talent viewpoint is the hammer throw in which are Maine's Bob Bennett, Brown's John McLaughry, New Hampshire's Matt Flaherty and Rhode Island's Norman Wilcox.

Three of the four of them are capable of scoring at Fresno

St. Augustines Quits Park Loop

The fifth week of the Boston Par.: League pennant race ended last night with the closest standing in years on the records with all five clubs separated from first to cellar positions by no more than two points.

Also, a brief bit of drama was enacted in the passing of the St. Augustine Club after nine years at South Boston Stadium during which time astute Bill Benson brought to upper South Boston two Park pennants. The franchise is still controlled by Benson and he will open up on Monday at Dorchester against Dick Casey as the West Roxbury Baseball Club.

Carter's Clothes brief stay in first place in the East was negated last night when both Hal Crosby Club and Roslindale Town shellacked their collective opposition to take over the choice spot equally.

Crosby Club is also changing its home park as the seventh week of the campaigns begin on Monday, on Tuesday night they will play the second game of their series with St. Alphonsus at Marcella Street Park in Roxbury.

Park League Standings

EAST DIVISION

	W	L	T	Pts
Hal Crosby Club	7	6	1	15
Roslindale	7	7	1	15
Carter's Clothes	7	7	0	14
St. Augustines	6	6	1	13
St. Alphonsus	6	6	1	13

WEST DIVISION

Dick Casey Club	14	2	0	28
Artesani Club	6	7	2	14
Navy Yard A. A.	5	6	4	14
St. Catherines	6	8	1	13
Hellenics	3	8	2	8

RESULTS LAST NIGHT
St. Catherine 9, Navy Yard 0.
Crosby Club 16, Hellinics 7.

They'll Do It Every Time -:- Hatlo

AS FAR AS I'M CONCERNED, WE MIGHT AS WELL DUMP OUT THE PICNIC LUNCH AND USE THE BASKET TO PICK UP WHAT'S LEFT OF THAT MOTOR.
I THOUGHT HE SAID HE WAS JUST GOING TO TUNE IT UP. THAT CAR WAS ALL RIGHT LAST NIGHT.
-AND HE HAD THE NERVE TO KICK US ALL OUT OF BED AT 6 O'CLOCK!
MAMA! WHEN ARE WE GOING ON THE PICNIC? WHEN ARE WE? HUH?
OFF TO A SWELL START ON THE SUNDAY PICNIC- THEY'LL DO IT EVERY TIME.
THANX TO MRS. J.B. McCARTY BELL, CALIF.
6-15

Lopez Defends Quinn to Fans

Continued from Page 22

Bob Quinn is giving them a real run for their money. Quinn is the most honest and sincere man I have ever met. I couldn't have respected him more if he was my father and I can't help saying I regret very much parting company with him.

HOPES TO BE BACK

"I hope that I have enough baseball in me so that some day the Boston Bees will be the success they should be and then I might be able to come back to the club.

"Please tell the baseball writers in Boston for me that I appreciate the many kindnesses that they have shown me in the past and that I will always value their faith in me and regard for my playing ability.

"Tell them to impress upon the people of Boston that Bob Quinn has a fine group of athletes in the Bees and that Casey Stengel is a great manager who will someday combine with Mr. Quinn to put the Bees right up there and make the fans happy if the fans will only help them now."

SAD AT DEPARTURE

And so Al Lopez, very sad in his departure and still very loyal to the man he had called boss, waived a last kiss to Boston and went off into the cool of the evening with the friendly arm of Tony Cuccinello around his shoulder.

It may be said that these baseball deals are hard boiled, but here is one that was as dramatic as a man saying goodbye to his most precious possession, and any uncomplimentary remarks that might have been reserved for Bob Quinn by the fan for selling Lopez should be reconsidered after listening to Al Lopez—finest of all fine athletes.

Dodgers Kayo Cinci, Medwick Braces Club

By the Associated Press

The test of a champion is what is sometimes called "winning when the chips are down." The Brooklyn Dodgers loaded up with Joe Medwick in left field yesterday and passed their examination summa cum laude, shutting out the reigning Cincinnati Reds, 2-0, and taking a full game lead in the National League's race. Luke Hamlin pitched a two-hit ball.

The margin of victory wasn't overwhelming and the clubs will have to do a lot more skirmishing to establish any real superiority. Of the nine games they have played together, the Dodgers have won five.

DODGERS STRONGER

But the fact remains that Brooklyn yesterday was a much stronger team than before Medwick donned a Dodger suit. He got only one hit in four chances, but this was a single with two men on base in the third inning and it drove in one of the two runs. In addition Medwick covered left field like a tarpaulin, making six putouts and inspiring the Dodgers to surpass themselves.

The fracas was the first of a four-game series at Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, and drew a crowd of 27,000 fans, 10,000 of them ladies' day guests. The club said the park is sold out for today's game, with no-hit Tex Carleton set to battle Bucky Walters, and for tomorrow's doubleheader. A sell-out is approximately 35,000.

While the Reds and Dodgers were trying to straighten out the National League tangle, the leaders in the American League took one step forward in unison. The Red Sox, who are supposed to be weak in pitching, stifled the White Sox 5-1 in a night game with Dennis Galehouse holding Chicago to seven scattered hits.

INDIANS CONQUER

The Indians showed they are a dangerous lot, whether happy or not, by crushing the Athletics 8-0 on the two-hit hurling of Johnny Allen. Allen came within five outs of a no-hit game, losing it on a single by Sam Chapman in the eighth.

Hal Newhouser rationed the Senators on five safeties as the Tigers lammed out a 10-1 victory on 13 hits, and the Yankees exploded a fearsome 17-hit barrage against the Brown to win 12-3 in a night game. This decision followed close on the Yanks' four-straight conquest of the Browns in the East.

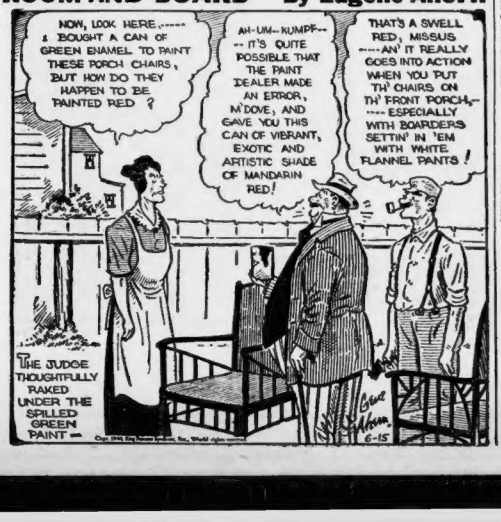
Charley Keller had a perfect night at bat, hitting two home runs, a triple and a single.

The Browns also announced they had obtained permission to play 14 night games at home this season instead of the seven to which other clubs in both major leagues are limited. Whether this was the first step toward a general letdown of the restrictions on night ball will be known when the National League meets next month. Sam Breadon is expected to ask the same privilege for the Cardinals.

The Cards, handled for the first time by their new manager, Billy Southworth, made a triumphal bow in the East by beating the Philadelphia Phillies 6-2.

The Giants chalked up their seventh consecutive victory and kept their finger in the senior circuit's pennant palaver by outscoring the Pirates 8-6.

ROOM AND BOARD By Eugene Ahern



NOW, LOOK HERE,---- I BOUGHT A CAN OF GREEN ENAMEL TO PAINT THESE PORCH CHAIRS, BUT HOW DO THEY HAPPEN TO BE PAINTED RED ?
AH-UM--KUMPF-- -- IT'S QUITE POSSIBLE THAT THE PAINT DEALER MADE AN ERROR, M'DOVE, AND GAVE YOU THIS CAN OF VIBRANT, EXOTIC AND ARTISTIC SHADE OF MANDARIN RED!
THAT'S A SWELL RED, MISSUS ----AN' IT REALLY GOES INTO ACTION WHEN YOU PUT TH' CHAIRS ON TH' FRONT PORCH,-- ---- ESPECIALLY WITH BOARDERS SETTIN' IN 'EM WITH WHITE FLANNEL PANTS !
THE JUDGE THOUGHTFULLY RAKED UNDER THE SPILLED GREEN PAINT —
6-15

ANNOUNCEMENTS

6—Deaths

SPEED—In Boston, June 14, Lelia McAlister, widow of Fred H. Speed, of 22 Holmfield Ave., Mattapan. Services for relatives and friends at Donovan's, 9 School St., Lynn, Sunday, June 16, at 2 p. m. Interment at Rockland, Maine.

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY LOANED ON DIAMONDS
Watches, Gold, Silver, Jewelry or cash paid
Licensed Bonded Collateral Brokers, Est. 1904.
Collateral Tickets Bought or Finances. Mail Orders
SAGER BROS. CO., 333 Wash. St., 6th Fl.

PERSONAL LOANS NATIONAL LOAN SOCIETY
294 WASH. ST. BOSTON License 87

$50 TO $300
GOODMAN FINANCE CO.
333 Washington St., Room 735, License 93.

Phone LAF. 3165—FOR LOANS
COLEMAN FINANCE CO., Inc.
353 Washington St, License 238

EMPLOYMENT

68—Instructions

BE A CERTIFIED WELDER
New England's only Exclusive Welding School. Enroll for Summer classes NOW
New England Welding Laboratories, Inc.
88 St. Stephen St., Boston. Com. 4218
Special Course in Aviation Welding

LEARN A TRADE
WELDING—MACHINIST
Write for free booklets now.
MASS. TRADES 137 OLIVER ST. Boston HAN 1424

CAN YOU DRAW? HOW WELL?
Write for Talent Test — No Fee. Give age and occupation. Box A-430.

REAL ESTATE

80—Houses For Sale

WHAT IS OUR TRIPLE TEST MORTGAGE
It pays to talk over your financing plans with our Friendly, Experienced Staff . . . without cost or obligation.
WORKINGMENS COOPERATIVE BANK
73 Cornhill Boston, Mass.
Est. 1880 Assets Over $19,000,000

FOR SALE

134—Musical Instruments

PIANOS FOR SUMMER COTTAGES $5 AND UP
COLUMBUS AVENUE STORAGE CO.
1270 Columbus Ave., Roxbury. Hig. 8400

126—Miscellaneous

CANDID type camera, $1.50. Takes 16 views. Uses standard film. Has a fixed focus lens. Carrying case 25 cents extra. Aristocrat Novelty Co., 303 Main St., Holyoke, Mass.

130—Refrigerators

Used elec. refrig., $29, guar. NATIONAL 26 Church St., Camb. Harv. Sq. Open eves.

Other Classified Ads on Page 19

RUSSIA TAKES OVER LITHUANIA

STORY ON PAGE 2

BEEHIVE LINEUP

BEES	CUBS
HASSETT, 1b	HACK, 3b
SISTI, 3b	CAVARRETTA, 1b
MOORE, rf	GLEESON, cf
ROSS, lf	NICHOLSON, rf
WEST, cf	HERMAN, 2b
ROWELL, 2b	DALLESANDRO, lf
MILLER, ss	COLLINS, c
MASI, c	MATTICK, ss
POSEDEL, p	FRENCH, p

Game starts at 3:00 p. m.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

2

Treas., June 15 (AP)
Balance 1,964,981,525
Receipt 11,980,083

CENTS

Copyright, 1940, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.

BOSTON, SATURDAY, JUNE 15, 1940

Entered as second-class matter at Boston Postoffice

ITALIANS LOSE TWO BIG FORTS IN AFRICA

LONDON, June 15 (INS)—Fort Capruzzo, Italian stronghold on the Egypto-Libyan frontier, has been captured and Fort Maddalene has surrendered, it was officially announced today.

SOFIA, June 15 (INS)—Italian troops have occupied Nice, famous French Riviera resort, the newspaper Zora reported from Rome today. There was no other immediate confirmation of this report from any source.

Aid For France

Bound for France to aid the hard-pressed French army, members of the new British Expeditionary Force embark from an unidentified English port. Today, the British are speeding all support possible to their ally, neglecting the defense of their own shores in an effort to save France. Photo was passed by British censor, cabled from London.

International News Service Cablephoto